Schermerhorn & Reinhold, architects, 430 Walnut street, have on boards plans for a residence for Mr. Roberts, at Merion, Pa. It will be of cut stone and rough as well, slate roof, three stories, with basement cemented floors, plate glass, tile work, plumbing, grates and mantels, hard woods, electric work and all modern conveniences. Cost about $6000. No contracts let.

James McCleymont, architect, Chester, Pa., has on boards plans for a new structure for the First M. E. Church, of that place. The building will be of local stone and Indiana limestone trimmings, one-story high with basement, and 40 x 85 feet in area. Steam heat, electric work, slate roof, plumbing and ventilation of the most approved system, general church upholstery and seatings of best designs. The cost may reach $50,000.

Dull & Peterson architects, 1110 Walnut street, have made plans for alteration and addition to store building of W. H. Grundy & Co., 108 South Front street. This work consists of excavating and stone work, concrete floor, carpenter work, sheet metal and tin work, plastering, plumbing, gas fitting and heating, painting, glazing and hardware, etc. Estimates are now being made in office of W. R. Dougherty, 1604 Sansom street, and other contractors. Noted previously in this journal.

Joseph W. Anschutz, architect, and supervisor for Board of Education, has completed plans for a new school building for Thirtieth section, at northeast corner Fifteenth and Ontario streets. The structure will be three stories and basement, brick and stone trimmings; same material for base. Cement flooring, steam heat, radiating system, pumps and engine, electric work, plumbing, reds, pavements of artificial stone, plumbing and gas fitting, steel ceilings, tin roofing, iron work and fire escapes, concrete and cement work. All modern improvements will be introduced, and special school furniture for pupils and teachers' rooms, closets, toilets, blackboards, bronze and iron hardware, etc. Work was noted when plans were started. The drawings are in the office of William R. Dougherty, 1604 Sansom street, and other general contractors for estimate.

Guy King, architect, 431 Walnut street, has on boards plans for alterations and additions to the house of Jos. H. King, at 3310 Race street. The new will consist of a library, a conservatory, and bathrooms, toilets, etc. Steam heat and electric work will be introduced and all modern interior comforts. Also drawings for a cottage at Glen Summit, Pa. It will be of stone and frame, shingle roof, three stories high, and all the best known comforts on interior, which will be finished in hard woods. Mr. King has also prepared plans for the rebuilding of Fernwood Mansion, at Fernwood, Delaware county. It is to be four stories high, stone, and erected upon the old lines of the hotel burned some time ago. The interior will have an elevator, electric work, steam heat and all general hotel appliances and conveniences. Also plans for alterations to the residence of Mr. W. A. Lathrop, at Wilkesbarre, Pa. An addition of frame will be erected, which will contain modern conveniences.

The plans for the new hospital building of the Jefferson Hospital, at Tenth and Walnut streets, are progressing in the office of James H. Windrim, 1107 Walnut street. The structure will be one of the finest in this country and combine many new features in its construction of such buildings. It will be of stone, brick, and terra cotta, with steel skeleton and fireproof throughout, and may possibly be four to six stories high. Steam heat and power, electric work, cement and wooden floors. Elevators for sick and freight will be introduced in each ward; speaking tubes and telephone system, finest ventilation and plumbing for all parts of the building, quarters for nurses and officials, offices and reception parlors. Best culinary arrangements in the kitchen department; tiling, slating, and marble work in various parts of the structure. All the latest sanitary principles in construction will be introduced. Tenants are vacating properties upon the site and it is likely estimates may be asked at an early day.

Mantel Fielding, architect, 110 South Fourth street, has been notified by the building committee of the Ebenezer M. E. Congregation at Manayunk, that his competitive drawings have been adopted for the new structure which they will erect at that place during the summer. The building will be quite ornamental, chiefly cut stone work, with a tower above corners of same material, two stories high, and contain steam heat, electric work, plate and leaded fancy windows, large basements and Sabbath school rooms, beside the auditorium. The chapel will also be in hard woods, highly finished and unique design; special system of ventilation, upholstery throughout, carpets, cushions and hangings, etc. Mr. Fielding will now prepare the details and specifications, after which estimates may be looked for. Same architect has in the course of operation plans for a building for the Boys' Parlor Association, of Germantown. Alex. Simpson, 54 Rittenhouse street, is president. It will be a two-story structure, of red brick, and will be arranged for gymnastic purposes and an assembly hall. Hot air heating, electric work and general conveniences.

Perhaps one of the greatest exhibitions of an electrical character yet given in this country will begin early in June in this city, at 818-820 Chestnut st., by the Phila. Electrical Exposition Company, of which Professor William P. Marks will be the Director. The entire building will be remodeled on the interior and adapted to the purposes above noted from plans prepared by the well known architect, Mr. Guy King, 431 Walnut street, and under whose special supervision the work will be done. The first floor will be handsomely decorated and fitted up with booths for exhibitors, an immense electrical fountain being placed in the rotunda, and in the rear of which will be the great Westinghouse display, and others of like character. The second floor will also be utilized for large exhibitions, also a band stand for musical entertainment and a beautiful cascade of varicolored electrical effects. A large Turkish room will be placed upon this floor, which will be lighted by the MacFarlane-Moore system of vacuum tubular lights, which will illuminate almost equal to that of day itself. An exhibit of kinetoscopic moving pictures and the mode of producing the negatives will be shown upon this floor. In a word, the whole building will be utilized. In the third and fourth floors the application of cooking, lighting and heating will be exemplified upon improved and enlarged systems of all kinds. No expense is to be spared in arranging and putting the house in such shape as to render the greatest amount of satisfaction and make the exhibition a success. 40,000 incandescent lamps will be placed on the interior, and sixty lamps of 2,000 candle power, equal to 120,000 candles, upon the exterior. Also an American flag, 7½ x 12 feet, which will have a commutator attachment for waving the emblem of our nation.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, MAY 4, 1898.

There is room for but little wonder that our State militia regiments are but half filled. If the present standard of incompetency and absence of consideration on the part of the State and its officials are to be continued, militia service will grow into such disfavor as to leave the service without privates altogether.

To take our patriotic young men from comfortable homes to camp upon the mountain side without tents or shelter in the face of a pitiless storm is quite as barbarous as anything the Spaniards have ever done, and it should excite the proper indignation in every section of the State.

If Mount Gretna is to be the rendezvous of the State militia, then Mt. Gretna should be prepared and maintained for such emergencies.

The cost of erecting suitable barracks to accommodate in comfortable quarters every militiaman in the State would be but a mere trifle in the face of the disease and death the present reprehensible methods are sure to engender.

Here is room for more missionary work for the Trade League.

The Penn Mutual Says Fight!

It is under conditions of critical emergency that American patriotism is best tried. This is the fact, both as to the individual in his private life or as a collection of individuals exercising executive power in a corporate body. The American personality asserts itself in both cases, and the country and the flag dominate all other sentiments, and all selfish interests readily yield to the national patriotic impulses of the individual. This is American in its broadest sense. This is the present status of the old reliable Penn Mutual Insurance Company, of this city, whose earnest and patriotic declaration, that its policy of insurance is in no way jeopardized by the insured enlisting in the service of his country up to May 1, 1900, is all that can be demanded from this pre-eminent broad gauge and popular favorite with the people.

Removal of the Land Title.

On May 2d the Land Title & Trust Company opened for business at its new office building, southwest corner of Broad and Chestnut streets.

The company will occupy the first floor for office purposes, and it is safe to say that for superb fittings and modern elegance the entire arrangements, even to the slightest details, will compare favorably with those of any similar establishment in this country. Rich and costly marble and choice selections of highly polished mahogany give tone and zest to the otherwise beautiful and impressive features of the magnificent apartment allotted for office purposes. It must not be supposed however that the offices, as beautiful and costly as they are, comprise the entire plant of this wealthy and singularly prosperous company, for the basement is in no way inferior to the first floor except in the fact that it is down stairs, and is where the real wealth of the company, as well as the wealth of its army of customers, is cared for in solid and costly vaults, embracing all that modern science and skill can do to make them absolutely invulnerable to the attacks of fire as well as the skilled and daring burglar.

The second floor, which is really the quarters of the immense working force constantly employed by the company in its title insurance and conveyancing departments, is no small feature of the plant itself, for the sacred duty of caring for as well as utilizing its thousands of volumes of records, embracing as they do the history of the ownership and transfer of every piece of property in the county of Philadelphia, from the colonial days of the Republic to the very hour that search and investigation is demanded, is relegated to it.

The removal on May 1st was on the day and hour originally intended when the contract for the building was made.

The building in the upper stories is full of elegant suits of offices, almost three quarters of the number having been rented.

Architect Notes.

J. L. Heacock, Wyncote, Pa., is taking estimates for a residence to be built at Pelham, Germantown, for a local party. To be stone, three stories, 45 x 55 feet, hot air heat, electric work, flush closets, laundry work, range and all minor comforts. Cost about $7,000.

Jacob Naschold, architect Manhattan Life Building, Fourth and Walnut streets, has plans for a residence at Mount Airy for Mr. Ambrose Hendricks. It will be of rough stone, slate roof, cement floor in cellar, furnace heat, plumbing, tin work, water supply, grates and mantels, range and all modern comforts.

E. F. Durang, architect, 1200 Chestnut street, has awarded to Nicholas Cavanagh, contractor, the work of erecting the large school building for St. Paul's R. C. Church, on Christian street below Tenth, in this city. Noted in our last and previous issue of this journal. Work will start at once under Mr. Durang's supervision.

Geo. Nattress, architect, 430 Walnut street, has made plans for a house to replace the burned home of James H. Davis, to be erected at Secane, Del. Co., Pa. It will be of frame, three stories high, basement cement floor, shingle and tin roof. All modern comforts on interior. Estimates are being made on the work by contractors.

Wm. F. Dillon, builder, will at once start building thirty-two dwellings, 16 x 60 feet, two stories high, and thirty 3-story ones, on Walnut street, between Forty-ninth and Fiftieth streets. These are to be of ornate fancy brick fronts and stone trimmings, tile work, wood mantels, electric bells, furnaces and ranges, all modern comforts.

C. E. Rahn, architect, 410 Walnut street, has made plans for alteration and addition to a house for C. K. Smith, at Chestnut Hill, and is ready for estimates. The work is quite extensive in character and includes interior and exterior of all branches. Work not included in the general contract is the plumbing, hot water heat, electric work, leaded glass, fire places and mantels, mosaic and tile work, and grading and sodding.

Charles R. Lee, architect, Hale Building, 1326 Chestnut street, has finished plans for a seven-story warehouse for W. Atlee Burpee, which will be erected at 475 North Fifth street. It will be of brick, with Indiana limestone trimmings, and furnished with steam power and heat, elevator lift and electric work, together with all modern appliances. The drawings can be seen in office of W. R. Dougherty, contractor, 1604 Sansom street, where estimates are being taken.

Thomas Bennett, architect, 923 Locust street, has completed the drawings for the addition to the apartment house (the Newport) 1530 Spruce street, and under his special supervision it will be constructed for the owner, Albert Mereshon. It will be of steel construction, brick walls, stone trimmings, three stories high, and furnished on interior with all first-class work in keeping with the main house which it adjoins. It will cost about $125,000, and has been previously noted in these columns.

W. H. Free, architect, Lippincott Building, Twelfth and Filbert streets, has on boards plans for a three-story residence to be erected at Lancaster, Pa. It will be frame, with slate roof, plate glass, hot water heat, electric work, ranges and all general modern conveniences. Cost about $6000. Same architect has made drawings for 64 houses to be erected by F. S. Zane, builder and owner, at Clearfield street and Allegheny avenue. These are to be of Pompeian brick, stone facings and contain plate glass windows, wooden mantels, ranges and furnace heat, as well as modern comforts. Mr. Zane's office, tenth floor of the above named building, with that of the architect.

Albert W. Dilks, architect, 1001 Chestnut street, has completed plans for a two-story office building for the Parkesburg Iron Works of Parkesburg, Pa. The structure will be of stone and brick and will be fitted on interior for general office work. Contractor is likely to be local.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Mr. Allen Reed, merchant tailor, Chestnut street above Broad street, intends, in the near future, to increase his home comforts and accommodations by enlarging, to some extent, his house, at Wayne, Delaware county, Pa., also erecting a porte cochere. No plans have been made or contracts awarded.

Stacy Reeves & Sons, 1611 Filbert street, has on boards plans for estimate on a new lock-tender's house, to be erected at Fairmount dam, for the Schuylkill Navigation Company, at the western end of the dam. It will be 44 x 30 feet, two stories high, stone or brick, contain eight rooms, have a colonial porch and Spanish tile roof with modern comforts on interior. Plans by Cope & Stewardson, architects.

W. F. Hand, 5259 Jefferson street, is taking bids for building one hundred and fourteen seven- and eight-roomed dwellings on a site near George's Hill, bought of G. F. Fletcher, and facing on Parkside avenue and Fifty-third and Jefferson streets, and will shortly begin work upon the operation. These are to be of fancy brick fronts, stone facings and steps, tile work, furnaces, ranges, electric bells, and all general comforts on interior.

Vickers & Falkenstein, owners, will, in a few days, begin the erection of forty-seven two-story dwellings, at Fifty-fourth street and Girard avenue. These are to be on Stiles street, north and south sides, east of Fifty-fourth. Also on north side of Girard avenue, east of Fifty-fourth street, and on east side of Fifty-fourth street, north of the avenue, and rest in the immediate vicinity. These are to be built of brick with stone facings, and interior with furnace heat, ranges, etc.

Benedict H. Birkell, contractor, residence, South Bethlehem, Pa., will erect the new church for the R. C. Our Lady Help of Christians, at the southwest corner of Gaul street and Allegheny avenue, after plans by F. Koenig, architect. It will be two stories high, 66 x 125 feet, and built of Port Deposit granite. The interior will be very handsome in hard wood, stone and tile work. Upholstery for chancel and seats. All modern comforts and improvements will be introduced. $45,000 is the cost of the structure.

John Stafford, builder, 1606 Susquehanna avenue, has broken ground for a large operation of dwellings upon the block bounded by Norris, Diamond, Thirty-second and Thirty-third streets, recently purchased of the Diogee estate, and noted in this journal some months ago. This operation will consist of two- and three-story dwellings, light, colored and fancy brick, with stone trimmings, porches in front of many, and interiors in handsome tile work, furnace heat, electric bells, ranges, gas fitting, and best of plumbing, cement work, cellar floors, and artificial paving.

Isaac E. Bleim, builder, Thirty-second and Berks streets, is the purchaser of the recently sold People's Amusement Grounds, at Ridge avenue and Dauphin street, and intends in the near future to build over the entire site a number of fine three-story houses, which will be in keeping with others by the same owner in that vicinity. These will be either Pompeian or other fancy brick, and quite ornamental in design; porches in front, plate glass doors and windows, furnace heat, electric bells, tiling in vestibules and floors, most approved ranges and kitchen fittings, etc.

Ordinances are now before city councils and upon which favorable action is most likely to be taken as follows, favoring increase of school facilities: To purchase a lot at Benner and Dittmar streets, Wissinoming; at Feltonville, in Twenty-second ward; to condemn Nos. 301-03-05-07-11-13-15 and 17 Lombard street and 428 30 and 32 South Third street; to extend the George W. Wharton School; to condemn Nos. 2207-09 and 11 East York street; to purchase ground at Thirty-first and Lehigh avenue (two bills); and Thirty-first and Huntingdon streets; appropriating $50,000 for a building at Washington and Longshore streets, Tacony; $85,000 for Fifty-fourth street and Lansdowne ave.; $60,000 for the northwest corner of Thirteenth and Thompson streets; $85,000 for Lawrence street and Susquehanna avenue; $70,000 for Twelfth street and Porter streets; $30,000 for Sixteenth and Porter streets; $30,000 to rebuild on the site of the present school on Fairmount avenue, above Twelfth street, and to take a portion of Susan Gorgas Park, in the Twenty-first ward, for school purposes.

Through Pennsylvania

—At Paoli, Chester county, Dr. James Aikens will erect a drug store.

—At Coatesville, Chester county, a brick and stone sawmill will be erected by Ashley & Bailey Co., of 109 Spring street, New York City.

—At Oxford, Chester county, H. C. Thomas has broken ground for a handsome dwelling to cost $10,000. It will occupy a site on Penn avenue.

—At Pittsburg, James M. Donaghy, 30) Amber street, will erect six two-story brick dwellings, to cost $34,000.—Martin & Evans, East End stock yards, will erect eight attractive two-story dwellings, to cost $39,000.

Through New Jersey.

At Flemington, Hunterdon county, it is reported that about five miles of sewers will be put in the present season.

At Asbury Park, the Board of Freeholders has recommended the construction of a bridge to cross Sunset Lake, at a cost of about $30,000.

At Hightstown, Mercer county, it is said that plans are preparing for the erection of an electric light plant for the electric light and power company.

At May's Landing, the West Jersey and Sea Shore Railroad company will erect a handsome station. It will probably be located in front of the American Hotel.

Through Maryland.

At Winchester, it is stated that S. S. Ball and F. E. Pittenger will establish a system of water works.

At Rockville, Montgomery county, it is stated that at a recent election it was decided to erect an electric light plant, to cost about $10,500.

Washington, D. C.

A bill has been introduced in the Senate to provide for the erection of a municipal building and court house in the District of Columbia. The bill provides for a fire proof structure, to occupy a site probably in Judiciary square and to cost about $2,500,000; also that ten architects be selected by a commission consisting of the engineer commissioner of

Architect Notes.

C. M. Bartburger, architect, Pittsburg, Pa., has made plans for a two-story school house to be erected at Wilbardine, Pa. The structure will be of brick and stone and contain all improvements for school purposes. Heating and ventilation contract has been let only.

G. W. & W. D. Hewitt, architect, Bullitt Building, Fourth above Walnut street, have completed plans for an alteration of store, 940 Market street, for Messrs Otto Eisenlohr & Bro. The work will consist of a new front, large windows, and minor detail work on interior.

T. Frank Miller, architect Lippincott Building, Twelfth and Filbert streets, has made plans for a stable for John R. Scott, at Cynnyd, Pa. It is to be stone, two-story high, slate roof, cement floors, hard pine work, electric work and all modern conveniences, etc.

William R. Dougherty, contractor, 1604 Sansom street, will make all the alterations and additions to the house of Dr. Geo. Ellis, 313 South Eighteenth street. This work will be a new front of stone and terra cotta and extensions, interior work; which has been noted previously.

A. C. Wagner, architect, 514 Walnut street, has completed plans for a storage house for the Prospect Brewing Co., at Eleventh and Oxford streets. It is to be of brick, stone, iron and cement construction and furnished with all appliances for cold storage purposes. Estimates are being made on the work.

F. C. Saur, architect, 331 Fifth ave., Pittsburg, Pa., has made drawings for a school building, four stories high, to be erected in Allegheny City, Pa. It is to be of stone and brick slate roof and tin work and supplied with every modern convenience for educating the youth. Heating contracts have been let.

McCullom & Ely, architects, Washington, Pa., have made plans for a school house to be erected at Corry, Pa. This will be for high school purposes, three stories high, brick and stone, slate and tin roof; heating contract has been let. The interior will be in hard woods, electric work for bells, and good sanitary plumbing, closets, toilet rooms, etc.

The Philadelphia Day Nursery, intends building an addition to their property at Thirty-third and Wharton streets. It will be 18 x 60 feet, and two stories high, brick and stone, heated from the original plant, and contain all modern improvements and comforts. Joseph M. Huston, architect, Witherspoon Building, is making plans for the work.

Thos. Reilly, contractor, has been awarded the contract to erect the parish building for St. Peter's P. E. Church, on Wayne avenue, Germantown. Plans were prepared by Theophilus Chandler, Jr., architect, Brown Bros.

Building, Fourth and Chestnut streets. The structure will be three stories high, of brick and stone, with all modern comforts in interior. Previously noted in full.

Samuel C. Boyer, architect, 913 Walnut street, has made plans for fifty-three dwellings to be erected for George W. Conderman, owner, at Fifty-second and Girard avenue, upon ground purchased recently. These are to be 15 x 58 feet, three stories high, fancy brick fronts, stone trimmings, tile work, and all general comforts on interior. Estimates are being made on the work and materials.

Edwin Gilbert, architect, 1420 Chestnut street, has made plans for a house for Dr. J. G. Taylore, to be erected at Overbrook, Pa. It will be of cut stone and brick, slate roof, the interior in hard wood, electric work, plumbing, tiling and boiler and range in kitchen of best make. Estimates being made in office of Geo. F. Payne & Co., contractors, 401 South Juniper street, and others.

The plans for additions to the Hotel Bellevue, at Broad and Walnut streets, are about completed in the office of James H. Windrum, architect, 1107 Walnut street. These call for additional stories and rooms, brick work, cement work, steam heat, roofing of tin and slag electric work, tiling, plumbing, toilet closets, plain and fancy glass, etc. Boldt & McCormick are proprietors and estimates are likely to be called for at an early day.

Geo. L. Sipps, contractor, 212 S. S. venth street, has been awarded the contract for the new library building to be erected at 21 25 25 N. Second street. The plans were made by Collins & Autenreith, architects, 410 Walnut street, and call for a three-story structure 56 x 148 feet. It will be of stone, brick and iron, fireproof, and will contain all modern improvements. Cement work, artificial stone work, tile work and general fittings for library institution.

Frank R. Watson, architect, 1208 Chestnut street, has on boards drawings for a Convent House for the Sisters of the Holy Child Jesus, to be erected at Chestnut Hill. The structure will be 61 x 125 feet, three stories high, of stone and brick, and cost $40,000. Estimates will be asked in two or three weeks. Mr. Watson has placed the house previously noted by us at Frankford on boards for bids. It will be two and a half stories high, stone, and contain all improvements. Cost not given yet.

Plans and specifications are upon boards for estimate in the office of M. Magee & Co., second floor Lippincott Building, Twelfth and Filbert streets, for roofing in and enclosing the proposed new buildings of St. Joseph's College, at Seventeenth and Stiles streets. The structure will be three stories high, of stone, brick and iron work, and will when finished be fire proof in general. The roof will be upon iron truss principle. The specifications do not contemplate the finish of the structure at this time.

Keen & Mead, architects, 1420 Chestnut street, have made plans for a handsome stable to be erected at Ogontz Park, Ogontz, Pa. The structure will be two stories high, Pompeian brick first and rough cast work the second, tile roof, plate glass windows, stone foundations, iron work, cement flooring and all general conveniences, etc. The drawings are made for W. T. B. Roberts, the well known operative builder of comfortable suburban homes. Macey Henderson & Co., 1213 Filbert street, are estimating on the work.

Horace Trumbaur, architect, late of 310 Chestnut street, has removed to a fine suite of offices in the Land Title and Trust Company, at Broad and Chestnut streets. Mr. Trumbaur has rooms 1407-8-9, handsomely fitted and prepared to receive clients and friends. The same architect has made plans for a pair of fine houses to be erected at Overlook for Wentzell & Smith, on the west side of Sixty-third street, north of Woodbine ave. These dwellings are to be of local stone and brick, single roof, interior in hard wood; tile work, ranges, plate glass and every modern convenience will be introduced upon the interior. Geo. B. Kuch has the contract and excavations started.

Preparatory to building at the southwest corner of Broad and South Penn Square, the tenants are moving, and it is likely the drawings will soon be placed for estimates on the office building to be erected by the West End Trust and Safe Deposit Co. The plans as previously noted in this journal have been prepared by Furness, Evans & Co., architects, Provident Life Building, and the structure will be either twelve or fifteen stories high, as may be determined upon. Granite, brick, terra cotta and steel skeleton will be the principal features of the structural work. Interior embellished with marble, mosaic and tile work, plumbing, ventilation, steam heat and power, electric work and elevators, and all modern improvements, etc.

Edwin F. Durang, architect, 1200 Chestnut street, has made plans for a school building for the R. C. Church of the Gesù, at Eighteenth and Stiles streets. It will be three stories high and basement, 45 x 200 feet in area, and the matter of material will be settled at an early day, as to the walls and ornamentation on exterior. The interior will contain all scholastic modern improvements, steam heat, electric work, blackboards, electric appliances, closets for clothing, toilets, lavatories, etc. Same architect will make plans for extensive additions to St. Agnes Hospital Broad and Mifflin streets, consisting of a boiler house heating plant and other details yet to be arranged. Mr. Durang is engaged on quite a number of other operations, for which plans will be prepared and noted in future issues of this journal.

Keep It Moving.

Notwithstanding the fact that this nation is at war with Spain and the question assumes grave proportions, it is a very notable feature that business generally throughout the country, and locally as well, has appreciated to a considerable extent. This is particularly so in the matter of building in Philadelphia and elsewhere. During the week ending April 30th a larger number of operations, great and small, were passed upon by the Board of Building Inspectors in this city than any preceding week during the current year. In this fact there is little room or comfort left for the chronic calamity howler to vent himself, and less for that class of pessimists who constantly seek shadow rather than sunshine. Millions and hundreds of millions of dollars have been put into circulation through the channels of labor alone—this outside of the speculative markets of the country. Transfers of property have been enhanced to a marked degree, which is always a sure augury of an active movement in other branches of industry, and the merchant and the husbandman show signs of activity that indicate a fruitful year of prosperity to the nation. All who would aid in this upward tendency should put their shoulders to the wheel, dismiss the past and memories of dull seasons, look upon the silver lining that looms up in the present, honorably and fairly step into the arena of competition with labor materials and merchandise, unite and join hands with the commission and the middle man, the broker and the general merchantman, and our word for it a united move will crown our efforts with success.

Messrs. Florey & Bevan Prefer the Clover Triumph Range.

It is a high compliment to a manufacturer to have a decided preference given to his wares in these days of hot competition.

Messrs. Florey & Bevan have just placed a heavy order for Clover Triumph Ranges with the Philadelphia Stove and Foundry Company, 1625-1635 North Fifth street, this city.

These ranges are intended to be used in the high-class dwellings Messrs. Florey & Bevan have under way at Overbrook Heights.

This recognition of merit, beauty and value is not only fairly bestowed, but a critical examination of the ranges themselves will convince any builder that their scientific and mechanical construction is perfect, and that their ornamentation is in keeping with good taste, it being neither under nor over-done.

The Clover Triumph Range is rapidly forging ahead in public favor, and it is certainly booked for a leading place in the front rank among our operative builders and owners, for it is essentially a first-class article, unhampered by fancy prices.

Architect Notes.

Thomas P. Lonsdale, architect, Manhattan Life Building, Fourth and Walnut streets, has made plans for alteration and addition to the Spring Garden Institute in this city. These comprehend also considerable interior work, new stairs, offices, plumbing, electric work, heating, and general modern improvements. Also additional two stories to be added, fire escapes, etc. Estimates are being made on this work in offices of Lewis Havens, contractor, 518 Girard Building.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Thomas Boyer & Co., builders, will at once start eighteen dwellings on east side Colorado, north of Ritner street; brick, stone trimmings, and all conveniences, etc.

Fire damaged to considerable extent the saloon of Richard Janders, at Kensington avenue and Cumberland street, on the 1st inst.; also property adjoining. Altogether about $6,000. Owner, George S. Gandy, 151 Bullitt Building.

John J. Brown, carpenter and contractor, 353 Mechanic street, informs us he is taking estimates on a large addition and alteration for M. and M. McNamee, at 560 Germantown avenue. This will be a three-story structure, office building, brick stone trimmings, leaded glass, galvanized iron, plumbing, heating apparatus, slate and tile work. The offices contain fittings appropriate for the purposes.

As soon as the old Baptist Church at Broad and Arch streets is razed to the ground, the estimates for the new structure of the United Gas Improvement Company will be placed on boards of contractors for estimate. The plans are approaching completion in the office of Wilson Bros., architects and engineers, Drexel Building. A full description of this office building has been given in a previous issue of this journal.

Charles McCaul, contractor, No. 10 North Eleventh street, has the contract to erect the new apartment house for G. Jason Waters, at the southeast corner of Fifteenth and Walnut streets, in this city, for which plans have been made by Seymour Davis, architect, 913 Walnut street. It is to be twelve stories high, 27 x 190 feet, and entirely of brick, stone and terra cotta, with interior iron skeleton. General details as to interior work has been fully described in previous issues.

E. A. Cameron, Superintendent of Construction of the new United States Mint, at Sixteenth and Spring Garden streets, in this city, says that all the drawings for the superstructure are completed and that they are to be placed for estimate in about from four to six weeks at most. The foundations are approaching completion under the supervision and contract of Mr. Allen B. Rorke. These are massive, compact, and speak for themselves as to good construction.

J. L. Clymer Company, 2135-35 Germantown avenue, have been awarded the contracts for all cement work on the following: Fifteen large three-story colonial dwellings for Geo. Gowan Hood, in operation at Mt. Airy; two stone houses at Mt. Airy, for W. H. Houston; one stone dwelling for W. H. Johnson, at Germantown; two stone dwellings for H. K. Thomas, and one dwelling for S. H. Mein, and office building for Bell Telephone Co., at Germantown, and two dwellings for Thomas Walker; two dwellings for Wm. O'Neil, two dwellings for E. & H. Stocks, all at Frankford.

Councils Committee on Charities and Corrections have resolved to ask for an appropriation for putting an additional story to the Insane Department at Blockley. Ordinances have been ordered reported for opening streets as follows: Providing for the opening of Melon street, between Ninth and Tenth; George street, from Thirteenth street west; Vine street, from Sixty-third-and-one-half to Sixty-fourth street; Cherry and Arch streets, from Fifty-seventh to Fifty-eighth; Fifty-seventh street, between Arch and Cherry streets, and Monument avenue, from Edgely road to Belmont avenue.

A. Raymond Raff, contractor, 1635 Thompson street, has the contract for extensive additions to the German Hospital, Girard and Corinthian avenues, which includes new stories on the wings, of stone and brick work, steam heat, electric work, ventilators and general conveniences, etc. Mr. Raff is also to build, at once, a conservatory to the residence 1935 Diamond street for the owner, Mr. Greenwald. The same contractor will erect a large stable at 1503-57 Dauphin street for William Butler. It will be of brick, stone and iron, three stories high, and contain cement work, hard wood stalls, lift and all general conveniences, etc.

Wm. T. B. Roberts reports the sales of two large tracts in West Philadelphia, as follows: One hundred and fourteen lots on the east and west sides of Aberdeen street, east side of Fifty-third street, between Jefferson street and Parkside avenue, north side of Jefferson street and south side Parkside avenue, between Aberdeen and Fifty-third streets, to Wm. G. Price, Jr., for $55,000. Fifty-four lots on the south side of Jefferson street, east of Fifty-third, east and west sides of Lindenwood street and the east side of Fifty-third street, south of Jefferson, to Wm. F. Morris, for $31,500. This cleans up an entire tract of 281 lots recently placed on the market. He also reports having sold over $25,000 worth of ground at the Ogontz tract now being opened up and improved by him.

BENJAMIN MOORE &amp; CO.,

256 Water St.

Brooklyn, New York.

The Trocadero Theatre, Arch above Tenth street, is to have considerable alterations and additions made during the coming Summer. We shall note more fully in a future issue.

Frank D. Williams, builder, starts an operation of fourteen dwellings on west side of Gratz street, north of Venango. All brick, stone facings and best comforts on interior.

Joseph F. Roberts, contractor, will at once erect a chapel on Mascher, south of Cumberland street, for the Alpha Mission. It will be 88 x 53 feet and furnished with heat, seats and upholstery. Cost about $4,000.

Alcott, Ross & Scully Co., 2917-19-21 North Broad street, are working on tile and slate work in twenty-two houses for Wright & Prentzel, Aldria street and York road, and four houses for same firm in Germantown.

Geo. W. Peirs, contractor, Lippincott Building, Twelfth and Filbert streets, have just received the contract to erect the school house at Fifteenth and Ontario streets. This work was noted in full in this journal in a previous issue.

Wright & Prentzell, contractors, will at once begin operation of dwellings at Forty-third street and Baltimore avenue. All to be three stories high, fancy colored brick, stone trimmings, and the interiors are to contain modern conveniences.

James J. Ryan has the contract to build the new freight station on the site of the recently burned Philadelphia & Reading depot, at Front and Willow streets. Fully noted in a previous issue. Work will be started at once.

Whelan Bros., 240 Glenwood avenue, will, at once, build eleven dwellings at Mendenhall and Wolf streets and on the northeast corner of Seibold and Wolf streets. All to be buff brick, brown stone trimmings, interior to contain modern conveniences, heaters, ranges, plate glass, tile work, etc.

Solomon Greenberg, owner, is about to build fifty-three dwellings, two and three stories high, on east and west sides of Hollywood, between Huntingdon and Oakdale streets. These are of brick and brown stone trimmings and contain all improvements, including furnace heat, ranges, plumbing and gas fitting, etc.

R. C. Ballinger & Co., 218 North Thirteenth street, have on boards for estimate a set of plans for a series of buildings and pump house for the Biological Plant of H. K. Milford, at Glenoiden, Delaware Co., Pa. These are to be of brick, stone and frame work, and interior work will be specifically for the purposes above noted.

Plans for improving the Edwin H. Fidler Park, bounded by Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth and Kent and Pine streets, will be upon the tables for estimate during the current week in the office of Chief Eisenbrown, Public Buildings, Broad and Market streets. Asphalt walks, grass plots and fountain will be the principal items for bidders.

Harry Brockelhurst, contractor, 514 Norris street, has the contract to erect the three-story parish house for the Church of the Annunciation, at Twelfth and Diamond streets. It will have a blue stone front, of Wyoming quarries, and tin roof, interior in hard woods, electric work, heater, range and boiler, and best comforts, etc. Mentioned previously.

J. Clark Moore, Jr., the well-known builder of large and elegant homes in West Philadelphia, will erect two at 4016 4018 Chestnut street, to be four stories high, fancy colored brick fronts, with stone trimmings, tile work, plate and fancy glass windows, steam or furnace heat, and electric work, tile and marble work, iron grille work, ranges, and all modern comforts.

W. S. Kimball, builder, has begun excavations for a pair of very fine houses at 4032-34 Walnut street, and is letting out contracts as follows to sub-bidders: Hot air heating, electric work, plumbing and closets, tiling and marble work, ranges and boilers, slate and tin roofing, hardware, painting and decorations. These are three-story houses and basements, and cost about $12,000.

The Board of Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania have accepted the gift of Col. Joseph M. Bennett of the property Nos. 3340-42-44-46 Walnut street for addition to what will be known as Bennett Hall, for the higher education of women. At present these will be used as they are, but will ultimately be razed and in their places a new structure erected to be devoted to the same uses.

At a meeting of the committee on plans and improvements of the Park Commission, on April 28th, Chief Engineer Vodge was directed to ask estimates on the cost of erecting shelter sheds, frame material, at various locations in the Park. Also to advertise for proposals for improving the Lincoln drive, as an appropriation of $10,000 has been made available for this work.

Florey & Bevan, contractors, 14 S. Broad street, will start the erection of twelve more handsome dwellings, 16 x 54 feet, on east and west sides of Gross street, south of Jefferson street. Also six on east and west sides of Sixty-third street, south of Jefferson; all to be of same materials and finish as those already built in this particular operation. Fully noted previously.

Burd P. Evans, contractor, has the contract to build the house for James McKee, at Overbrook, Pa., from plans by Schermerhorn & Reinhold, which have been noted previously in full in these columns. Same architects have completed plans for a stone stable, at Narberth, Pa., for Geo. Spittal, of that place. It will be 38 x 23 feet, and contain all improvements in stabling.

Judgments

PHILADELPHIA.

ABBREVIATIONS.

Where there are no figures to indicate the amount of the judgment, the damages have not been assessed.

The figures 1, 2, 3 and 4 immediately after the name of the plaintiff indicate the number of the Court. The term of the Court is indicated as follows: D, for December Term; M, for March Term; J, for June Term, and S, for September Term.

S. F.—Scire Facias, to revive judgment. A star (*) denotes judgment confessed or bond and warrant conditioned.

Architect Notes.

Rankin & Kellogg, architects, 1024 Walnut street, have been invited to submit a set of plans for a public library building to be erected in Jersey City, N. J. The number of competitors have been limited to five for the work.

W. L. Price, architect, 731 Walnut street, has on boards plans for a house to be erected at Devon, Pa., for Mr. Reed, a resident. It will be stone, electric work, hot air heat, mantels, fire places, range and boiler, and all general comforts.

Bids on the Public Free Library for the city of Newark, N. J., went in on Monday last, and will be scheduled. Contract expected to be announced at an early day. Rankin & Kellogg, 1024 Walnut street, this city, made the plans. Previously noted.

Isaac Pursell, architect, 119 South Fourth street, is making plans for the new Clinton Avenue Baptist church, Trenton, N. J. It will be of stone and brick, slate roof, leaded, fancy and plate glass windows, steam heat, electric work, seats and general furniture for church work.

Estimates may now be expected at any time upon the plans for the new Jefferson Hospital, at Tenth and Walnut streets, as all are completed by James H. Windrim, architect, 1107 Walnut street. These have been fully described previously in several issues of this journal.

D. D. Williams, architect, 384 George street, New Brunswick, N. J., temporary office, 925 Chestnut street, this city, has made plans for a residence to be erected in New Brunswick, N. J., for A. H. Chester, of that place. Stone and brick, three stories high, with basement. All modern comforts.

Harry Thatcher, builder, Colwyn, Delaware county, Pa., will erect thirty-six dwellings at that place from drawings by J. C. Newsom, architect, 1001 Chestnut street. These are to be of brick, two and three stories high, hot air heat, gas and plumbing, with other modern conveniences, etc.

MacCollin & Fast, architects, 1001 Chestnut street, have made plans for additional inside work for the Equitable Trust Company, Betz Building in this city. These call for partition of offices, fixtures, and minor details. Estimates are in order in offices of the Messrs Pennock, 305 Walnut street, and other contractors.

Kean & Mead, architects, 1420 Chestnut street, have made plans for a residence to be erected at Jenkintown, Pa., and upon the lot attached to the stable for W. T. B. Roberts; noted in our last issue. The structure will be of Pompeian brick and stucco work, with a roof of metal tile work, interior hard woods, electric work, range, boiler, and general conveniences.

The contract for the large seed warehouse of W. Atlee Burpee, at 475 North Fifth street, has been awarded to James Johnson, contractor, 1713 Sansom street. The materials for the front has been changed by the owner to Pompeian brick and terra cotta. Plans by Charles R. Lee, architect, 1326 Chestnut street. Fully noted in issue of May 4th of this journal.

Angus S. Wade, architect, 1326 Chestnut street, has made plans for alteration and addition to house of Charles W. Soulas, 1237 Spring Garden street. These call for cut stone work, brick masonry, carpenter work, galvanized iron, tin roofing, tile facings, hearths and range, electric work, plumbing and drainage, marble work, etc. Estimates being made at 1604 Sansom street.

Charles M. Burns, architect, 717 Walnut street, has completed plans for alteration and addition to 1314 Delancey Place, for Adam Eversly. Included in the specifications are cement work, iron work, tin roof, drainage, galvanized iron cornice, carpenter work, plumbing, closets, circulating boiler, furnace heater, and general minor comforts in detail. Estimates being made in office of Wm. R. Dougherty, 1604 Sansom street.

George Plowman, architect, Girard Building, Broad and Chestnut streets, has completed the plans, noted some time ago, for alterations and addition to Tissot's Hotel, on the river drive, Fairmount Park. A two and one-half story building, 64 x 70 feet, will be built, with two porte-cocheres, brick and brown stone, with best hotel accommodations on interior. General alterations throughout interior of old stand. Estimates being made in architect office.

Charles E. Rhan, architect, 410 Walnut street, has completed plans for a stable and milk house for P. Hernig to be erected at Mascher and Norris streets. It will be two stories high, granite base and remainder of brick work. Interior will contain office, milk-storage room, stalls for horses, feed boxes, etc. Cement and wood floors; all modern conveniences introduced. Estimates being made in office of Wm. Steele Sons, 506 Walnut street.

Schermerhorn & Rheinhold, architects, 430 Walnut street, have on boards plans for a residence for Mr. J. D. Williamson, to be erected at Oak Lane, Sixty-ninth avenue and Tenth street; to be stone, slate roof, pebble dashed gables, contain eighteen rooms, finished in hard woods, oak, chestnut, etc.; a conservatory attached to main chamber, baths and dressing rooms, electric work, steam heat, cement work, tile bath rooms, leaded glass and plate. All modern comforts.

Geo. V. Roberts, architect, 1014 Harrison Building, prepared the plans for the large biological plant of H. K. Mulford, at Glen-olden, Pa., noted in our last issue. This will be constructed as a series of twelve buildings, stone, brick and frame work, and pump house separate. The buildings are one and two stories high, single roofs plate glass, considerable cement work, and fitted specially on interior for the purposes above noted. Bids scheduled are now being considered.

Edwin Gilbert, architect, Crozier Building, Chestnut street, has been selected after competition to prepare all plans for the new John V. Shoemaker office building to be erected by Dr. Shoemaker, at 1416-1418 South Penn Square. The structure will be fifteen stories high, 36 x 92 feet, stone, brick and terra cotta for materials, with steel skeleton. Interior will be fitted with elevators, electric plant, tile and mosaic work, marble and cement work; steam heat and all general modern conveniences for such structures.

Field & Medary, architects, 1414 South Penn Square, have completed all the plans for a residence for Mr. Samuel Croft to be erected at Merlon, Pa. These call for a stone and rough plaster house, three stories high, shingle roof, a porch at one end, colonial style of architecture, leaded and plain glass, furnace heat, electric work, wood and stone work in mantels, plumbing of the best, tile work, paving of stone and cement work, ranges and boilers. The estimates now being made in office of J. E. & A. L. Pennock, contractors, 305 Walnut street.

At the annual meeting of the T-Square Club the medals for the competitions held during the past year were awarded as follows: Gold medal, Nicola D'Ascenzo; silver medal, Horace H. Burrell; honorable mention, Charles Z. Klander. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Edgar V. Seale; vice president, Adin B. Lacey; secretary, Herbert C. Wise; treasurer, Horace H. Burrell; executive committee, David K. Boyd, Walter Cope and James P. Jamison; house committee, Nicola D'Ascenzo, George B. Page and Frederick B. Mann.

The drawings for the Chester County Hospital for the Insane having been completed by Messrs Baker & Dallett, architects, 1604 Chestnut street, will remain on boards for estimate until May 31st, after which they will be scheduled and decided upon at a subsequent meeting of the commissioners. As previously noted these structures, three in number, will be of stone and brick, and connected by corridors, well lighted and heated by steam, roof of slate upon iron truss work, plate glass windows throughout, steam heat, electric work and finest systems of plumbing and ventilation, cement work, offices and fittings for doctors, superintendent, nurses' quarters, and all appliances and comforts for patients, etc. Open to general competition among contractors. The location is at Embreeville, on Brandywine creek.

Architect Notes.

George T. Pearson, architect, 427 Walnut street, has placed drawings for estimate on the addition and alteration to John B. Stetson's factory, 1746 North Fourth street. Work called for is brick, masonry, stone work, carpenter work, tin roof, plastering, structural steel frame, concrete work, etc.

James H. Windrim, architect, 1107 Walnut street, has made plans for a building for St. Joseph's Orphan Asylum, Stenton avenue and Church lane, Germantown. The structure will be three stories high, brick and stone, tile roof; interior will contain hard wood, steam heat, electric work, cement and tile work, ranges and boilers, plate and plain glass, all modern conveniences. Estimates are being made in contractors' offices.

Lawrence Vischer Boyd, architect, Harrison Building, Fifteenth and Market streets, has made plans for a residence for Willard Spencer, Germantown, Pa. It will be cut stone and brick work, three stories high, single roof, porches. The interior in hard wood, fire places, electric work, steam heat, tile work, plate and leaded glass, range work and boiler, etc. Estimates are being made in Wm. R. Dougherty's office, 1604 Sansom street.

Building and Real Estate Notes

Charles McCaul, contractor, will build the gymnasium at Glenside, Pa., for Mr. A. C. Harrison. This work has been fully noted.

Thomas Little & Sons, contractors, 217 Chancellor street, have on boards for estimate plans for a stable at the southwest corner of Sansom and Bonsall streets. Brick, stone and cement work with all conveniences.

Bids are being made in office of Philip Anna, 419 Bourse Building, for a house to be built at National Park, N. J. It will be stone, hot air heat, electric work, slate roof, papering, painting, range, boiler and best comforts.

George W. Young, builder, will at once erect eighteen dwellings on Durfor, east of Seventh street. All to be fancy brick fronts, stone facings and steps, interiors to have ranges, boilers, furnace heat and good accommodations.

Lemuel Altemus, Olney, will at once start building a country house for Charles T. Ivans, in Torresdale, Tacony. Stone and brick, slate and roof, three stories high, heat comforts on interior, electric work, etc. Work to start at once.

Lewis Havens, contractor, Girard Building, is taking estimates on a two-story addition to a factory at 1746 North Fourth street. All of brick and stone, slow burning construction and steam and general conveniences on interior.

James Collins, builder, has started twenty-five dwellings, two-story, on west side of Twenty-fifth street, below Dickinson. Brick, stone trimming; interiors have tile work, baths, ranges, furnaces, plate glass and all modern comforts.

The old Duhring family homestead at Thirty-third and York streets and Ridge avenue, has been bought by the Girard Realty Company, 708 Girard Building, and a large operation of first class dwellings will be put up on the site by the purchasers at an early day.

H. P. Anderson, 871 North Forty-fourth street, will erect a very handsome house at Forty-fourth and Baltimore avenue. Brick and stone, porch upon three sides, tile work, hard woods, plumbing and gas fittings, heater and ranges and boilers. All modern comforts on interior.

Messrs. Florey and Bevan, builders, 14 South Broad street, are keeping right on with new houses at Gross and Jefferson streets. Twelve more are to be started at once on east and west sides of 63d street, south of Jefferson. Material and fittings same as others in this large operation.

Horace McPherson, contractor, Drexel Building, has been awarded the contract to tear down the old Flisot Hotel on Ridge avenue, Falls of Schuylkill. This is preparatory to the erection of the new park for which estimates were asked lately by the architect, George W. Plowman.

Patrick McShane, contractor, has begun excavations for the stone parish school of St. Colombia's R. C. Church at Twenty-third street and Lehigh avenue. It will cost $45,000 and plans were made by H. D. Daget, architect, 435 Chestnut street, and were fully noted previously in this journal.

Samuel Chestnut, builder, will at once begin the erection of an operation of two and three-story houses at Cantrell and Sixteenth streets. These are to be of fancy brick fronts, stone trimmings, interior to have tile work, furnace heat, ranges and boilers, baths, etc. Plans made by Milligan & Webber, architects.

The Lutheran congregation, recently organized and worshipping at Fifty-ninth and Haverford streets, in a private dwelling, have bought a lot of ground at Fifty-seventh and Haverford streets, and intend erecting a church upon the site at an early day. No contracts have been made or plans drawn.

Charles P. Nesbit, contractor, 425 Locust street, has the contract to erect a country house for W. E. Brown, on the Byberry road, Somerton. Plans by William Shaw, architect, 14 South Broad street. It will be stone, three stories, slate roof, hard wood on interior, tile work, plate glass, and every modern improvement for comfort. Previously noted in full.

In the office of William Steele's Sons, contractors, 506 Walnut street, estimates are being made on the plans for the new Lutheran Church of the Nativity to be built at Seventeenth and Tioga streets from plans heretofore noted, by Charles W. Botton, architect, Witherspoon Building. It will be Holmesburg stone and contain general church fittings throughout.

On the 11th inst. fire destroyed 619 Market street, occupied by McCadden Bros., and damaged to a great extent Nos. 615, occupied by Tracey Morris & Co., 617, owned by Franklin Taylor, of Germantown, and 621, owned by W. W. Paul and occupied by Jane-way & Co., 619, where the fire originated, is controlled by the Girard Trust Co. as agents. It is understood all the above will be rebuilt as soon as insurances have been adjusted and details arranged.

It is altogether probable that when the present unexpired lease of the Central Hotel, 825 to 831 Market street, ceases, that a new building will be erected and attached to the great dry goods stores of Strawbridge & Clothier, now completing a building adjoining on the east. The latter firm will utilize the valuable property for storage and stable uses until that time. No definite action has been taken for the future. A. B. Shearer, Esq., is the counsel for the Burd estate owners.

Plans are upon the boards for estimates in Charles McCaul's office, 10 North Eleventh street, for an office or business building for John Wanamaker to be erected at 408 to 12 South Penn Square. Structure to be eight story, cut-stone and brick work, steel skeleton interior to contain an electric elevator, cement and concrete work, steam heating, plumbing, hardware and painting, etc.; all modern conveniences introduced. Mr. McCaul has made plans for a cottage to be built at Brigantine Beach, N. J., for Mrs. Van Dyke. It will be frame, three stories high, interior will contain all conveniences, including hot air, heat, etc. Estimates are being made on this work also. Also drawings for the erection of a cold storage warehouse to be erected on north side of Noble street, and from Delaware avenue to Beach street. It will be of stone and brick, eight stories high, wrought steel work, and built on piling, slag-roof, trimming and spouting, elevator and modern storage appliances. Estimates are being made in same office.

Muresco

Is a permanently hard wall finish. Over plaster it produces soft, even tints, giving the effects of kalsomine, without the flashing and with none of its disadvantages. It does not rub off against the clothing nor will it crack or peel. It kills suction and gives a smooth, even coat over an old plastered wall that has been patched. It is made in fifteen artistic colors and white. A color card and full information about MURESCO sent for the asking.

You May Doubt It,
But It's True.

I have for sale two of the cheapest and best located pieces of ground for a country or suburban boarding house in or around the city. Right at Willow Grove Park; has every advantage, steam and trolley, and adjoins Willow Grove Park. Every house for miles around this place has been filled to overflowing with Summer boarders since the opening of this park; high ground; view for thirty miles; terms easy, and price extremely low to parties who will improve at once.

Everybody's Got One. Have You?

A cottage lot at Willow Grove Land Company, right in front of the park, steam railroad station on the premises, trolley in front; secure one at once; a few desirable ones left; size 25 x 125; will sell on payments from $2.00 to $5.00 down, balance weekly, if desired. Can build on lot at once after first payment. It costs nothing to go and see it. If you will set a time our salesman will meet you and show property.

Sensible men can be convinced;
fools, never.

Were it not for the sensible architects, builders and owners, the modern American home would be unknown, and the

without a customer.

Good, better, best, are the three degrees of comparison, and the CLOVER TRIUMPH RANGES embrace them all. To make better is beyond the science and skill of man.

This range when complete weighs nearly 650 pounds, showing the castings to be unusually heavy and adapted to hard usage.

Among the distinctive features making this range especially desirable are gas attachments, which are practically self-cleaning—Improved Hot Air attachment effectively heating a moderate size room—Ventilated Oven—Oven Thermometer, showing the exact temperature of the oven—Sliding Grate Rest, by which a defective grate can be replaced in an instant, without disturbing bricks—Ash pan and sifter grate—"Alaska" cold handle knobs, which never become hot—Directions for use on every Damper, cleanout or other adjustable part—Boldness and originality of design—Ease of removing Boiler from the front without disturbing range—Lacquered Nickel Work, preventing rust—Kicker on Oven Door, and economy in the use of fuel.

The Clover Triumph is better and LOWER IN PRICE than any other first-class range on the market.

Architect Notes.

Walter Smedley, architect, Stephen Girard Building, has during the current week been taking revised bids on additional stories to stores and dwellings on Lancaster avenue, above Thirty-ninth street. These have been noted previously in these columns.

Truman P. Reftmyer, architect, Williamsport, Pa., has made plans for a factory building for the Williamsport Staple Works. It will be 45x52 feet, three stories high, slow burning construction, yellow prime finish, tin roof, plumbing and general improvements on interior.

J. C. M. Shirk, architect, 421 Chestnut street, has made plans for alterations and additions to Mrs. Sinnickson's house, 230 South Nineteenth street. These consist of exter or and interior work in detail, with all comforts introduced. Mr. Shirk has on boards other work which will be noted later.

R. H. Parker, architect and owner, Sixtieth and Woodland avenue, has made plans for a market house to be erected opposite the B & O station at junction of the above streets. It will be of brick, stone and iron, four stories high, cement floors and contain cold storage plant and all general conveniences, etc.

M. B. Bean, architect, Lansdale, Pa., has been retained to prepare plans for the New Trinity Memorial Church to be built by Dr. R. V. Mattison at Ambler, Pa. It is understood it will be quite ornamental in design, stone and brick, slate roof, tower at one corner and furnished with all modern church furniture and comforts, electric work, seating, upholstery, carpets, etc.

Schermerhorn & Reinhold, architects, 440 Walnut street, are making plans for a large operation of twin houses to be erected on north side of Lansdowne avenue, between Sixty-sixth and Sixty-eighth streets, and forty others on Leeds street, between the above numbers. These are all to be of fancy brick, with porches in front, plate glass windows and doors, electric work, plumbing and gas, tiling, furnace heat, ranges and all modern comforts.

George S. Orth & Bros., Stevenson Building, Pittsburg, Pa., have made plans for a house for Mrs. Alice B. Hogg, at Oak Mont Station, A. V. R. R. The drawings have been placed on the boards of Jacob Myers & Sons, Juniper and Sanson streets, for estimates. They call for a three-story house, stone, slate roof, plumbing, painting and glazing, furnace heat, electric work and all general conveniences, etc.

Charles Douglas, architect, 1313 South Nineteenth street, has completed plans for a storehouse to be erected for I. J. Campbell at Rising Sun lane and Old York road. It will be two-story high, brick, stone and slow burning construction, furnished on interior with electric work, plumbing, gas fitting, drainage and general conveniences. Estimates are being made on the work in office of contractors, M. P. Wells & Co.

Joseph M. Huston, architect, Witherspoon Building, made plans for the stable at Bon-sall and Sanson streets, for Mr. A. E. Kennedy. The structure will be three stories high, brick, Indiana limestone, blue stone foundation, cement and woodwork on interior, quarters fitted for coachman and family, hard wood stables, electric work. Estimates are being made in contractors' offices, J. E. and A. L. Pennock, 305 Walnut street, and others.

J. Bennett Coleberry, architect, Oak lane, has made plans for a building for the Union Benevolent Institution, at 728 Spruce street. The structure will be of brick, one-story high, tin roof, skylight, cut stone work, plumbing, painting and glazing. Estimates being made in office of Jacob Myers & Sons, Juniper and Sanson streets. Also in same office all the plans for a three-story stone house for Wm. H. Roberts, to be erected at Overbrook, Pa. Slate roof, porch on three sides, cement work, tin and copper work hard woods on interior mantel, tiling, hot air heat ranges and all comforts. Messrs Schermerhorn & Reinhold 430 Walnut street, made the latter plans.

George Kruger, architect, Johnstown, Pa., and William J. East, architect, of Pittsburg, Pa., have the contract to prepare plans for First Presbyterian Church at Altoona, Pa. It is to be of steel and stone construction, Spanish tile roof, hardwood interior finish, tile flooring and ornamental plastering, and all other detail work in keeping with the above. Cost, $40,000. Mr. Kruger has awarded the contract for St. Mary's Church at Patton, Pa., to Wm. Hushbrod, of the same place. It will be of stone and brick, slate roof, copper trimmings, stucco relief, tile floor, stained and art glass windows, oak interior finish, with general improvements. Cost, $18,000.

Charles W. Bolton, architect, Witherspoon Building, having completed plans, as previously noted in this journal, for the Lutheran Church of the Nativity at Seventeenth and Tioga streets, will proceed under orders of the building committee to construct the building. The first building to be erected will be a chapel of Gothic design, 40 x 62½ feet, two stories high. Holmesburg granite, Indiana limestone trimmings, stained and plate glass, slate roof; interior will contain steam heat, electric work, seatings and upholstery, etc. Rev. U. S. G. Bertolett is the pastor in charge. In addition to the above a larger church will ultimately be erected upon the front portion of lot.

At Altoona, Pa., Breezer Bros. have prepared plans for four large dwellings to be erected at Du Bois, Clearfield county, Pa., for John E. Du Bois also plans for a handsome residence for George M. Meyer at Bellwood, Pa.; also plans for a dwelling to be erected at Juniata, Pa., for Harry Hammond, and plans for St. Michael's church at Lorette, Cambria county, Pa.

Jacoby & Welshampel, architects and engineers, Allentown, Pa., have awarded contracts as follows: Three-story brick residence at Catsaauqua, Pa., for Edwin Thomas, Esq., 50x80, of brick, slate roof, hardwood finish, equipped with best plumbing, steam heat and all modern conveniences; also for an addition to Wahneth Silk Mill at Catsaauqua, Pa., to Franklin Goldsmith Catsaauqua, Pa. Also a seven story fire-proof store and office building at Allentown, Pa., to Martz & Edwards, contractors. Steel frame awarded to Milliken Bros., New York city; fire-proof floors to New Jersey Wire Cloth Company, Trenton, N. J., mac-kite partitions to Standard Plastic Company, Philadelphia. They have also completed plans for a two-story brick school house for Allen District, Northampton county, Pa. Also in preparation, drawings for a three story residence of brick and stone for G. F. Egner, Allentown, Pa.

Building and Real Estate Notes

We are informed that there is absolutely no truth in the reported sale of the Lutheran church property at southwest corner of Broad and Arch streets. It remains in statu quo.

Council's Finance Committee have approved ordinances for city work on a stack and flue at Belmont Station, $10,700 boiler house, $30,000. Bureau of Health repairs to Municipal Hospital, $20,000.

George F. Payne & Co., contractors, 401 South Juniper street, have the contract for alterations to the building 936 Market street. These consist of a new front, interior work to all floors; the work will be extensive. Fully noted in a previous issue.

Charles McCaul, contractor, 10 North Eleventh street, has been given the contract for the alterations and additions to the Equitable Trust Company quarters in the Betz Building; the plans were made by MacCollin & East, architects, and fully noted previously.

Work has been started on eighteen dwellings on west side of Bonvier street, south of Wolf, by Thomas Boyle & Co. owners. These are to be of fancy brick and brownstone trimmings, and interiors will have tile work, heaters and ranges as well as all modern conveniences.

Muresco

Is a permanently hard wall finish. Over plaster it produces soft, even tints, giving the effects of kalsomine, without the flashing and with none of its disadvantages. It does not rub off against the clothing nor will it crack or peel. It kills suction and gives a smooth, even coat over an old plastered wall that has been patched. It is made in fifteen artistic colors and white. A color card and full information about MURESCO sent for the asking.

BENJAMIN MOORE & CO.,

256 Water St.

Brooklyn, New York.

James Lilly, owner and builder, is at work putting up sixteen two-story brick dwellings, each 16x43 feet, on the west side of Taney street, south of Brown street, in the fifteenth ward.

William Steele & Son, contractors, are receiving estimates for the erection of the day nursery at Thirty-third and Wharton streets, and for a house to be built for John Thomas, at No. 1409 South Broad street. Previously noted.

The War Department have accepted the proposed plan of Engineer Steinhmetz for the new bridge over Cooper's Creek at State street, Camden, N. J. These were made for the Board of Freeholders in Camden and the work will be under their charge.

The quarterly meeting of the Master Builders' Exchange was held yesterday, the 21st inst. After the regular order of business was gone through and a sumptuous luncheon served, the Exchange members were entertained by an address from R. O. Moon, Esq.

Provost Harrison, of the University of Pennsylvania, has appointed Professors MacFarlane, Laird and Marburg to devise and have charge of a thorough system of improvements to be made about the University buildings and to make all suggestions and supervise the work.

Samuel R. Riley, contractor, 627 Filbert street, has been awarded the contract to build the addition to the residence of Charles K. Smith at Chestnut Hill, from plans by C. E. Rahn, architect, 410 Walnut street, and fully noted previously in these columns. The same architect has on boards plans for work which will be noted in future.

Plans have been submitted to the Bureau of Building Inspection providing for the erection of a one-story stone church, which will be built at the southeast corner of Fifth and Clearfield streets, for the congregation of the Fairhill M. E. Church. The new edifice will measure 72x100 feet. Architect Thomas P. Lonsdale made the plans. This work has already been described in this column.

The sub-committee on fire sites of Councils Committee on City Property have acted favorably on the ordinances appropriating $35,000 for the purchase of the properties at Nos. 1528 and 1530 Sanson street for a new fire house, and one appropriating $30,000 for the purchase of a lot in the Twentieth ward. A number of ordinances were referred to Director of Public Safety Riter for his approval.

In the office of Charles McCaul, 10 North Eleventh street, estimates are being made on alteration to foundry of G. Reiman & Co., Thirteenth and Noble streets. The work will consist of masonry, carpenter work, interior fittings, gas and plumbing and general detail work. Also in same office drawings for alteration to the Fire Station, Tenth and Humber streets. These are chiefly interior. Estimates on the latter going on.

George F. Payne & Co. have taken out a permit from the Bureau of Building Inspection to make general repairs to Lemon Hill Observatory, the Park Commission having finally decided to allow the structure to remain standing in the Park. The same are estimating on a large retort house, which is to be built at the Point Breeze Gas Works for the U. G. I. The new house will measure 90x300 feet, and it is stated that it will be the largest retort house in the city.

Roydhouse, Arey & Co., contractors, Master Builders' Exchange, have received the contract for quite an extensive alteration and addition to the summer house of Mr. Alexander Van Rensselaer at Camp Hill, Montgomery county, Pa. It will be of local stone, the dining room will be quite a feature in decorative, stucco and fine cabinet work. Also all modern comforts in general. Franks Mills, Day & Bro. made the plans, which have been noted previously in these columns.

Work on the buildings for St. Joseph's Orphanage will be begun early next week by William R. Dougherty, who has received the contract for $60,000. John T. Windrim, 1107 Walnut street, is the architect, and the plans contemplate a four story stone and brick structure to be erected on Stanton avenue, Germantown. All the modern improvements will be introduced, and when finished, it is said, the building will be one of the most complete of its kind in the city. Mr. Dougherty also has the contract for the erection of new south and north wings to the Alumni Hall of Haverford College. The work, to correspond with the present style of architecture, will begin about June 1st, and be completed by September 1st. Bailly & Truscott are the architects. Previously noted.

M. P. Wells, contractor, Thirteenth and Walnut streets, says he intends to erect a six-story apartment house for himself at 3501 Baring street, upon a lot just purchased. The structure will be fireproof throughout, being brick, stone and iron, as well as terra cotta work. It will contain all modern comforts on interior, electric work, plumbing of an approved system, steam heat, elevators, marble tile, and mosaic work, etc. Same contractor is estimating on a three-story stone and apartment house to be put up at Atlantic City, N. J., for George Allen, owner. Also on a house for George W. Foulas, at 1237 Spring Garden street. It is understood that revised bids will be asked for on the biological plans of H. K. Mulford at Glenolden, Delaware county, Pa. This has been fully noted in the issues of this journal.

Through Pennsylvania.

When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Easton, Northampton county, the new library building to be erected by the trustees of Lafayette College will cost $30,000.

—At Tamaqua, Schuylkill county, it is said that plans prepared by Carroll P. Bassett for a sewerage system have been adopted.

—At Newcastle, Lawrence county, E. M. Ohl will erect a dwelling from plans prepared by F. J. Osterling, Times Building, Pittsburg, Pa.

—At Bellevue, Allegheny county, at a recent meeting of councils an ordinance was passed providing for the expenditure of $48,000 for sewers.

—At Lancaster, Lancaster county, the proposed county insane asylum will cost about $60,000. It is said that C. Emien Urban has prepared the plans.

—At Waynesboro, Franklin county, the Cumberland Valley Railroad Company will extend its line to the manufacturing points in South Waynesboro.

—At St. Mary's, Elk county, the contract for the erection of the Elk county poor house is said to have been awarded to W. V. Hughes, of Altoona, for $47,482.

—At Grove City, Mercer county, the contract for the construction of the new water works has been awarded to Chandley Bros. & Co., of Beaver Falls, Pa., for $14,811.

—At Carlisle, Cumberland county, plans are in course of preparation for a bridge to be constructed at Bishop's Ford. W. H. Coonman, county auditor, can give information.

—At Waymart, Wayne county, the building occupied by F. R. Varcoe as a store and dwelling was destroyed by fire not long since at a loss of $10,000. It was insured for $7000.

—At Uniontown, Fayette county, the Uniontown Street Railway Company will extend its line from Mountain View Park to Beeson Works, and probably to Lamont. R. F. Hopwood and M. H. Bowman are interested.

—At Allentown, Lehigh county, F. A. R. Baldwin is considering the erection of a large seven-story office building on Hamilton street at a cost of about $100,000. The plans for such a structure have been prepared by Jacoby & Weishampel, of Allentown.

—At West Chester, Chester county, Evan Mercer, superintendent of the water works, has devised a plan for a fence to be placed around the reservoir. It will be of iron and will be eight feet high and so arranged as to prevent any one from climbing over it.

—At Scranton, Lackawanna county, it is said that plans prepared by A. W. Fuller, of Albany, N. Y., have been accepted by the Lackawanna Trust and Safe Deposit Company for a handsome new office building of light granite, fine interior finish and all modern conveniences and improvements.

—At Overbrook, Montgomery county, Mr. M. R. Supple, of West Overbrook, has about finished the four dwellings under way at Merion, and will, when these are finished, begin the erection of eight more similar dwellings in the same neighborhood. They will vary in price from $8000 to $10,000 each.

—At Lansdale, Montgomery county, the school board has awarded the contract for the new school house to Jonathan B. Wolf, of Telford, for $13,763. This does not include the price of the brownstone base, which will cost $1000 additional. The structure will contain ten rooms and will be finely finished and supplied with all modern conveniences.

—At Wynecote, Montgomery county, it is stated that J. Linden Heacock has made plans for a dwelling to be erected on Carpenter street, Philadelphia, to be three stories high, of stone, slate roof, considerable tile work, plain and ornamental glass, hard-wood interior finish, parquet flooring, porcelain bath tubs, open fire places, electric lights. The estimated cost is $7,000.

—At Reading, Berks county, Engineer Hoff states that he has finished specifications for street paving, and that the street railway companies have been notified that they will be required to pave between the tracks. Work on the paving will probably begin the latter part of June. The following streets will be paved: Binghamman from Canal to Sixth; Eighth from Washington to Chestnut; Franklin from Sixth to Ninth; Third from Penn to Franklin; Fourth from Penn to Walnut; Ninth from Penn to Washington; Tenth from Penn to Washington; Eleventh from Penn to Washington; Sixth from Penn to Franklin; Washington from Fourth to Seventh, and Fifth from Pine to Canal.

—At Pittsburg, E. B. Milligan, Wilkinsburg (Pittsburg), is preparing plans for a building to be fitted up for a large department store by W. M. Brink of Wilkinsburg. It will occupy a site at Hay and Rebecca streets, and will be four stories high, of steel, brick and stone, handsome interior finish, fixtures, roof garden, elevators, steam heat and all modern conveniences. The estimated cost is about $60,000. The same architect is preparing plans for ten two-story and attic brick dwellings to be erected at East Pittsburg for the East Pittsburg Improvement Company.—L. A. Raisig, of Wilkinsburg, has made plans for a large dwelling to be erected on Hill avenue, for W. F. Waggoner. It will contain fourteen rooms and will be finely finished and provided with modern comforts. The same architect has made plans for a brick dwelling for James H. Moore to be erected at Centre and North avenues.—Work will soon begin on the erection of a new Polish high school building at Fifteenth and Carson streets. The estimated cost is about $30,000. Rev. L. M. A. Miskiewicz is pastor of the congregation, having the matter in charge, and can give information.—The Pittsburg, McKeesport and Youghiogheny Railroad Company has

At Mount Vernon, N. Y., an election will be held at an early day to vote on the question of the erection of two school buildings in the First and Second wards, respectively, to cost $25,000 each.

At Port Clinton, Ohio, it is stated that the Senate has passed a bill authorizing the commissioners to issue bonds to the amount of $40,000, the proceeds to be used for the erection of a new court house.

At Boston, Mass., the plans of Cram, Goodhue & Ferguson have been accepted for a handsome stone church to be erected at Beacon street and Deane road for the congregation of All Saints. The estimated cost is $50,000.

At Hartford, Conn., the plans prepared by Curtis & Johnson, of Hartford, have been accepted for the new Arsenal district school building. The estimated cost is $23,000. T. S. Weaver is secretary of the building committee.

At Columbus, Ohio, it has been stated by John J. Dunn, civil engineer, room 9, Haydn Building, that the commission appointed by the governor for the construction of an office building to be used by the State House officials will soon be ready to begin the work of selecting architects and doing other necessary work in regard to the proposed building. The estimated cost is about $400,000.

At Chicago, Ill., Louis H. Sullivan, Auditorium Building, is said to be at work on plans for a large structure to be known as the Coliseum, which will be erected by a stock company on Throop street. The estimated cost is $500,000. Francis Hutchinson and George Duddleson are said to be interested. Wilson & Marshall are preparing plans for the reconstruction of Hooley's Theatre. The improvements proposed will cost about $60,000. It is stated that W. D. Stein will erect a fourteen-story fireproof building on the site of the burned Schoenemann Building, at 805 and 805 Dearborn street, to cost about $120,000.

Architect Notes.

Competitive plans are being made by a number of architects for a high school building to be erected in Camden, N. J. No decision has been made as yet upon the merits of any plans.

Charles Balderston, architect, 144 South Fourth street, has on boards plans for four houses, to be erected at Thirty-second and Baring streets, for a local owner. These are to be ornamental brick fronts, stone trimmings, hot-air heat, ranges, plate glass, tile and marble work, and best accommodations, etc.

Harry Flower, architect, Heed Building, Filbert street, above Twelfth, is making plans for about forty-four fine houses to be erected on the site of the old Peoples' Amusement Park, Thirty-third and York streets and Ridge avenue. All will be of fancy brick fronts, hot-air heat, ranges, plate glass. General conveniences will be introduced.

E. F. Durang, architect, 1200 Chestnut street, has on boards plans for a parish and school house, to be erected for St. Mary's R. C. Church, Order of the Holy Ghost, at Cornwell, Pa. The structure will be 40 x 70 feet, frame, stone base, slate roof, steam heat and furnished with all interior comforts, conveniences, and fittings for school purposes, etc.

Schermerhorn & Rheinhold, architects, 430 Walnut street, have completed plans for a house at Merion Pa., noted in our issue May 4th. The details call for a fine structure, three stories high, local stone, slate roof, hot air heat, electric work, fire places, tile and slate work, gas fitting and best of plumbing. All modern conveniences, and will cost about $15,000.

R. Godeffroy, architect, 1405 Filbert street, has completed plans and is receiving estimates on the work of a seven-story addition to the Hotel Pilkington, 106-108 North Eleventh street. The work will harmonize with the present structure, and include every detail in hotel fixtures; electric work, elevators and lift, plumbing, gas-fitting, iron and grille work tile work, and, when completed, will be upholstered and fitted with general furniture.

Although it is announced that the great office building, to be erected by William Weightman, on Chestnut street, near Broad street, has been suspended, it must not be regarded as abandoned by any means. Orders may be issued at any time to Mr. Angus S. Wade, the architect, to proceed with the work of construction. It is entirely contingent on results as developed by the little misunderstanding with Spain. Hence the work may be pushed at any time in the near future.

T. Frank Miller, architect, Lippincott Building, has started a house on his own account at Eleventh street and Oak Lane, to be stone, slate roof, three stories high, and fitted with hard wood interior, electric work, ranges and heater, plain and leaded glass and all modern comforts, etc. Cost $5000.

Kennedy, Hayes & Kelsey, architects, 931 Chestnut street, have completed all plans for a stone dwelling for Frank H. Fleer, at Lansdowne, Delaware county, Pa. It will be 58 x 62 feet, two and a half stories high, shingle roof, and interior to contain all modern comforts and conveniences. Estimates being taken in office of M. J. Smith & Co, Betz Building.

Collins & Autenreith, architects, 410 Walnut street, have on boards plans for a large store building for Mr. H. Rohner, to be erected at 435 Race street. It will be of brick and slow burning construction, with all modern improvements on interior, freight lift, tubes, plate glass, hot air or steam heat, and all general conveniences. Estimates are to be made at once on the work.

Plans have been made by William Macauley, Perry Building, Sixteenth and Chestnut streets, for nine stores and dwellings on Forty-seventh street, south of Chester avenue. These are for John J. Reilly, and will be of Pompeian brick, artistic fronts, Spanish tile roof, heaters, ranges, leaded and plain glass, and all modern conveniences on interior. Work has just been started.

James H. Windrim, architect, 1107 Walnut street, has made plans for alterations to offices on the 11th floor of the Stephen Girard Building. These are to be entirely interior work, wood fitting, electric work, partitions and general office work. Estimates now being made in office of Doyle & Doak, 133 S. Fifteenth street. Also in same office are the plans for the large resort house for the U. G. I. Company, at Point Breeze. Plans by Wilson Bros., architects and engineers, Drexel Building.

Edgar V. Seeler, architect, 328 Chestnut street, has made plans for alterations and additions to the residence of William W. Colket, Esq., 2018 Chestnut street. The specifications call for masonry, cement floors, cut stone, granite and flag stone, soap stone, slate and marble work, terra cotta, brick, tile and coarse; closets and wardrobes, hard wood finish, structural and ornamental steel work, plain and ornamental plastering, tin roofing, galvanized iron and skylights, plate and leaded glass, steam heat, electric elevator and wiring, mantels and fireplaces, the work, etc. Estimates being made in office of Doyle & Doak and other contractors.

David Knickerbocker Boyd, architect, Harrison Building, Fifteenth and Market streets, has made plans for alterations and additions to a warehouse at 248 North Third street, for England & Bryan, owners. The work will include a three story brick and stone structure and general accommodations. Also general overhauling of the present interior; plate glass windows, roofing, office fixtures, steam heat, electric work, etc. Mr. Boyd is engaged on other drawings which will be noted as they may develop.

Plans were prepared some months ago by Cope & Stewardson, architects, 320-324 Walnut street, for the new Law Building at the University of Pennsylvania, and noted in full in these columns at that time. The architects have now been directed to make specifications and ask bids on the work of construction at Thirty-fourth and Chestnut streets, southwest corner. The structure will be of brick and stone, highly ornamental; interior will contain steam heat, electric work, tiling, slate work, plate glass windows and doors, hard wood finish, and furniture in keeping with the idea of the institution.

J. Elvin Jackson, architect, 804 Walnut street, has on boards plans for alteration and additions to store and dwelling, at Eighteenth and South streets, for M. T. Hogan. These are to be quite extensive in detail, involving masonry, carpenter work, heating, etc. Also plans being made for alteration and addition to a store and dwelling, at Germantown avenue and Winghooking streets, for W. Beatty. Steam heat plant will be increased, electric work and all general conveniences, etc. Mr. Jackson has also plans progressing for a store and dwelling, to be erected at 335 Monroe street, for Bessie Pulkie. This will be three stories high, of Pompeian brick and hot air furnace, with plate glass windows for store and dwellings. All other details in keeping. Same architect has other work which will be noted in the near future.

Frank R. Watson, architect, 1308 Chestnut street, informs us that the plans for the Convent Chapel at Sharon Hill, for the Sisters H. C. T., are now completed. The structure will be 125 x 61 feet, and of stone; slate roof, steam heat. Interior will be in the later decorated Gothic style, with tracery and ornamentation and stone and divided in to a large base vent, a main chapel, and smaller ones as well; sacristies, etc. Estimates are being asked. Mr. Watson is also engaged on plans for a fine house and stable at Frankford, for Dr. Emory, of that place. The structure will be of brick, tin roof, and contain all the best interior work, steam heat, electric work, etc. Also on boards plans for a new front and tower for the Reformed Church at Collegeville, Montgomery county, Pa. Also plans for a cottage at Seaside Park, N. J., for Mr. J. C. Bickel, to be a modern structure and comfortably fitted. The above convent chapel we noted some time ago.

Architect Notes.

Geo. I. Lovatt, architect, 424 Walnut street, has made plans for a three-story granite and limestone front, to be erected for John Thomas, at 1709 South Broad street. All conveniences will be introduced on interior, hard woods, tile, and other ornamentation, etc.

Horace Trumbaur, architect, Land Title and Trust Co. Building, Broad and Chestnut streets, has on boards plans for a fine house to be built near Ashbourne, Pa., for Geo. W. Elkins. It will be of stone and pebble-dash work, hard-wood finish, tin roofing, range, heater, boilers, and general conveniences, etc.

J. W. Meur & Co., contractors, 208 South Seventh street, inform us that they have the contract to erect the apartment house, at Fifteenth and Walnut streets, for G. Jason Waters. The only deviation from the original plans and specifications is as to the number of stories. The materials remain the same as noted originally in these columns. Work will be started at once. Architect Seymour Davis, 913 Walnut street, made the plans and will supervise the work of construction.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Charles A. Zeigler, of Riverside, N. J., has plans and bidding on a fire house for that village. It will be stone, two stories high, 40 x 60 feet, slate roof and fitted with all necessities for the purpose.

It is understood that as yet no architect or builder has been engaged to reconstruct the lately burned property, 619 Market street, and owned by the Byerly estate, for whom the Girard Life and Trust Company are the agents.

James Lilly, the well known builder, starts this week sixteen dwellings on west side of Taney street, south of Brown. These are of pressed fancy brick, two stories high, stone facings and all modern conveniences on interior.

Frank Loughran, builder, 609 Walnut street, is taking bids on three dwellings and a store to be erected at Forty-eighth and Dohan streets for H. Murphy, owner. These are of brick and stone trimmings; all modern comforts.

W. R. Dougherty, contractor, 1604 Sansom street, has received the contract for alterations to house at 1814 De Lancy Place. These are quite extensive and include all general improvements and comforts on interior. Noted before.

Charles McCaul, contractor, will make alterations and additions to 629 Market street for the Sullivan estate owners. The work will be of brick and iron, six stories high, and contain elevators, electric work, tubes and all modern conveniences.

C. B. Prettyman, builder, has just started excavations for forty four dwellings on west side of Sixteenth street, south of Snyder avenue. All to be of press brick, tile work, heaters, ranges and plate glass windows, with all modern conveniences, etc.

J. E. & A. L. Pennock, contractors, 305 Walnut street, have been given the contract to erect the additional cold storage warehouse at Noble street and Delaware avenue. It is to be eight stories high, brick, stone and iron construction. Previously noted in full.

F. L. Heover & Son, contractors, 703 Jayne street, will erect a fine school house at Abington, Pa. Mr. Lochot is the secretary of the board of directors. The structure will be of brick and stone, hot air heat, and furnished with all accommodations for school purposes.

Bids are being taken by a number of general contractors on a new resort house for the U. G. I. Co., to be erected at Point Breze. It is 79 x 284 feet, and of brick and steel construction, with a slate roof. Geo. F. Payne & Co., 401 South Juniper street, have drawings.

John Devlin, the well known builder, will start during the current week an operation of one hundred and sixty-three dwellings west of Broad, south of Porter, upon streets to be named. These are to be of fancy brick, stone steps and facings, ranges, heaters, plate glass, plumbing and general conveniences.

Plans for a two story frame cottage, to be erected at Bryn Mawr College, Pa., are on the boards for estimate in the office of Stacey Reeves & Sons, 1611 Filbert street. It will contain a kitchen and dining hall on the first floor and study rooms and other conveniences on the second. It will be 50 x 152 feet in area.

Florey & Bevan, 11 South Broad street, owners and builders, keep right on in the work of new buildings at their large operation, Sixty-third and Jefferson streets, and at once start six fine dwellings, 21 x 55 feet, stone, peaked slate roofs, plate and stained glass, electric work, tile work, heating by steam and hot air, and all other conveniences.

W. T. B. Roberts, the well known builder, has, it is understood, purchased about two hundred and seventy-five acres of ground for building purposes in the Thirty-sixth ward, near Porter and Shunk streets, and including what was once McAvoy's old brick yards. Just the particular kind of improvements to be made by Mr. Roberts upon the site have not as yet developed, but will be improved at an early day.

M. J. Smith & Co., 1108 Betz Building, have commenced the erection of a country residence for Dr. Casper Wister Miller, at Wallingford, Delaware county, Pa. Mr. Amos J. Boyden is the architect. The same firm will also shortly commence the erection of a large ice house on the grounds of the Pennsylvania Training School at Elwyn, Delaware county, Pa.

Stacey Reeves is receiving estimates on extensive alterations and additions to Hand Insurance Co. Building, No 212 South Fourth street. These contemplate interior as well as exterior work, masonry, carpenter and cabinet work, electric work and all general details for comfort on interior. Also estimating on a residence for W. D. Grange, to be erected on Green street, near Walnut lane. It will be of stone and brick, three stories high, and contain on interior hard wood finish, plate glass, range and heater, electric work and modern conveniences, etc.

Through Pennsylvania.

☞ When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Hopewell Pa., Elwood Webster has bought a lot from H. C. Cope for $1083.

—At Ereldoun, Chester county, six attractive dwellings will be erected by M. J. Garrett.

—At Coatesville, Chester county, a number of dwellings will be erected by A. P. Thompson.

—At West Chester, Pa., Fannie Mercer has bought a building lot on South Walnut street for $4000.

—At Carnegie, Allegheny county, it is said that about $75,000 will be spent for street and sewer improvements.

—At Easton, Northampton county, the subject of the erection of a crematory plant is under consideration.

—At Media, Delaware county, Elliott & Co. have the contract for the erection of two dwellings on South Orange street.

—At Beaver, Beaver county, it is stated that the Cleveland & Pittsburgh railroad will erect a new station, to cost about $20,000.

—At Oxford, Chester county, Miss Annie Davis has purchased a lot from P. E. Nocho, for $500, and will erect an attractive dwelling.

—At Bradford, McKean county, school bonds to the amount of $25,000 have been sold to the Bradford National Bank, the proceeds to be used in the erection of a new school house.

Muresco

Is a permanently hard wall finish. Over plaster it produces soft, even tints, giving the effects of kalsomine, without the flashing and with none of its disadvantages. It does not rub off against the clothing nor will it crack or peel. It kills suction and gives a smooth, even coat over an old plastered wall that has been patched. It is made in fifteen artistic colors and white. A color card and full information about MURESCO sent for the asking.

Architect Notes.

A revision of estimates is now being made on the residence for Mr. John Thomas, to be erected at 1709 South Broad street, after plans by Geo. I. Lovatt, architect, 424 Walnut street. These have been noted in previous issues of this journal.

Cope & Stewardson, architects, 324 Walnut street, have completed plans for a three-story dwelling, at Bryn Mawr, Pa. Stone and frame, hot air heat, electric work, plumbing of the best, range and boiler, plate glass, tin roof and all modern conveniences.

J. F. Stuckert & Son, architects, 49 North Thirteenth street, have made plans for a fourth story addition to the house of Robert Fitzell, at 2016 Spring Garden street, on which estimates are being made. The same architects have on boards plans for other work which will be noted in the near future.

Mr. T. Frank Miller, architect, Lippincott Building, has been retained to prepare plans for and supervise the erection of the Lutheran Church, recently destroyed by fire at Hamburg, Pa. The new structure will be Gothic and of a stone yet to be selected, the trimmings to be Indiana limestone. The interior will be fitted with modern furnishings. Fuller details will be given later.

John A. Burger & Sons, contractors, Reed Building, Filbert street, above Twelfth, have been awarded the contract for the Chester County Insane Hospital. Plans were made by Baker & Dallett, architects, 1604 Chestnut street, and have been fully noted in previous issues of this journal. Messrs. Baker & Dallett will supervise the entire work of construction.

All the plans for the new Jefferson Hospital building, by James H. Windrim, architect, have now been placed for estimate, and contractors are figuring. The structure, as indicated in these columns at various times, will be six stories high, and entirely fireproof, being of brick, stone, and steel and iron work; furnished on interior with elevators, electric work, engines, mosaic and tile work, steam heat, best system of plumbing and ventilation, etc. The location will be at Tenth and Walnut streets, and connected with the old structure on Sansom street. Mr. William Potter is the president of the Faculty.

William L. Price, architect, 731 Walnut street, has completed plans for a very fine residence for Mr. Allen H. Reed, at Wayne, Delaware county, Pa. The structure will be three stories high and built of hard red brick, with Indiana limestone trimmings, also some blue stone and cut-work, tile roofing laid in cement. Interior work will include tiling, slate and enamel brick work, steam heat and electric work, hard wood finish throughout, boilers and range of the most approved pattern.

Every modern comfort will be introduced. Drawings can be seen in offices of John R. Viggles, 1320 Filbert street, and other contractors.

Milligan & Webber, architects, 520 Walnut street, have awarded the contract to erect the Ryess Memorial Protestant Episcopal Church of the Nativity, at Fox Chase, to Joseph M. Ashby, of the above place. This contract does not cover the interior work in detail, much of which will be let later on. Also let the public school contract at Swarthmore, Pa., to L. C. Lewis, of that place, except the heating, which is being figured on at present. The same architects are making plans for a house to be erected at Centre Square, Pa., for Mrs. Phillips, of that place, to be stone and furnished with all the latest conveniences on interior. Other work on boards which will be noted at an early day.

The prints for the Public Library, to be erected at Newark, N. J., after plans and specifications by Rankin & Kellogg, architects, 1024 Walnut street, this city, are on boards of contractors for re-estimate. The previous estimates as scheduled did not prove satisfactory, hence a revision has been ordered. The drawings can be seen at J. E. & A. L. Pennock's offices, 305 Walnut street. The Messrs. Pennock have just received the contract to build the large rector house for the U. G. I. Co., at Point Breeze Gas Works. Fully noted previously. Also at work upon the storage plant, at Beach and Noble streets and Delaware avenue, for the Philadelphia Cold Storage Company. Noted before in these columns.

Geo. Nattress & Son, architects 430 Walnut street, are engaged on plans for four large houses to be erected at Loraine, Ohio. These are to be of frame, two and a half stories high, and contain general modern conveniences. Same architects are making plans for additions to the P. E. Church of the Good Samaritan, at Paoli, Pa. These consist of a new chancel, tower, vestries, also a new aisle connected with the old one by a cut stone arcade, cut stone tracery, windows and chancel arch, with open timber roofs, all in the Thirteenth century English Gothic. Also stained and leaded glass ornamental windows, oak fittings and tile floors, steam heating and electric work, etc., making the structure one of the most picturesque village churches in the county of Chester, Pa.

Three buildings for the University of Pennsylvania will likely be started during the current year. The law school building, for which plans were made by Messrs. Cope & Stewardson, architects, was fully noted in these columns. It is altogether likely that the gymnasium building will be started, also after plans by Frank Miles Day & Bro., architects, 925 Chestnut street. It will be a great feature of the institution and, judging from the sketches, will be the finest of its kind in this country. Plans are yet to be prepared for a pharmacodynamical laboratory. A committee of the medical department faculty is acting with the provost and trustees in regard to the new building, which will be supplied with large working rooms, a mechanical demonstrating room, a number of small rooms for use of students engaged in original researches, and a large store room for drugs and chemicals.

Estimates are being made upon plans by Kennedy, Hays and Kelsey, architects, 931 Chestnut street, for a house to be erected for Seymour Eaton, at Lansdowne, Delaware county, Pa. The specifications call for masonry, brick work, carpenter work, mantles of wood, electric work, stairs, hardware, plastering, plumbing, pebble dashing, cement work, range, boiler, galvanized iron, etc. Drawings in office of Jacob Myers & Sons, Juniper and Sansom streets. By same architects plans for a house at Villa Nova, Pa., for Howell Loyd, Esq. It will be of frame work and pebble dashed, stained shingle roof, interior to have all conveniences, electric work, hard wood, etc. Estimates being made in office of Myers & Son at above address. The same architects have also plans and specifications for a house for Frank H. Fleer, Esq., Yeadon Borough, Delaware county, Pa. This will be a colonial house and will be built of entirely local stone. It will be 63 x 55 feet. The finish throughout will be hard wood. A feature will be made of the "den," which will have a brick floor and large stone fireplace. The room will be wainscoted 7 feet high, and above wainscoting will be divided into panels. The house will be heated by steam heat. Also plans and specifications for the new high school at Lansdowne, Pa. The building will be built of brick, with a granite base. The main building will be 40 x 90 feet, and will be divided into class rooms. The lavatories, stairways, coat rooms, etc., will be in a separate wing. The most modern system of heating, ventilation, and plumbing will be employed. Also the same architects have prepared plans and specifications for additions and alterations to the residence of Dr. H. Hamill D. Swing, 708 North Fortieth street. The additions will include a new office and operating room. This will be wainscoted 8 feet high, and above this will be divided into panels prepared for burlap. The contract for additions and alterations to James J. Ottinger's residence, N. W. corner Twentieth and Spruce streets, has been awarded by the same architects to Thomas Little & Son, who will commence work immediately. Also plans for extensive additions and alterations have been made by same architects to the residence of Peirce Archer, Esq., at Wynnewood, Montgomery county, Pa. Estimates on the above school house to be in by June 10, 1898.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The German Democrat building, 612 Chestnut street, will be improved in the basement. Work includes a brick wall, iron girders, foundations, etc.

Frank S. Riggs, contractor, will at once begin erecting a tower, 160 feet high, on the Kellyville R C Church of St. Charles Borromeo, to be of stone and brick.

The celebrated drug store of George B. Evans, Chestnut, above Eleventh street, was damaged on the 5th inst. by fire to the extent of $15,000. It will be repaired at once.

Geo. H. Sipps, contractor, 212 South Seventh street, is taking sub-bids on a cottage to be erected at Seaside Park. It will be frame and contain all comforts and improvements.

James B. Campbell, contractor, will start an operation of twenty-three two-story houses on Alden street, west of Woodland avenue, all of brick, stone facings and best interior accommodations.

C. R. Kohl & Bros., contractors, Odd Fellows' Temple are receiving sub-bids on eight life saving stations to be erected on the Jersey coast. All plans made by the supervising architect of the Treasury Department.

Joseph Hart, owner, will at once start work on nineteen dwellings, 14 x 23 feet, two stories, on the east side of Agate, north of Somerset street. Brick, with brown stone trimmings, and good general comforts on interior.

John G. Ruff, 618 Cherry street, is taking estimates on sixteen houses to be erected at Fifty-fourth and Master streets. These are to be of buff brick, stone base and steps; interior to contain hot-air furnaces, ranges, tile work, plumbing, etc.

M. J. Smith & Company, contractors and builders, are receiving estimates on the following work: A club house for the Delta Phi Fraternity, at Thirty-sixth and Woodland avenue; and a school house for the borough of Lansdowne, Delaware county, Pa.

Lewis Havens, Girard Building, contractor, will at once make about $9000 worth of improvements and additions to engine room, etc., for the U. G. I. Co., at the Twenty-fifth Ward Gas Works. Brick, stone and iron and cement will be the materials used.

Solomon Greenberg, owner and builder, starts at once on twenty-four dwellings on west side of Thirteenth street, between Huntingdon and Oakdale streets. Ornamental brick and stone fronts, with all comforts and conveniences on interior for a two-story structure.

L. Lambrecht, 3013 Marshall street, is taking estimates for materials and work on an operation of fifteen dwellings to be erected at Lee and Tioga streets. These are to be of press brick, stone trimmings, galvanized cornices, heaters, ranges, and all modern conveniences, etc.

J. F. McCloskey, contractor, has started work upon a three-story factory, 60 x 25 feet, on Willow street, between Third and Fourth streets. To be brick and stone, slow burning construction, steam power and general conveniences. The former structure was destroyed by fire some time since.

During the Summer months Gilmore's theatres, the Park and Auditorium, will be considerably improved on the interiors in the way of new seats, decoration, upholstering, electrical effects, etc. These are to receive the immediate consideration of the proprietor, Mr. William Gilmore.

The Capitol Building, at Harrisburg, Pa., is being fast pushed forward by the general contractor, Mr. Allen B. Rorke. The brick work and masonry is being done by Mr. Franklin M. Harris of this city, and the structure will surely be erected in time for the next meeting of the Legislature of this State.

We noted some time ago the purchase of a building site by George W. Conderman, at Fifty-second and Thompson streets. The owner intends starting at once sixteen dwellings, 16 x 90 feet, three stories high, brick, stone fronts, interior to have tile work, ranges, heaters and all modern improvements.

The purchase of a large tract of land in the Twenty-sixth ward, indicated in our last issue, included the old McAvoy brick yards. It has been transferred to the purchaser, Mr. William T. B. Roberts, who will, as the opportunity offers, improve the site by the erection of high grade, comfortable dwellings.

Mrs. Josephine M. S. Ayer, who died in Paris, January 3, 1898, has bequeathed the Pennsylvania Hospital $50,000 to erect a memorial building for a chemical laboratory. This will be done, as the gift has been accepted. An additional $25,000 has also been given by her son, Frederic Ayer, for the purpose noted above.

We previously noted in full the additional building for St. Joseph's Roman Catholic College, at Seventeenth and Stiles streets, after plans by Edwin F. Durang, architect, 1200 Chestnut street. Work has just been started upon the excavation by the contractor and will be pushed to completion at once. Fully described previously.

Jacob Myers & Sons, contractors, Juniper and Sansom streets, are estimating on a house to be erected at Villa Nova for H. Loyd. Same firm will erect a fine dwelling for S. S. N. Maule, at 2140 South Twenty-first street. Brick and brown stone front, with tin roof, all modern comforts on interior, including heater, range and boilers, plate glass, etc.

Messrs. Pemberton & Co., Girard Building, are about to erect thirty houses at Fifty-ninth and Master streets. These are to be of brick and stone, with ornamental fronts, porches, etc. Interior will contain all the latest improvements, electric bells, tiling, ranges, hot air furnaces. Estimates on material and work are being made.

The William M. S. McCahan Sugar Refining Company contemplates erecting an addition to the present plant on the Delaware river, below Tasker street. It will be 20 x 80 feet; also an 80-foot L extension and cost about $20,000. It will be of brick, iron and stone, with steam fittings and machinery for the purposes above noted.

In office of John R. Wiggins, contractor, 1220 Filbert street, plans have been placed on boards for minor alterations and additions to the Lutheran Church of the Incarnation, Forty-fifth street and Kingsessing avenue. Included are stone work, brick work, tin roofing, plastering, painting, stained glass and gas fitting, etc. Private plans.

J. D. Arthur, contractor, 223 American street, has been making estimates on an addition to be made to the factory of John Mundell & Brother, at Thirteenth and Cherry streets. It is to be three stories high, brick, stone and iron; also a one-story boiler house; slag roofing, electric work, steam fittings, and all improvements are contemplated.

C. B. Prettyman, builder, will begin erecting at once an operation of forty-two houses on Sixteenth street, west side, north of Jackson, on Seventeenth street, also north of Jackson; and north side of Jackson, east of Seventeenth street. All the above will be of fancy brick, stone base and steps, furnaces, ranges, boilers, plumbing, etc., of best on interior.

Geo. W. Stewart, contractor, 230 Diamond street, is about to start the erection of a new public school building at northeast corner of Cayuga and Sixteenth street. It will have a granite front and contain all late detail work on interior. This work was noted in full previously. Same contractor will build an addition to the Edwin H. Filer & Co. rope plant at Tacony.

The James M. E. Congregation (colored), Germantown, intend to erect a new church structure at Cedar Lane and Haines street, upon a site bought some time ago. It will be of local stone, trimmed with Indiana Limestone,

Washington, D. C.

The report on the bill for the extension of Eleventh street, Northwest, has been submitted to the House. The committee is of the opinion that the cost of the extension should be borne by the District of Columbia. The object of the bill is to extend Eleventh street, Northwest, from Florida avenue to Lydecker avenue, a distance of about 4300 feet; the street to be 90 feet wide. A favorable report has been made in the Senate by Mr. Faulkner, on Senate Bill 4462, which provides for a municipal building and court house in the District of Columbia, at a cost of about $3,500,000. The bill has also been approved by the Commissioners, and has been submitted to Mr. Bernard R. Green, superintendent of the congressional library building and grounds. E. Norris has prepared plans for extensive alterations and additions to the large double dwelling on Lafayette square, owned by Mrs. Mary McLean Ludlow. A large addition will be made in the rear which will be handsomely fitted up as a ball room. The front of the present structure will be remodeled and changed into an English basement style, and numerous other improvements will be made. The work is in charge is J. S. Larcombe. Charles E. Burns is at work on a large building for store purposes, at East Capitol and Fifth streets. ## Architect Notes.

Wm. J. Macauley, architect, 1530 Chestnut street, has made plans for interior and exterior alterations to 906 South Broad street. The work will include all the latest improvements and comforts.

Schermerhorn & Reinhold, architects, 430 Walnut street, have made plans for four brick and frame houses, for William S. Huey, of this city, to be erected at Bala. These are in the Italian and colonial design, interiors in hard wood, hot air, electric work, tiling, ranges, boilers, etc.

Doyle & Doak, 133 South Fifteenth street, will be the contractors for the new Jefferson Hospital, at Tenth and Walnut streets. Plans were made by James H. Windrim, architect, 1107 Walnut street. Mr. Windrim will supervise the work of construction. Fully noted in previous issues of this journal.

Wilson Bros., architects, have made plans for additional buildings, at Nineteenth street and Allegheny avenue, for the U. G. I. Co. It will be of iron, stone, brick and cement work, chiefly, with slag roofing. Estimates are being made in office of Geo. F. Payne & Co., 401 South Juniper street, and other contractors.

As indicated in this journal two weeks ago, plans have been completed for the Dr. Emory residence, in Frankford, by Architect Frank R. Watson, 1208 Chestnut street. They call for a 20 x 60 feet three-story structure, finished on interior in oak and other woods, with all late comforts and improvements. Estimates to be made and work started at once.

Collins & Autenrieth, architects, 410 Walnut street, have made plans for quite an extensive addition and alteration to a dwelling at Musgrove street and Church lane. Estimates are to be made on the work by contractors and sub-contractors at once, including stone and brick work, carpentry, heating and lighting, electric work, tile and iron work, slate work, mantles, plain and stained glass, ranges, boilers and all modern conveniences.

Yarnall & Goforth, 14 South Broad street, have completed the plans in detail for a new Delta Phi Club house, to be erected by the Chapter in this city, at Thirty-sixth and Woodland avenue. It will be of brick, with terra cotta trimmings. Slate roof, three stories high, copper bays, electric work on interior, also hard woods; heat not fully decided on as yet, best of plumbing, closets, toilets, lockers and general comforts. Estimates are now being made on the work.

All plans for the West End Trust Company's new building, at Broad street and South Penn Square, are completed by Furbess, Evans & Co., architects, Provident Life Building, Fourth and Chestnut streets. It is expected these drawings will at once be placed on boards of contractors for estimate. It will be a fourteen-story structure, first and second stories of red granite work, all the rest of red Pompeian brick and terra cotta work. The basement will contain vaults, and the sub-basement the machinery for elevators, ventilation, light, etc. Interior in marble, mosaic and tile work, iron and brass grille work, electric work, cement and slate. All modern comforts and conveniences will be introduced. The work is to be pushed at once to completion by all concerned.

W. L. Price, architect, has on boards plans for a building to be erected at northwest corner of Fifteenth and Cherry streets for the use of the Young Friend's Association. It will be four stories high, of dark brick, red stone trimmings, and of Gothic style of architecture. In the basement will be a lunch room, a kitchen, etc. The second, third and fourth floors will be fitted up in parlors, offices, dormitories, a central auditorium, with seats for about 450 persons. All the latest conveniences will be introduced. The drawings are being considered by the building committee, and may be changed somewhat.

Architect J. P. Brenot, Oil City, Pa., has plans on the boards for St. Agatha's new parochial school house, to be built at Meadville, Pa. The building to be 65 x 90 feet, two stories and basement; built of stone and brick; to have all modern improvements. Will be ready for bids in a short time. Same architect has recently completed plans for a two-story and attic frame residence for John Welsh, of Oil City. To cost about $2500. Contract for same has not been let. Also plans for alterations on residence of Mr. Harry Trax, of Reed, Pa., which contract was let to John Anderton, of Oil City; and plans for alterations on residence of Thos. E. Keating, Oil City. Contract not let. Store building, 20 x 40 feet, two stories high, for Messrs Trax & Parker, Oil City. Contract let to John Wright. Plans for all buildings for the "Oil City Fair and Trotting Association," including grand pavilion, band and judges stand, stables, etc. The contract has been let to John E. Wallace, Oil City, Pa.

Harry Peale, Jr., architect, Harrison Building, Fifteenth and Market streets, has completed plans for a large six-story apartment house, to be built upon the site 3200 Arch street, by Builder John D. Pharoh. 1414 South Penn Square. It will be 57 x 113 feet, and capped by a fine roof garden. It will be of steel, stone and brick construction, fire-proof throughout, and fitted with elevators, electric plant, steam heat, tile and mosaic work, iron grille work, best system of plumbing, and modern comforts and conveniences. In connection with the above, which is to be started at once, will be erected, by same builder, seventeen cottages adjacent to the apartment house on what will be known as Douglas street. These are to be lighted and heated from the plants installed in the larger house. The occupants can avail themselves of the covered way which will be constructed, connecting with the apartment house, in which their meals can be taken, etc. About half a block will be covered by this fine operation.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

City Councils have concluded that filters should be placed in the public schools. Also that $50,000 should be appropriated to new sewers.

The First Mennonite Church has bought a lot, 66 x 38 feet, at Franklin street and Indiana avenue, and intends soon to consider the erection of a new church building on the site. A committee is in charge of the matter.

Philip Anus & Co., Bourse Building, are taking estimates on a chapel for St. Marks P. E. Congregation, at Sixtieth and Lombard streets. It is to be stone, 45 x 65 feet, and fitted with heat, lighting and general church furnishings.

Thomas M. Seeds, Jr., contractor, 1216 Race street, will erect a fine residence for W. D. Grange, on Green street, southeast Walnut lane, Germantown, after plans by J. C. M. Shirk. Previously noted. It will be 57 x 50 feet, local stone and contain all the latest and best comforts on interior. Cost, $5000.

Robert A. Pitts, architect, 222 South Third street, has made plans to erect an operation of seventy houses on Lehigh avenue, near Fairmount Park. All to be of fancy brick, stone trimmings, cement cellars and best interior conveniences; ranges, boilers, heaters, etc. Estimates being made for materials and work.

The J. L. Clymer Co., 2136-38 Germantown avenue, has secured a number of large contracts lately for cement work, among which is that of the Chestnut Hill Casino Company, at Chestnut Hill. Also at residence of Mrs. W. J. M. Cardesa, Germantown; Messrs. George Ego & Co., Broad and Huntingdon streets; Wm. O'Neill, Frankford; Holland Laundry Company, and others.

C. W. Keifer, contractor, of Trenton, N. J., has been given the contract to remodel the Clinton Avenue Baptist Church, in Trenton. The drawings are by Isaac Pursell, architect, 119 South Fourth street. These call for a stone structure, slate roof, steam heat, stained and plate glass, etc.; also to erect the Sabbath school attached to the main building. All to be furnished with general fittings. Previously noted in full. Cost, $15,000.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, JUNE 15 1898.

The United Gas Improvement Company is now distributing among the school children of this city one hundred thousand booklets, entitled "Mother Goose Melodies Up to Date." It is done with the aim of popularizing gas for summer fuel with the mothers.

The company is sparing neither labor nor expense in its efforts to convert house-keepers to the use of gas for cooking purposes. Connections are made to gas ranges by the company without charge. Address the office, 1821 Filbert street.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The reported erection of a large stable by N. Snellenburg & Co., at Broad and Wallace streets, has no foundation. In fact, they do not contemplate improving the site at this time.

Samuel R. Edge, builder, will at once erect eight dwellings, with Pompeian brick fronts, at Fiftieth and Penridge streets. All to be fitted with ranges, tile work, hot air heat, and general comforts.

P. E. Hoffman, contractor, will build a packing and shipping house for Tougue Bros., at Allegheny avenue and Amber street, to cost $7,000. It will be brick, stone and iron, etc. Work to start at once.

George W. Sherman, builder, is to start at once eight two-story houses on Thompson street, west of Fifty second. All to be brick, stone facings and heaters, ranges, boilers and all modern conveniences on interior.

Bids have been opened and scheduled for fitting up and completion of council chambers and the finance committee room in the Public Buildings. The contract is to be awarded at the next meeting of the commission.

Henry C. Dahl, contractor, 408 South Fifth street, will at once make alterations and additions to 1529 Girard avenue, for W. S. Emly, owner. These are extensive and will cost $5,000. Interior work in general detail will be embraced.

Chief Engineer Nichols, of the Philadelphia and Reading R. R., has made plans for a new pier, 600 feet long, to be erected just north of Callowhill street on the Delaware river. Application has been asked of the Port Wardens for the permission to extend.

Milton W. Young, contractor, Overbrook, will erect a $7,000 residence at Merion, Pa., for Mr. W. Roberts. It will be opposite the St. Charles Borromeo College. To be of stone and brick, with all the latest improvements. Noted before in these columns.

Superintendent Vodge, superintendent of Fairmount Park, has been directed to paint Horticultural Hall and make some minor repairs to Memorial Hall and construct a foot walk along Thirty-third street, from Diamond street to Columbia avenue. Work to be done at once.

Finance Committee of Councils has favorably recommended an appropriation of $50,000 for extension of sewers; also the extension of the building line, from Charles street to Fifth street, has been recommended in favor of the Jewish Home, in order to erect a new building on the site at an early day.

John McShane, contractor, has started work at St. Agnes' Hospital, Broad and Mifflin streets, on the new boiler house, laundry and servants' quarters. Plans drawn by Edwin G. Durang, architect. The work will be two stories, brick and stone, with cement work, etc. Previously noted in full.

William F. Ingham, contractor, 946 North Sixteenth street, has the contract to erect the large stable at Bossall and Sansom streets for Albert E. Kennedy, after plans by Joseph M. Huston, architect, Witherspoon Building. It will be three stories high, rough brick, stone trimmings and cost about $8,000. Previously noted.

The will of Dr. Thomas W. Evans, late of Paris, France, will at once become operative by reason of the recent decision of the Supreme Court. This will favor a large building designed for the city, to be known as the "Thomas W. Evans Dental College and Museum," and for which neither plans have been made nor contracts awarded.

Delaplaine & West, contractors, 14 South Broad street, have been given the contract to erect the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity club house at Thirty-fourth and Walnut streets. Also a contract to erect the series of Biological buildings at Glenolden, Pa., for H. K. Mulford. Both of these operations have been previously noted in full in these columns.

John R. Wiggins, general contractor and builder, 1220 Filbert street, has been awarded the contract for the Lutheran Church, to be erected at Ninth street and Lehigh avenue. The plans for the work were made by Isaac Russell, architect, 119 South Fourth street, and call for a stone building, slate roof, stained glass, tile and mosaic work, cement floor in basement and hard wood seats and finish, electric work and all modern improvements, etc. Work to start at once; cost, $30,000.

Messrs. Felton, Sibley & Co., 138 North Fourth street, invite attention to their stock of painters' supplies, as well as their popular specialties, consisting of hard oil and elastic gloss finish, modern liquid Pioneer paste, wood filler, Paradox enameled colors for decorating, and pure linseed oil, ready mixed paints. This firm is one of the oldest in its line in the city. It justly merits the confidence and patronage of the buying public, as its popularity has been justly earned.

J. E. & A. L. Pennock, contractors, 305 Walnut street, have begun the erection of the Point Breeze U. G. I. C. rectory house, as noted before. Same firm are engaged on estimates for a nine-story building, to be known as the Sandringham, and erected for Alonzo G. Beirs in Washington City. It will be stone, brick, terra cotta work, with steel skeleton, furnished with elevators electric work, steam heat, tile and mosaic work, slate and cement work, grille work, of iron and brass and all modern conveniences, etc.

Mr. Wm. G. Fischer, 1710 Chestnut street, this city, is the owner of a handsome tract of about forty acres, adjacent to the station, at Clifton Heights, Delaware county. We learn that the tract is to be platted and sold to operators and syndicates for building purposes. The tract is but twenty two minutes from Philadelphia by steam, and forty-five minutes by trolley. It contains many beautiful building sites, suitable for mansions or country homes. We are informed that liberal advances for desirable improvements will be made.

Thomas P. Twibill, contractor and builder, office, 708 Betz Building, is receiving bids for Grand Realty Co., for construction of fifty houses. Thirty third street, Ridge avenue and Thirty-second and one-half street, three stories and porch, front and lawn on Thirty third street and Ridge avenue; all the other porch fronts on Thirty-second and one-half streets. Plans made by H. E. Hower, 1217 Filbert street. Mr. Twibill is prepared to receive bids on work and material for construction of these houses at his office, 708 Betz Building. Inquire for his superintendent, Mr. Best.

At a meeting of Council's Committee on Schools and Property of Board of Education, on the 7th inst., proposals were opened and contracts awarded as follows: Thirteen-inch lathe required at the North Manual Training School, awarded to the Niles Tool Works, for $200; painting the inside of the Hunter School, Nineteenth Section, M. McCarron, $890; twin windows in the Cumberland School, Nineteenth Section, E. H. Sturts, $563; making alterations to the Hart School, Thirty-first Section, same contractor, $1900; paving the yard of the White Hall School, Twenty-third Section, J. Morris, $481; new wall and railing for the Martha Washington School, Thirty-fourth Section, J. Ahern, $412; iron railing for the Forrest School, Thirty-eighth Section, G. B. Clapp, $378.

Anacostia road, to Watt's creek, to the eastern corner of District of Columbia, with a branch from intersection of Watt's creek and Anacostia road to its intersection with the eastern boundary line of the District of Columbia.—A building permit has been refused Mr. Walter V. R. Berry to erect an apartment house at the northwest corner of Seventeenth and I streets, on account of the proposed height of the building, one hundred and ten feet, no building over ninety feet high being permitted on a resident street. It is probable that the plans of the proposed structure will be modified to suit the regulations.

Architect Notes.

Wilson Bros., architects, Drexel Building, are making plans for further improving the U. G. I. Co.'s plant, at Nineteenth street and Allegheny avenue. These are to be open for bids soon. Specifications involve masonry, iron and brick work, cement, etc.

Frank R. Watson, architect, 1208 Chestnut street, has awarded E. C. Wood, contractor, of Sharon Hill, the contract to erect the Convent Chapel of the H. C. J., at that place. It will be in accordance with the description given in these columns, June 1st, current year.

David Knickerbacker Boyd, architect, Harrison Building, has on boards plans for a fine large residence, to be built at Foughkeepsie, N. Y., for a local owner of that place. It will be of stone and frame, three stories high, shingle roof, hot air heat, electric work and all the latest improvements on interior.

P. S. Doyle, architect, 4929 Fairmount avenue, has made plans for alteration and addition to the Stewart bakery, at 1106 20 Wistar street. These comprise masonry, carpenter and iron work, vault building, cement work and flooring; all modern improvements will be introduced. Estimates being made in office of W. R. Dougherty & Co., 1604 Sansom street, and other contractors.

William T. Macauley, architect, 1530 Chestnut street, has completed the drawings for alteration and addition to 906 South Broad street and placed them for estimate on boards of contractors. This work includes an entire new front, with fancy brick, plate glass, copper cornice, interior to be well finished in decoration and all modern comforts, etc. Doyle & Doak, 133 South Fifteenth street, are bidding for the work.

Florey & Bevan, owners and builders, 14 South Broad street, still continue the extensive building operation, at Gross street and Lansdowne avenue, by beginning at once ten more dwellings, after plans by Schermerhorn & Reinhold, architects, 430 Walnut street. These are to be of fancy brick fronts, with porches, plate glass windows, tile work, hard wood interior, ranges, heaters, electric work, plumbing and gas fitting, etc.

John T. Windrim, architect, 1107 Walnut street, has been retained to prepare plans for a fine residence, to be built for Dr. Judson Daland, at 217 South Eighteenth street. The structure will be four stories and basement; the material will be agreed on later. Interior will be unique in design and furnished with every comfort in keeping with both house and office comfort for his profession. John R. Wiggins, contractor, 1220 Filbert street, will be contractor.

Seymour Davis, architect, 907 Walnut street, is making plans for a new Home for Incurables, to be erected at Upton, Pa. The structure will be of stone, three stories high, slate roof, steam heat, electric work, ranges and boilers, finest of sanitary plumbing, tiling, cement work, pavements and every comfort and improvement will be introduced. No contracts made or estimates offered. This action will be taken at an early day. It will be known as the "Mary S. Crozer Home for Incurables."

Dull, Peterson & Crawford Coates, architects, 1110 Chestnut street, have made plans for a manse, to be erected at Ashbourne, Pa., and awarded the contract to James Riley, of that place. It will be of stone, shingle roof, colonial style of architecture, and all late improvements, including steam heat, electric work, etc. Same firm, with E. P. Simon, associate, have prepared plans for the new building for the German Evangelical Friends Church, at Emerald and Clearfield streets. It will be colonial style, with an infant school and auditorium, seating about 500 persons. Steam heat, electric work and all modern conveniences and church fixtures will be introduced.

Cope & Stewardson, architects, 320 Walnut street, have completed plans for extensive alterations and additions to the Wm. Penn Charter School, on Twelfth street, above Chestnut. These specifications and drawings call for interior work in the present buildings in general detail, with all improvements introduced, and the additional structure to be four stories, brick, stone and iron construction, iron and cement floors, slate, marble and other stone work, slate and tin roofing, plate and hammered glass; also prismatic lights introduced, iron stairways, painting, glazing, plastering and plumbing and all modern improvements are to be included. Estimates are being made in office of Doyle & Doak, 133 South Fifteenth street, and other contractors.

Hazelhurst & Huckel, architects, Girard Building, Broad and Chestnut streets, have completed plans for a public wharf and pavilion, to be erected at Bridesburg, on the Delaware river, by the city. The drawings contemplate a double deck structure of steel, and the upper deck to be fitted for entertainment and comfort of the public at large; dancing pavilions, stands, closets and toilets will be placed at different stations. No contracts have been let. It is expected that the plans will soon be placed for estimate in Chief of City Property Eisenhower's office, at the Public Buildings. Same architects have been retained to prepare plans for a handsome granite mausoleum, to be erected for Mr. Albert Dingee, at West Laurel Hill; also drawings have been completed for alterations and additions to the residence of Holstein DeHaven, at 2137 Spruce street; these contemplate new stairways, pantries, etc; also plans for alteration and addition to Flemington High School, at Flemington, N. J., for the Raritan Township Board of Education.

George C. Mason, architect, Drexel Building, has made complete plans for an addition and alteration to the house of Walter Lippincott, at the northeast corner of Twenty-first and Walnut streets. The addition will be 57 feet x 19 feet, three stories high, brick, stone trimmings; will contain a reception room and library, hard wood embellishment on interior, with electric work, plumbing of the best, tiling, plain and fancy glass windows and all conveniences, etc.

C. W. Bolton, architect, Witherspoon Building, has on boards plans for the new First Reformed Church, to be erected at Hamburg, Pa. The structure will be of light colored stone, slate roof, open truss work, 61 feet x 150 feet, heated by steam, electric work, and all modern church furnishings. The building will have a Sunday-school attached. Church will seat about 500 persons, whilst the school will hold about 400 to 500 persons. No contract let. Drawings are ready for estimate at once; also a dwelling known as Professor's house, at Lafayette College, Easton, Pa. It will be of stone and frame, slate roof and shingle work, whilst the interior will be in natural wood finish, hot air and electric work, with all the latest improvements. Contracts awarded to persons in Easton. Work started; also drawings for alterations to 3210 Chestnut street. These are quite extensive, store work and dwelling, part of house; also plans for a dwelling, to be erected at Frankford, for local parties; also drawings and specifications for a church building, for the Paritan Presbyterian congregation, at Second and Clearfield streets. The structure will be of brick, stone trimmings, slate roof; further details later on, as plans are not completed.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The large rag warehouse of J. I. Lenhart, 215-217 North Front street, was damaged by fire on the 14th inst., and will need rebuilding on interior, which will be done at once.

Doyle & Doak, contractors, 133 South Fifteenth street, expect to begin work upon the new wing of the Jefferson Hospital in a few days, or as soon as proper papers are signed and details arranged. A full description of structure has been given in these columns from plans by Architect James H. Windrim, 1107 Walnut street. Cost not given.

James A. Bradin, contractor, 2036 Sansom street, will at once begin the erection of an art gallery and library, adjoining the residence of W. Lippincott, at Twenty-first and Walnut streets. It will be three stories high, of stone and brick, 19 feet x 62 feet, and interior decorated richly and fitted with all late comforts and improvements, etc. Cost, $10,000.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

B. Frank Livzey, contractor, will add to Mayor Warwick's house, 1925 Spring Garden street, two stories to the present back building, with all modern comforts on interior. Work to start at once.

Louis Paul, builder, will at once begin the erection of ten two story dwellings, 14 feet x 28 feet, on Arizona street, east of Twenty-sixth street. All of brick, stone facings, best interior accommodations, etc.

Plans for reconstruction of Fernwood Mansion, at Fernwood, Pa., are now on boards of John R. Wiggins and other contractors for estimate. This work has been mentioned in a previous edition of this journal.

Jacob Myers & Sons, contractors Juniper and Sanson streets, begin at once the additions to be made to 2018 Chestnut street, for Wm. H. Colket. Cost, $17,000, and have been fully noted previously in this journal.

Wm. Lane, contractor, is at work excavating for six two-story houses, 15 feet x 45 feet, on Snyder avenue, west of Sixteenth street, for Fred Simon, Jr., owner. All to be of press brick, stone trimmings, furnace heat, ranges, boilers and all modern conveniences, etc.

The large canning and filling house of the Standard Oil Co., at Point Breeze, recently destroyed by fire, will at once be reconstructed upon the old lines, and general repairs made to the surrounding property, which has been damaged. The debris is now being cleared for the work.

Samuel Evans, builder, will start at once an operation of 44 dwellings, on Sixty-seventh and sixty-eighth streets, below Lansdowne avenue, with several on the latter thoroughfare. All to be of fancy brick fronts, stone trimmings, and interior fitted with ranges, boilers, furnace heaters, and modern comforts.

The Evangelical Lutheran Church, Tabor, congregation have bought of Harper Bros., printers, a lot of ground at corner of Fisher's lane and Clinton street, Germantown, 100 feet x 135 feet, and will soon erect a church and parish house thereon. A committee on building has been appointed.

R. C. Ballinger & Co., contractors, 218 North Thirteenth street, will at once begin the erection of a stable, shed and factory building for J. Paxon & Co., at Beach and Poplar streets. Messrs. Ballinger & Co. have on hand a list of work which has been noted previously and indicates a busy summer season for them.

Charles P. Nesbit, contractor, 417 Locust street, has been awarded the contract to erect the James M. E. Church, at Haines street and Cedar Lane, the architects being Rankin & Kellogg, 1024 Walnut street. Structure will be of local stone, one story high, 46 feet x 77 feet, and furnished with general church furniture and upholstery. Previously noted.

June 15th bids were opened in the supervising architect's office, at Washington, for repairs to brick work of boiler settings, etc., in the Post Office Building, at Philadelphia, as follows: John Balzley, Philadelphia, $5563; Joseph Scholl, Philadelphia, $3711; George Haigh, Philadelphia, $3915; William Moore, Philadelphia, $4077; John O'Rourke, Chester, Pa., $3857.

Frank L. Maguire, builder, Wayne, Delaware county, Pa., is about to begin the erection of several fine dwellings at St. David's, facing on the Lancaster pike, and having ample grounds surrounding each. These are to be in English Gothic and modern styles of architecture. Frame, brick and stone, hard wood finish on interior, electric work, steam heat and all the latest comforts and improvements introduced. Mr. Maguire intends these dwellings to be unique in general construction.

On May 4th last we announced that Wm. H. Free, architect, Lippincott Building, was making plans for a very large operation of dwellings, to be erected by Frank S. Zane, owner and builder, same office building, in the northeast section of this city. Mr. Zane will at once start erection of 32 houses, at Sixth street and Allegheny avenue; also on Clearfield street, Wendle and others in that vicinity. All to be of fine brick and stone fronts and best interior fittings, heaters, ranges, boilers, etc. Cost, about $50,000, and to be followed by others at an early day.

With pleasure we announce that the loan ordinance has become a law and will at once become available for a great series of public labor and improvement, the main items being as follows, all of which are of interest to our patrons:

For the extension, improvement and filtration of the water supply, provided at least $1,000,000 shall be expended to increase and improve the water supply in West Philadelphia, $3,700,000. For improvement of suburban roads, $150,000. For completion of Boys' High School and erection of new school buildings, $900,000. For building main sewers, provided $200,000 of this be expended for the completion of the Aramingo Canal sewer, from Girard avenue to the Delaware river, $500,000. For building an Art Gallery in Fairmount Park, $200,000. For a library site and building, $1,000,000. For building new Almshouse, $200,000. For abolition of grade crossings on line of Philadelphia & Trenton railroad, $900,000. For equipment and building of Philadelphia Commercial Museum, $200,000. For extension of Fairmount Park, $100,000. For repaving streets, tramway underground work incidental thereto, $1,000,000. For building bridges, $600,000. For improvement of public parks or squares, $50,000. For purchase of ground and buildings for fire and police stations and underground electrical construction, $300,000. For grading and repairs to paved streets, $400,000. For repaving with improved pavement small streets 40 feet or less in width, and underground work incidental thereto, $1,000,000. Total, $11,200,000.

R. C. Ballinger & Co., contractors, 218 North Thirteenth street, have received the contract to erect the handsome house at Wayne, Delaware county, Pa., for Allen H. Reed. The plans, by W. L. Price, architect, 731 Walnut street, have been fully noted in these columns previously, and call for a brick, stone and frame structure of unusual size and fitted on interior with every modern convenience, steam heat from indirect plant, electric work, tile, marble and mosaic work, range, boiler and general kitchen and laundry appliances. Work to begin at once.

One of the most elegant improvements and enterprises in suburban homes surrounding this city is about to be accomplished under the immediate and personal supervision of Mr. Wm. T. B. Roberts, the well-known builder and real estate operator, whose offices are on the fourth floor of the Land Title Building, Broad and Chestnut streets. The location will be known as Ogontz Park, located near Ashbourne station, on the Philadelphia & Reading R. R. A new station is, however, to be erected, adjoining Mr. Roberts' property, and the old one above noted removed entirely, and will be one of the finest rural structures in the State. New streets are to be laid out, graded, macadamized, drainage laid, curbing and pavements placed, water plant and mains introduced, electric plant and steam heat plant erected, and every convenience and comfort introduced. The latter will extend to the entire operation as fast as the dwellings are erected. Louis A. Nagle has purchased ground on Ogontz avenue and York road, and will put up a large coal shed, two-story office, stabling for twenty horses and a handsome residence, after plans by Kean & Mead, architects, Crozier Building. Horace Evien has bought a site, and, when vacated by the present tenant, will improve and occupy it. At Spring and Park avenues several sites have been taken on which handsome houses are to be erected by the owner, ranging in value from $15,000 to $20,000 each. An English toll house will be erected at the junction of the last named streets. It is Mr. Roberts' intention to introduce a variety of architectural designs and engineering devices in the near future, and when completed they will have few equals and no superiors in the truest sense of typical American homes.

Muresco

Is a permanently hard wall finish. Over plaster it produces soft, even tints, giving the effects of kalsomine, without the flashing and with none of its disadvantages. It does not rub off against the clothing nor will it crack or peel. It kills suction and gives a smooth, even coat over an old plastered wall that has been patched. It is made in fifteen artistic colors and white. A color card and full information about MURESCO sent for the asking.

BENJAMIN MOORE & CO.,
256 Water St. Brooklyn, New York.

Contractor Charles O'Neill, 1218 South Broad street, will at once begin work on the interior of the public school on Twenty-third street, between Lombard and Pine streets. The cost of the work will be $21,000, and brick partition walls are intended to replace the present ones and new rooms created, besides improved sanitary work, etc. Previously noted.

Contractor Philip Haibach has submitted plans to the Bureau of Building Inspection for the erection of a three-story building, 29 x 85 feet, at the northeast corner of Twenty-fourth and Ingersoll streets, for Charles and William Freihofer.

An operation which will cost $500,000 will be begun over in West Philadelphia in the near future. The work will include the erection of 144 two and three-story dwellings, to be fitted up with hard woods on the interior, and to contain all the latest modern improvements and conveniences. The plans for the houses have just been completed by Architect F. L. Michaelson, Jr., and the houses are to be put up for F. L. Michaelson & Son, owners and builders. The dwellings are to be erected on Fifty-second street, and Westminster and Wyalusing avenues, and on two new streets, which are to be opened between Wyalusing and Westminster avenues. All of the houses will be built in pairs and by blocks of Pompeian brick and porch fronts, and they will contain eight, ten and twelve rooms.

The structure will be two stories high, of brick, finely finished, and will cost $15,000.—Edward C. Van Leyan has made plans for a four-story apartment house, to be erected for James B. McIntosh. The structure will be 70 x 32 feet, and will cost $22,000; also plans for a three-story apartment house, to cost $12,000; also plans for a brick dwelling for John W. Gray, to cost $5000.—Richard E. Raseman has prepared plans for three three-story brick stores and dwellings for the Moore estate, to cost $15,000.

Architect Notes.

(Too Late for Classification)

Hales & Ballinger, architects, Twelfth and Chestnut streets, have just completed plans for an immense factory, to be built for the Vulcanite Portland Cement Company, at Vulcanite, N. J. These buildings are one, two and three stories high, of iron, brick, stone and cement work, and are supplied with steam heat, power and electric work. Estimates are now being made in the office of the architects.

Judgments

PHILADELPHIA.

ABBREVIATIONS.

Where there are no figures to indicate the amount of the judgment, the damages have not been assessed.

The figures 1, 2, 3 and 4 immediately after the name of the plaintiff indicate the number of the Court. The term of the Court is indicated as follows: D, for December Term; M, for March Term; J, for June Term, and S, for September Term.

S. F.—Sore Facias, to revive judgment.

A star (*) denotes judgment confessed or bond and warrant conditioned.

Architect Notes.

Thomas P. Lonsdale, architect, Manhattan Life Building, is about to ask estimates on boiler and heating plant for the Spring Garden Institute, at Broad and Spring Garden streets.

Mr. George Kessler, contractor, Franklin and Oxford streets, is receiving estimates on a pair of fine iron gates for the country seat of Robert Foerderer, at Torresdale. These are after designs by J. F. Stuckert & Son, architects, 48 North Thirteenth street. They are very ornate and swing upon massive masonry upon either side.

William H. Free, architect, Lippincott Building, has on board plans for improvements, upon quite a large scale, of the Elephant Casino Company's land, at Ocean City, N. J. These drawings contemplate a rustic pavilion, carrousel, restaurants, etc. Emory Day is pushing a trolley railway close to these grounds, and it is contemplated that in the near future considerable money will be spent in this direction.

James H. Windrim, architect, 1107 Walnut street, has awarded William R. Dougherty, contractor, the contract to erect the four-story Orphan Asylum, at Stenton avenue and Church lane, for which he prepared plans some time since, and which has been noted previously in these columns. It will be four stories high, of brick and stone construction, slate roof, steam heat and electric work; all modern comforts will be introduced. Work to start at once.

Edwin F. Boretto, architect, Heed Building, Filbert street, above Twelfth, has completed plans for a fine public school, to be erected at Jeffersonville, Norriton township, Montgomery county, Pa. It will be of brick and stone, steam heat, electric work and all the most recent improvements for school purposes. Albert Shoemaker, of Jeffersonville, has the contract and work will be started at once.

Homee Trumbauer, architect, Land Title Building, Broad and Chestnut streets, has completed plans for the heating and electric plant for the country seat of Peter A. B. Widener, at Ashbourne, Pa. As originally noted in this journal, it will be of stone and brick, one story and basement, with cement flooring and all necessary machinery, etc. George F. Payne & Co., contractors, have on board, for estimate, a full set of plans.

During the current week plans have been completed and placed on boards of contractors for alterations and additions to the Munyon Medicine Company building, 1505 Arch street. The plans are by Milligan & Webber, architects, 520 Walnut street, and include excavation, concrete floors, rubble stone work, cut stone and iron work, slag roofing, carpenter work, elevator lift, portable furnace heating, electric work and general improvements, etc.

John D. Allen, architect, 1017 Chestnut street, has on boards plans for a fine stable for Finley Acker, the grocer. The structure will be 57 x 105 feet, three stories high, and absolutely fireproof in construction, being of fine Pompeian brick and terra cotta, and furnished to accommodate about ninety head of horses. Stalls, feed boxes and all the most recent improvements in stabling. Estimates are to be made on the work at once. Location of the new structure is at Sixth and Willow streets. No contracts let.

Richard C. Loos, architect, Fidelity Building, Broad, above Arch street, is engaged on plans for alterations to a church, at Hardwick, Vermont. These contemplate work in keeping with the colonial style of architecture, yet will include new seating, improved patterns, and upholstering, chancel work and general details. Also plans for alterations to residence of F. F. Eastlack, Jr., at Morton, Pa. This work will introduce a complete interior remodeling and decorations, as well as general overhauling of rooms, etc., and also improvements for comfort and convenience, etc.

Wilson Brothers, architects, Drexel Building, have placed on boards of general contractors the drawings for the new United Gas Improvement Company's building, to be erected at Broad and Arch streets. It will be in accordance with the original description given in this journal, thirteen stories high, stone, brick and terra cotta work. Interior to fitted with elevators, electric work and plant, steam heat and power, marble, mosaic and tile work, slate work, grill work of iron and brass, cement floors, and fireproof throughout in general construction. Estimates are now going on and the contract will be awarded at an early day.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

All bids for the U. G. I. Company's office building are to in by July 5th, after which they will be scheduled and the contract at once awarded to the lowest and best bidder.

Louis Paul, builder, has started work on excavations for six three-story houses, at northwest corner of Twenty-fifth and Gor'on streets. All to be of fancy brick, stone trimmings and best interior work; hot air furnaces, ranges, boilers and general comforts and conveniences, etc.

Delaplaine & West, 14 South Broad street, are estimating on a four-story apartment house, to be erected at Carlisle and Lombard streets, for J. C. McLaughan, owner. It will be 32 x 53 feet, of brick and stone, and ten rooms to the floor, with many modern conveniences, etc.

M. J. Smith & Co., contractors, 1108 Betz Building, have been awarded the contract to erect the residence of Frank H. Fleer, in Yeadon, Delaware county, Pa. Plans were made by Kennedy, Hayes & Kelsey, architects, 1031 Chestnut street. These were fully noted some time ago in the architectural column of this journal.

Fire destroyed almost wholly the extensive oil cloth works of Thomas Potter & Sons, at Second street and Erie avenue, on the 24th inst. The loss is about $250,000. One life was lost in the conflagration, and considerable damage done to surrounding property.

As indicated by this journal, some weeks since, the Philadelphia and Reading R. R. will at once begin the construction of their two new freight sheds, at Broad, Callowhill and Noble streets. These are to be principally of iron, brick and stone work and considerable cement work; also brick and stone pavement and flooring.

Edmund B. Seymour has sold his Johnson street (Germantown) building lot, opposite the Nugent Home, with a frontage of 171 feet 43 inches on Johnson street and running through to Duval street, to George W. Johnson for $22,000. The purchaser will immediately proceed to erect six handsome residences on the Johnson street front and a number of nice smaller residences on the Duval street front.

On boards of William Steele & Sons, contractors, 506 Walnut street, during the last few days, have been plans for the Evangelical Lutheran Church, at Clearfield and Helen streets. Also at Roydhouse, Arey & Co., Master Builders' Exchange, plans for a new building for the Howard Savings Institute, to be erected at Newark, N. J. It will be of brick, stone and iron work, with hard wood interior, steam heat, electric work and all general furnishings for a financial organization's office.

J. B. Chick & Co. will begin work this week on an operation of sixteen houses in the vicinity of Johnson and Green streets, Twenty-second ward. Six of these will be of stone, three stories, on Johnson street, west of Green, and will cost, approximately, $6500 each to construct. Each house will be at 20 by 57 feet in dimensions on lots 27 by 201 feet each. The other ten dwellings will be two stories each, on lots 15 by 115 feet. These will be of brick and will cost about $1200 each.

There were three sealed proposals received on the 27th inst. by the Public Building Commissioners for the installation of a pumping engine to be located in the filter room under the court yard. They were from the Barr Pumping Engine Company, $1265; Henry R. Worthington, $1576, and Thomas B. McBride, representing the Snow Steam Pump Works, $1860. These bids were referred to the architect, the superintendent and the chief engineer, who will report as to the best one.

JOHN N. GALLAGHER, Publisher.
JOHN F. BRISBANE, City Editor.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, JUNE 29 1898.

OUR next issue, July 6th, will contain our regular semi-annual report of building operations and transfers of real estate.

As a summary, that issue will be doubly interesting from the fact that it is extremely desirable under all conditions to fully understand what the city's growth really is, but more so now than usual in face of the present conditions of the building and real estate business.

Advertisers will greatly expedite our work on our Special by sending in their orders for space, together with their copy, at the earliest moment possible.

Our aim is to send our report through the widest possible range, to the great advantage of our advertisers and the lasting benefit of our city.

Cost of Buildings in London.

The cost of buildings in London was referred to in a paper by Mr. Howard Chaffield Clarke, read at a recent meeting of the Surveyors' Institute, and from the figures he derived. Some warehouses with brick front, wood floors and unplastered walls, of 117,600 cubic feet total contents, cost 14 cents per cubic foot. A number of brick buildings, with stock and red brick fronts, inside walls finished with buff brick and glazed brick dados, cost 15 cents per foot. Warehouses with fireproof floors, stone front and plastered walls, designed for the wholesale cloth trade, and having 179,000 cubic feet contents, cost 26 cents a foot. City office buildings of 205,000 cubic feet size, with stone front, fireproof floors, stone staircase and hydraulic elevator, cost 26 cents a foot. Apartment houses of 177,000 cubic feet contents, with stone and terra cotta front, electric elevator, fireproof floors, stone staircase, each apartment finished with hardwood, parquet floors and enriched plasterwork, cost 28 cents per cubic foot.—Exchange.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The Baptist Church, at Holmesburg, will make, during the summer months, improvements to the church building and lawn.

Charles D. Land, builder, will erect at once an operation of twenty-four dwellings at Thirty-second and Cumberland streets. All to be of fancy brick fronts, stone trimmings and all modern conveniences on interior.

Contractors Hetzel & Co. will at once begin alterations to the church and reading room of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Main street, opposite Allen's lane. This work includes new joists, floors, porch and a heater, etc.

Lightning struck and set fire to Cope's dye on Tuesday morning, at Wayne Junction. As these have not been running for some time, no information could be had as to intention of owners about rebuilding.

The Third Baptist Church, on the east side of Second street, above Catharine, 63.1½ by 198½ feet, has been sold to the First Polish National Society for $20,000. A fine tower will be established above the front, and other detail alterations made in the present structure.

J. Fred. Betz recently acquired the hotel property, Nos. 629 to 633 Girard avenue, and has accepted plans for considerable exterior and interior alterations to the same. The contract for this work has been let to B. Ketcham & Sons for about $3500, who will begin work at once.

O'Brien Brothers, 5624 Chew street, Germantown, will soon begin an operation of twenty-five dwellings, at Woodbine and Locust avenues, Germantown. These are to be of brick, stone trimmings, and interior will be fitted with best comforts, ranges, boilers, furnace heat, etc.

Charles McCaul, contractor, will have the contract for the additions and alterations to the William Penn Charter School, on Twelfth street, south of Market. The work was fully noted in a former issue of this journal. Drawings were made by Cope & Stewardson, architects, 320 Walnut street.

Bills have been already passed by Common Council for the construction of boys' high school, $375,000; new school houses, $255,000; repaving small streets, $600,000; sewers, $300,000, and Aramingo Canal work, $200,000. Also favorably reported on, distribution of $635,000 among the various departments for minor uses.

Ex-Chief Justice Edward M. Paxton of this city, intends to at once make arrangements to erect a building to the memory of his mother, to be known as the "Ann J. Paxton Library, in Buckingham, Bucks Co., Pa." It is understood plans are being made for the work, and will cost about $100,000, finished.

John Duñcan, contractor, 920 Walnut street, has begun work on extensive alterations to 212 South Fourth street, for the Philadelphia Contributionship Company. As noted previously, the drawings were made by Furness Evans & Co., architects, Provident Life Building, and they will supervise the work. This is exterior and interior as well.

We have frequently noted the proposed erection of an additional building to St. Joseph's R. C. College, at Stiles and Thompson streets, and operations have been started by Contractor Thomas Reilly, looking to its erection. It will cost $125,000. Edwin F. Durang, 1200 Chestnut street, is the architect who made the plans and will supervise the work of construction.

A new fourth story will be added to the residence of Lucius Landreth, No. 2203 St. James place. The contract for this work has been let to A. S. Tourison, of No. 6805 Germantown avenue, for $2500, and work will be begun as soon as possible. Two two-story dwellings will be built on West Mt. Airy avenue by same contractor, each to cost about $1700 for construction.

Bids are being made on the M. E. Church, to be built at Manayunk, after plans by Mantle Fielding, architect, 110 South Fourth street. Fully noted previously in these columns. Also upon an apartment house at Lombard and Carlisle streets. Also for a stable, at 4244 Ridge avenue, for J. Fred. Betz. Also on a stable alteration for Joseph Widener, at Ashbourne, Pa. Drawings in offices of general contractors.

Through Pennsylvania.

When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Treviso, Bucks county, the freight station on the Bound Brook Railroad will be rebuilt.

—At Newtown, Bucks county, the large barn and outbuildings belonging to Squire J. Dubois Fetter were destroyed by fire a few days since, at a loss of $6700.

—At Media, Delaware county, Frank P. Carr has the contract for the erection of the dwelling on the Baltimore pike, near Morton. The owner is Walter Lamey.

—At Youngsville, Warren county, fire destroyed the following properties last week: Youngsville Manufacturing Company, loss, $70,000; J. A. Sayerdell's property, loss, $1500; Argeline Mill, $1000.

—At Seanton, Lackawanna county, Thomas Sprague will erect a two and a half-story frame dwelling, 30 x 60 feet, to cost $5000, from plans prepared by L. C. Holden, No. 3 Union Square, New York City.

—At Johnsville, Bucks county, the trustees of the Johnsville Chapel Fund have decided to begin work in a short time. The site for the structure has been given by Isaac Bennett. Henry McNair, of Southampton, Pa., is one of the trustees.

—At Hawley, Wayne county, a disastrous fire on June 22 destroyed property valued at $50,000. Among the buildings burned were the Murray & Kearney Building, Cottage Hotel, Odd Fellows hall, Ames' livery stable, Buck tailor shop and German Lutheran parsonage.

Washington, D. C.

One of the former commissioners of the District, Mr. George Truesdell, has bought the fine four hundred acre farm, known as the Beckman farm, situated between Deer Park and Altamont, Maryland. A handsome country residence will be erected by the new owner.—An extensive building operation will soon begin, consisting of the erection of forty eight handsome dwellings, by Mr. Charles L. Pickford. The site will be the triangle known as square 670, and bounded by New York avenue, North Capitol street and O and First streets, Northeast. It contains 100,000 square feet. The dwellings will be of stone as far as the first story; the remainder will be brick, fine interior finish, hard wood, tile work, plain and ornamental glass and all modern conveniences. The estimated cost of the operation is $150,000, and the houses will be so finished as to sell for $5000 each.—Work is progressing on the remodeling of the large building on H street, just east of Fourteenth street, which was at one time occupied by the preparation department of the Columbian University. The plans for the changes were drawn by Hornblower & Marshall, who are also preparing plans for the new law school building, which will occupy a site adjoining the University, on H street, near Fifteenth street.—Frederick B. Pyle, has prepared plans for a handsome dwelling, to be erected for Mrs. John F. Cook, at 1118 Sixteenth street, Northwest. The front will be of Pompeian brick and light colored terra cotta. The interior will be finely finished in oak and white and gold, and a feature of the library will be a large brick mantel and ceiling with exposed wooden beams. The bath room will be tiled and equipped with handsome fixtures. The decorations of the walls, as well as the finish of the dining-room, will be antique green. The same architect has made plans for changes and alterations to the building, 515 Seventh street, Northwest, occupied by Hecht & Co. The building adjoining will be made a part of the present structure, the openings being supported by steel beams and pillars. A steam heat plant will be put in; also a new hydraulic elevator and automatic cash system.—John W. Phillips will erect a dwelling at 1229 G street, Northwest. It will be two stories high and well finished.—Two two-story dwellings will be erected by Minnie F. Ballinger, at 2504 and 2506 F street, Northwest. They will be of brick, all modern conveniences.—Three two-story dwellings will be erected at 20, 22 and 24 Q street, Northwest, by Geo. M. Kober. They will have full bay windows and modern conveniences.—C. W. Stone will erect a brick and stone dwelling at 16 Tennessee avenue.—Three dwellings will be erected by Rosalie Moxley, at 622, 624 and 626 G street, Northeast. They will be two stories high, of brick, and all modern conveniences.—John Demouet will erect a dwelling at 1900 Thirteenth street.—Mrs. Catharine Miller will erect three dwellings on Third street, Northwest. They will be of brick, well finished and provided with all modern conveniences.

The cost will be about $44,000.—It is reported that the Chicago Heights Land Association, Seventeenth and Washington streets, will erect fifty frame cottages at Chicago Heights.

At Worcester, Mass., E. T. Makin has drawn plans for a handsome dwelling to be erected for E. I. Comins. The estimated cost is $10,000.—Frederick H. Daniels, superintendent of the Washburn & Moen Mfg. Co., will remodel and erect an addition to his brick block at Pleasant and Chestnut streets. The addition will be five stories high, and provided with all modern improvements.—Work was begun on a dwelling for Dr. F. H. Kendrick, Knowles Building. The plan have been drawn by J. P. Kingston. The estimated cost is $6000.—Mrs. H. H. Gaubier will erect a residence on Marble street, near Main, to cost about $4000. Barker & Nourse are the architects. The same firm has prepared plans for a residence on Olive street, near Burncoat street, for Frank Richardson, and which will cost about $4000. It will be finely finished on the interior, tile work, sanitary plumbing, plain and ornamental glass and all modern conveniences and improvements.

You May Doubt It, But It's True.

I have for sale two of the cheapest and best located pieces of ground for a country or suburban boarding house in or around the city. Right at Willow Grove Park; has every advantage, steam and trolley, and adjoins Willow Grove Park. Every house for miles around this place has been filled to overflowing with Summer boarders since the opening of this park; high ground; view for thirty miles; terms easy, and price extremely low to parties who will improve at once.

Everybody's Got One. Have You?

Wharf Monopoly.

Our readers—particularly those who have heavy real estate investments, and whose hopes are based upon the city's commercial growth—will be delighted to learn that there exists at the present time a monopoly of shipping facilities which is inimical to commerce and which makes the present effort to increase them a travesty upon common sense.

It is asserted by those who have given the question thorough investigation that almost all the wharves on the Delaware river front are owned, leased and controlled by corporations and private parties to an extent that does not prevail in another city in the United States, nor probably any other city in the world.

There are but three wharves on the Delaware front that are regarded by the shipping interest as public wharves, and one of these—Kerr's wharf—is a private wharf; the others are at Shackamaxon and at Dock streets, Arch and Race streets wharves being reserved for excursion steamers.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, the Baltimore and Ohio and the Reading have succeeded in capturing more wharf property than they have any right to control, and more than any possible increase in business would justify, the aim having been to capture the wharves with the view of controlling the freight as a matter of business for their respective roads.

So great has this abuse become that now it is openly stated that masters of vessels and owners frankly confess their inability to make charters for freight to Philadelphia with any degree of safety, owing to the present wharf monopoly, and the only way that such charters can be entertained with a feeling of security is to throw the wharfage charges, as well as damages for delay, upon the owners of the cargoes, as masters will not, if they can help it, subject their vessels to the capricious and exacting charges of the wharf owners.

The present Mayor, when appealed to by a committee from the Trades League to assist in defeating City Council's resolution to lease the Chestnut street wharf to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, frankly stated that he was powerless, as that company was too strong for him.

There is not the least doubt as to the existence of this monopoly, and that, too, in the face of the millions of dollars now being expended to widen Delaware avenue, and the enormous sum expended for the purchase of Smith's and Windmill Islands under the plea of increased shipping facilities, of which nearly all are embraced in the monopoly.

There is a question now open as to the legality of these wharf leases.

Have City Councils any more right to lease the city's wharves than the city's streets and thoroughfares? Those whose opinions are worth considering say no, and it is even maintained that many of the very old deeds of Market street properties specifically reserve the wharves at the foot of Market street for public use as free wharves, and that the city's lease to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company of these wharves for ferry purposes is illegal.

Of course it is plain that any hopes that may be entertained as to the city's commercial growth in the face of such flagrant monopoly are in vain. That these facts exist as they have been stated can be verified by anyone who will take the trouble, but where, oh, where, are the champions of the people, the daily press?

A Perfect Shutter Worker and Bower.

The dissatisfaction that has long existed with shutter workers of the "brace back" variety has borne fruit in the shape of the "Perfection" Shutter Worker and Bower, advertisement of which appears in this issue.

The makers have evidently realized the fact that a shutter must be secured to the house wall, and not braced from the sill if it is to stay on its hinges during windy weather and their device combines that feature with an ease and convenience of manipulation as yet unapproached.

The architects and builders who have used it praise it highly, and the following letter from Architect Frank Hays, of Kennedy, Hays & Kelsey, to the manufacturers, is indicative of the general sentiment:

Office of Kennedy, Hays & Kelsey, Architects,
931 Chestnut Street
Philadelphia, June 20, 1898.

MESSRS. E. A. WADDY & Co.,
Betz Bldg., Phila., Pa.

GENTLEMEN:—We have used your "Perfection" Outside Shutter Worker and consider it the very best Shutter Worker on the market. It combines the advantages of all the fasteners we are acquainted with, and we expect to specify it in our future work.

Yours very truly,

FRANK A. HAYS.

Semi-Annual Report FOR 1898

1011 Less New Buildings than for the first six months of last year and 939 less alterations and additions.

Building Construction Work IN PHILADELPHIA

AND
TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE,
From January 1st to June 30th, inclusive.

Tables by Wards and Months for two and three-story dwellings, together with a record of the new buildings erected, and in course of erection, with the estimated cost, exclusive of the cost of the land.

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE, WITH THE MORTGAGE AND GROUND RENT INCUM- BRANCE ON THE SAME.

3181 New Buildings of all kinds, costing $10,458,360, or 1011 less than for the same months of last year, and a decrease in the investment of $4,250,283.

2009 Alterations and Additions for which permits were granted, costing $3,013,500, a decrease from last year of 939, while the expenditure for these was $1,408,500 less.

The situation is so full of contradictions that conclusions are not only difficult, but nearly all will require qualification.

While the consensus of opinion is a unit as to the present bad condition of the real estate market, sentiment as to the early future seems to be controlled by the characteristics of the individual who is asked for an opinion; the man who has effected sales since January 1st last to an extent which have earned a year's income—and there are such cases—feels that there is no reason for complaint, while the other fellow, who has been running in hard luck, has nothing but adverse opinions to offer. One of these gentlemen, who was humorously inclined, compared himself to an old lady who was asked to tell her religious experience, and who, among other things, stated that, while she was old and feeble, and her days were numbered, yet she had cause to be grateful, for, while she had but two teeth left, yet, thank God, these two teeth met.

The following is a Table of Conveyances by Months.

PATENT APPLIED FOR

Architect Notes.

Charles Balderston, architect, 144 South Fourth street, has completed plans for alteration to house, 1416 North Sixteenth street, and estimates are being made by W. W. Rea Sons, contractors. All modern improvements will be introduced on the interior, new front, etc.

Geo. Oakley Totten and Laussat R. Rodgers, architects, with offices in Washington, D. C., and Newark, N. J., have opened a fine suite of offices at 981 Chestnut street, in this city, and are engaged upon several building projects, which will be noted at an early date in these columns.

Savery & Scheetz, architects, Girard Building, Twelfth and Chestnut streets, are making plans for an addition to the office building of the Wm. Cramp Ship Building and Engine Company. It will be of brick, one story high, and include modern comforts and electric lights, steam heat, etc. Also an addition will be made in rear of galvanized iron.

Thomas P. Lonsdale, architect, Manhattan Life Building, Fourth and Walnut streets, has made plans for a school, to be erected for the R. C. Church of Our Lady of the Rosary, at Sixty-third and Callowhill streets. It will be three stories high, brick and stone, and furnished with steam heat, electric work, black boards, and general school furniture, etc.

Collins & Autenreith, architects, 410 Walnut street, have made plans for an extensive addition to the house of R. Rossmassler, at Church lane and Musgrave streets, Germantown. Geo. L. Sipps, 212 South Seventh street, is the contractor. Work to start at once. The materials are of brick, stone and cement work. Hard wood interior, electric work and all modern conveniences.

J. Franklin Stuckert and Son, architects, 49 North Thirteenth street, have on boards plans for a large addition to the factory of Querns Bros., at Fourth and Berks streets. The new structure will be five stories high, of brick and stone, fire escape and all conveniences introduced. It will be in area 50 x 90 feet. Estimates will be invited at an early day, so as to be ready for the fall business.

D. H. Burnham & Co., architects, Chicago, Ill., have completed plans for a new building for the Union Trust Company, of Pittsburg, Pa. The structure will be one story and basement, and constructed of brick, stone and iron; interior to contain vaults of chilled and other iron and steel work, grille work, tiling, mosaic and cement work. Estimates are now being made in the office of Charles McCaul, No. 10 North Eleventh street.

J. Elvin Jackson, architect, 804 Walnut street, has made plans for a new dwelling, to be erected at 1009 Carpenter street, for Frank Palario. It will be three stories high, fancy brick front, stone trimming and modern conveniences. Also completed all plans for alterations and additions on an extensive scale to property of M. J. Hogan, at Eighteenth and South streets. Contract given to F. C. McColly, contractor, N. E. corner Broad and Arch streets. The latter work has been fully noted in a former issue of this journal.

Cope & Stewardson, architects, 320 Walnut street, have completed plans for an addition to the Nurses Home at the University Hospital, and placed the drawings on boards of contractors for estimate. The structure is to be 32 x 144 feet, three stories high; brick, stone and terra cotta will be the materials used for walls. The interior will contain all the latest and improved methods of comfort, steam heat, electric work, best of sanitary plumbing, etc. Plans are being bids on at W. R. Dougherty's office, 1604 Sansom street, and other contractors.

J. Bennett Colesberry, architect, Oak Lane, is about completing plans for an extensive addition to the Marshall Seminary at that place. The new structure will be three stories high and constructed of stone, brick and iron work. Interior will be fitted with dormitories, class rooms, steam heat, electric work, black boards, desks, school supplies, etc. Also plans for a handsome office building at Oak Lane for T. Henry Asbury, of that place. It will be 50 x 20 ft., two, and possibly three, stories high, brick and stone, plate glass, open fireplaces, steam heat, electric work, tile work, floors, etc. All modern conveniences will be introduced. Estimates on the above work are desired by the architect at the above address.

General and sub-contractors are now making bids on the fourteen-story office building of the West End Trust Company, to be erected at the southwest corner of Penn square and Broad street. As noted before in this journal, the plans are by Messrs. Furness, Evans & Co., architects, Provident Life Building, Fourth and Chestnut streets, and call for a structure of red granite two stories; red Pompeian brick and terra cotta work, slag roof, and steel frame, with fireproof work on interior. Steam heat, electric plant, elevators, tile, slate, marble and mosaic work, plate glass windows, cement flooring and pavements, concrete foundations, iron and brass grille work around elevator shaft, office fittings and furniture in hard woods, etc. The architects above named will supervise the work of construction.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

M. E. O'Brien, builder, is about to start an operation of fourteen two-story houses on north side of Reed street, near Earp. These are to be press brick, stone base and steps, with best comforts on interior.

Globe Artificial Stone Paving Company, John F. Galbraith, proprietor, Betz Building, Philadelphia, has been awarded the contract for all cement work on ten dwellings for D. Chas. Murtha, at Roxborough.

Wm. Freiling, builder, will at once start an operation of dwellings on the south side of Wishart street, east of Jasper. All to be of fancy brick, stone facings and modern conveniences, ranges, boilers, plate glass and best plumbing, etc.

Leonard R. Fletcher, Esq., of this city, states that 416 Library street, and adjoining property, has been bought of the Palethorpe estate by a New York syndicate, who expect to erect a large seventeen-story office building upon the site.

F. L. Michaelson & Sons, builders, have started the operation, noted in our issue of June 22d, and will build seven dwellings on Fifty-second street, beginning at 508 to 515, all to be of fancy brick fronts, stone trimmings, and best modern conveniences on interior.

Sol. Greenberg, builder, will at once begin erecting twenty-five two-story dwellings, 14 x 36 feet, on Hollywood, between Huntingdon and Oakdale streets. All to be of fancy press brick fronts, stone trimmings, hot-air heaters, ranges, boilers, and best plumbing on interior.

Attorney-at-Law Henry R. Edmunds, 425 Walnut street, has bought for a New York syndicate 408-10 12-14 Library street, and says their intention is to erect a large building on the site, the character of which he is not at present able to indicate, but says improvements will be started at an early day.

H. L. Forte & Co., contractors, 538 Drexel Building, have just been awarded the contract to build the large works of the Vulcanite Cement Company, at Vulcanite, N. J. These are to be of brick, stone, iron and cement work, and cover quite a large area of ground and complete in detail as to steam power, electric work, etc.

Charles McCaul, contractor, 10 North Eleventh street, is taking sub-estimates on the store building for John & James Dobson, to be erected at 809-811 Chestnut street. It will be six stories high, stone, brick and iron, with terra cotta work, furnished on interior with electric work, steam heat, elevators, best of modern comforts, etc.

Flore & Bevan, builders, 14 South Broad street, will start nine additional houses in their great operation at Cross and Jefferson streets. All these have spacious grounds, are of fancy brick, stone trimmings, porches, interiors in hard woods, electric work, tiling, furnace heat, boilers and ranges of improved make and all the latest conveniences, etc.

Doyle & Doak, contractors, 133 South Fifteenth street, have filed the plans for the new Jefferson Hospital, to be erected at Tenth and Walnut streets, and will begin work at once upon preparation of the site. The plans, as before noted, were made by James H. Windrim, architect, 1107 Walnut street, who will supervise the work of construction.

A movement has been started by the citizens of the new Fortieth ward for improvements in general under the loan bill recently passed by Councils. They ask for new sewers, bridges, streets and paving, etc. As yet the matter is in embryo and lacks active legislation. J. Warner Gohsen, Esq., Samuel Crothers and others are in the lead and hope for success.

Geo. S. Webster, chief of Survey Bureau of this city, and Chief Eisenhower of City Property, have been instructed to prepare a survey of the ground now known as League Island Park, with a view of permanent improvement. When the above drawings are complete in blue print an engineer and landscape gardener are to be employed to make plans for the development and beautifying of the 300 acres included. The above action is by authority of the various officials concerned on behalf of the city.

Quite a large number of operations have been upon the boards of contractors during the past week for estimate, all of which will likely be awarded at an early day. Among the most noticeable now being considered under schedule of bids is the M. E. Church at Manyunk, from plans by Mantle Fielding, architect, 110 South Fourth street; the U. G. I. Co. office structure, Broad and Arch streets, plans by Wilson Bros., architects and engineers, Drexel Building; a large stable for Finley Acker, at Sixth and Willow streets, by John D. Allen, architect, 1017 Chestnut street, and the fourteen-story office building for the West End Trust Company, to be erected at Broad street and Penn square; drawings by Furness, Evans & Co., architects, Provident Life Building, and others of minor import.

As indicated some time since, the Girard Realty Company, Betz Building, will start at once an operation of fine dwellings on the old People's Amusement Park, Thirty-third and York streets. Thomas P. Twibill will supervise the entire work and is taking bids for work and materials at the above location. These houses are to be of the best press brick, fancy fronts, with porches, stone trimmings, and hard wood interiors, furnace heat, electric work, plate glass, etc.

Charles G. Henderson, builder and owner, intends at once to begin the erection of sixteen dwellings, with side yards, on Cedar avenue, between Forty-seventh and Forty-eighth streets. These are to have large halls, tile work, and every modern convenience, hot-air heat, boilers and ranges, electric bells, etc. William Bull, contractor, will do the work.

Muresco

Is a permanently hard wall finish. Over plaster it produces soft, even tints, giving the effects of kalsomine, without the flashing and with none of its disadvantages. It does not rub off against the clothing nor will it crack or peel. It kills suction and gives a smooth, even coat over an old plastered wall that has been patched. It is made in fifteen artistic colors and white. A color card and full information about MURESCO sent for the asking.

Through Pennsylvania.

☞ When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Middleburg, Cumberland county, the mill of Shyrock Bros. and five dwellings were destroyed by fire a few days since. The Presbyterian church was also considerably damaged.

—At Perkasis, Bucks county, at a recent meeting of the Borough Council, it was decided to investigate several electric plants in order to consider the advisability of the borough erecting its own plant.

—At Colwyn, Delaware Co., R. H. Thatcher, the owner of the property known as Thatcher's Inn, and which was destroyed by fire some time since, has decided not to rebuild, but will lay out the ground into building lots, on which will be erected a number of handsome dwellings. Ten dwellings will be erected at once. They will be of brick, finely finished, and will be provided with all modern conveniences and improvements.

—At Newtown, Bucks county, the preliminary survey of the trolley route from Newtown to Doylestown has been finished, and it is expected that work will begin on the improvement the present season. The line will traverse what is known as the "back road." The line will start from upper State street, Newtown, across Newtown creek to Frost lane, thence to the farm lands of A. Everett Longshore, to the Brownsview road, and thence by various ways to Doylestown. Thomas P. Chambers, President of the Newtown Electric Railway, is interested.

—At Pittsburg, E. M. Butz & Co., Park Building, have made plans for a Pompeian brick dwelling for Mrs. Louisa H. Butz, which will occupy a site on Pitt street, Wilkensburg. It will be handsomely finished and provided with all modern improvements.—A. E. Linkenheimer, 37 Vandegrift Building, has prepared plans for a four-story brick building to be erected at Ford City, Pa., and which will be fitted up for hotel purposes. The owner is Henry P. Bend. It will be well finished and all modern conveniences provided.—Work will soon begin on the erection of the First M. P. Church at Braddock, Pa.—L. A. Raisig, Wilkensburg, Pa., has finished plans for a brick department store and flats for West & Wilson, and which will be erected at Penn avenue and Coal street, Wilkensburg. The estimated cost is $20,000.—Plans have been prepared by E. E. Miller, Penn Building, for extensive alterations and additions to the dwelling of Thomas Kennedy, of New Brighton, Pa. The estimated cost is $3,000.

—S. Munsch, 6106 Penn avenue, has prepared plans for a railroad station for the Ligonier Valley Railroad.—D. D. Martin will erect a building to be fitted up as flats from plans prepared by D. E. Sheridan, 6117 Penn avenue. They will occupy a site on Frankstone avenue.—The Hartoppe House will be remodeled from plans prepared by McBride & Co., Leader Building.—Shaw & Bailey, 25 Sixth street, will prepare plans for the Aaron House, at Shady avenue and Hastings street.—Work has begun on a frame dwelling for Miss Caroline Kerr on Grant avenue, Bellevue, from plans prepared by J. E. Allison, Lewis Building.—H. E. Steffler is the contractor for the First M. P. Church at Fifth and Bellefield street. His address is 364 Atlantic avenue. The estimated cost is $60,000.—J. W. Elder has begun work on six two-story and mansard roof brick and stone dwellings on Murray Hill avenue. They will be handsomely finished and provided with all modern conveniences and improvements, and will cost about $27,000.—J. J. Baudfield, 427 Fifth avenue, is the contractor for a two-story and attic dwelling for John Evans, Carnegie Building. It will cost $6,000 and will be handsomely finished.—Martin & Evans, East End Stock Yards, have begun work on three handsome two-story brick dwellings on Fiske street, to cost about $12,000, for William Filler has the contract and has begun work on two two-story and attic brick dwellings on Kelly street for F. R. Silkmillier, 323 Frankstone avenue. They will be well finished and provided with all modern conveniences. The cost will be about $9,000.

Through New Jersey.

At Camden, the County Board of Freeholders has awarded the contract for a new bridge across Cooper's creek, at State street, to R. P. Sweten & Son, for $22,776. The work must be finished in seventy-five days.

At Asbury Park, Monmouth county, a company has been organized, to be known as the Monmouth Water Supply company, with a capital of $100,000. The incorporators are Dr. J. Davison, D. C. Covert, M. V. Dager, R. A. Tusling and A. A. Taylor, all of Asbury Park. The object of the company is to supply water to the residents of Neptune township.

Through Delaware.

At Wilmington, a disastrous fire broke out last week and destroyed the lively stable of Charles B. Dougherty, at Front and Orange streets, and damaged the adjoining building occupied by Morris Reisman and Joseph Cohen. The loss was about $500, and was partly covered by insurance.

Washington, D. C.

Three dwellings will be erected on Yale street, Columbia Heights, by Barr & Sanner. They will occupy sites at 1322, 24 and 26 Yale street. They will be three stories high, of brown stone and Roman brick, tile roofs, fine interior finish and all modern conveniences.

—George P. Newton will erect four dwellings at 520, 522, 524 and 526 Fourteenth street respectively. They will be two stories high and well finished.—E. P. Berry will erect two stores and dwellings at 1332-34 H street, Northeast.—Charles H. Ruth will erect five dwellings on P street. They will be handsomely finished and provided with all modern conveniences.—A three story dwelling will be erected at 2120 N street, Northwest, by D. Henderson. S. G. Nottingham will erect a dwelling at 1211 East Capitol street. It will be three stories high and handsomely finished.

Tailors

PHILADELPHIA

One of the very few places where

are properly made and where style is considered

... as important as the fit ...

Our Facilities

for furnishing your home with

Oil Cloths

and in fact all kinds of

are unsurpassed for the following reasons:

We are large manufacturers, having our own designers and colorists; we prepare the yarn, weave the carpets and retail direct to consumers; our designs embrace all the desirable patterns in the market, besides those originated by ourselves.

We also carry a complete stock of Oriental Rugs and Carpets.

OUR SPECIALTY

Wilton Carpets

At $1.75 Per Yard

Not old stock but fresh, new designs for the Fall trade.

Architect Notes.

T. Frank Miller, architect, Lippincott Building, is making plans for a stone church to be erected by the German Lutheran congregation, at Clinton street and Fisher's lane, Olney. It will be 30 x 60 feet, and fitted with general church furnishings, steam heat and all comforts.

Charles M. Burns, architect, 717 Walnut street, has made plans for alteration and addition to St. Luke's P. E. Church, Thirteenth street, below Spruce. These are chiefly interior work heat and glass work, doors and chancel work, etc. Estimates to be made at office, 16<sup>3</sup>/<sub>4</sub> Sansom street.

Stearns & Castor, architects, Girard Building, have completed and filed with the building inspectors plans for the new Allegheny Avenue Baptist Church. It is to be two stories high, brick and stone, 67 x 100 feet in area, and furnished with steam heat, electric work, all church fixtures and furniture, etc.

Re-estimates are being made on the house to be erected at 1709 South Broad street for Mr. John Thomas. The plans are by Geo. I. Lovatt, architect, 424 Walnut street, and have been previously noted in this journal. The drawings and specifications are about the same as previously made by the architect. Drawings at 1604 Sansom street.

A number of architects of this city have been invited to prepare competitive plans for a new church for the First Baptist Church, recently at the northwest corner of Broad and Arch streets. Rev. Dr. K. B. Tupper pastor. When a decision has been rendered by the committee in charge of the new structure we shall note in full the plans, material, location, etc. No conclusion as to any of the latter details has been arrived at by those in charge.

Furness, Evans & Co., architects, Provident Life Building, Fourth and Chestnut streets, have completed the drawings for a fine house to be erected on Johnston street, Germantown, for Mr. Axel Peire. The building will be of cut stone, brick, frame and rough cast work, slate roof, interior in hardwood, electric work, furnace heat, leaded and plate glass, best of plumbing, painting and ornamentation, ranges and boilers, cement work. Estimates being made in the office of William Dougherty, 1604 Sansom street, and other contractors.

Will H. Decker, architect, has made plans for alterations and addition to the house, 865 North Fortieth street, for Mr. John E. Longergan. The work contemplates masonry, carpenter work, cement and stone work, iron grilles, hard wood finish on interior, stairs, painting and glazing, tin roof, marble, tile and mosaic work, plumbing, hardware, electric and gas work, etc. All modern conveniences will be introduced. Estimates being made in offices of Wm. R. Dougherty, 1604 Sansom street.

Horace H. Oler, architect, 1600 North Front street, has made plans for a fine warehouse to be erected on the east side of Hope street, south of Girard avenue, for J. A. Dougherty's Sons. Michael Magee has the contract, and will build it of brick and stone, slow-burning construction, five stories high, elevator lift on interior.

Horace W. Sellers, Chester H. Kirk and L. C. Holden, architects, 533-37 Bourse Building, have made the plans for alteration of the northeast corner of Lombard and Carlisle streets into an apartment house for J. Craig McLanahan, and placed them on boards of contractors for estimate. Doyle & Doak and others are bidding. The specifications call for masonry, plumbing, interior detail work, heating, electric work, elevator, etc. Previously noted.

Cope & Stewardson, architects, 320 Walnut street, have prepared drawings for a fine city house to be erected at 122 South Eighteenth street for J. P. Doherty. The structure will be of buff brick, Indiana limestone trimming copper bays and four stories high. Interior will contain tile work and other stone finish, hard woods, electric work, best system of plumbing and heating, etc. Estimates are to be made at once upon the work in offices of general contractors.

Supervising Architect Taylor, of the Treasury Department, was in Philadelphia on the 9th inst and reviewed the drawings of Rankin & Kellogg, architects, 1024 Walnut street, now in course of preparation, for the new public building to be erected in Camden, N. J. The plans indicate a fine building, architecturally, of marble, two stories high, interior fireproof, steam heat, electric work, marble, slate, tile and mosaic work, iron grille work and all furnishings for offices, etc. Estimates will soon be invited on the construction.

Kean & Mead, architects, Crozier Building, 1420 Chestnut street, have been selected, after competition, to prepare plans for the new Children's Homeopathic Hospital, to be erected upon a site just purchased on Franklin street, near Thompson. It will incorporate many new sanitary features in detail. The structure will be four stories high, of stone and brick; steam heat, electric work, best plumbing, slate, tile and other interior ornamentation, plate glass windows, elevator lifts for patients, nurses' quarters, private rooms, offices, laboratory and store rooms, etc. Fuller details when plans approach completion.

Robert A. Pitts, architect and builder, 212 South Third street, is about to start a large operation of dwellings in West Philadelphia, and is asking estimates for work and materials upon plans prepared by himself. All are to be fancy brick fronts, stone trimmings, tile work, hot air heat, electric work, ranges, boilers, mantles, plumbing, etc. The location of these houses will be on Forty-eighth street, north of Hazel avenue, and on north and south sides of Hazel avenue, between Forty-eighth and Fiftieth streets; also on east and west sides of Fortyninth street, south of the same avenue. The cost of the whole will be about $384,000.

David Knickerbacker Boyd, architect, Harrison Building, Fifteenth and Market streets, has completed plans for a dwelling for Miss A. G. Gibbs, to be erected at Overbrook. It is to be stone and brick, two stories high, slate roof interior in hard woods, mahogany, etc. Also every modern comfort and convenience, electric work, plumbing of the best, etc. Estimates are now being made on the work. Also by same architect plans for alterations and addition to office of Messrs. England & Bryan, southwest corner Third and Vine streets. These contemplate brick and cut stone work, carpenter and mill work, iron work, electric work, painting and glazing, etc. Estimates are being made in office of John R. Wiggins, contrac or, 1220 Filbert street.

Baker & Dallett architects', 1604 Chestnut street, are engaged on plans for a fine large hospital to be erected at Phoenixville, Pa. The structure will be three stories high, stone, slate roof, plate glass windows, and the ends will have bays and open porches and sun parlors. The interior will be provided with steam heat and electric work, nurses' rooms, operating room, trustees' offices, and patients' wards. All modern comforts and conveniences will be introduced. As yet no contracts have been awarded. Same architects are making plans for an artist's studio for Mr. John P. Cuyler, at Princeton, N. J. It will be a two-story frame structure, unique in interior design, having a very nicely adapted room for art work, large hall extending clear from first to second floor, hard wood finish; a chamber, dining room and kitchen, etc., will be provided. Also plans have been made for a very fine country house to be erected for Mrs. James Price Winchester, at Reybold, Del. This structure will be colonial in design, frame work, shingle roof, and plate and small window work, iron grille work, porches around exterior. The interior in hard woods, furnace heat and general conveniences. The work will be done under private supervision. The same architects have lately designed a neat country house at Silverside, Del., for Mr. Stone, of that place. Under contract. It is of frame, shingle roof, and sub divided on interior in a very economical way, giving the room generally gained in houses of larger proportion, with cost of about $3000. All conveniences will be introduced.

Knickerbocker Mortar.

Ready-mixed mortar is daily becoming more popular, particularly for repair work, through the efforts of the Knickerbocker Lime Company, of this city. The firmly-established reputation of Knickerbocker lime has much to do with this popularity, and the announcement that ready-mixed mortar, made with Knickerbocker lime, was in the market, was greeted with delight by those whose estimate of ready-mixed mortar was not of a favorable character, owing to the inferior quality of the lime used by some of the makers.

Of course, this new use of Knickerbocker lime has taxed the manufacturers to a considerable extent, as the machine-mixed mortar business has grown to such proportions as to require a large share of its product, but this has been met with increased facilities, until a point has been reached where prompt delivery for both lime and mortar is a feature on which the concern prides itself.

It's a good thing to know something about the character of the lime that is used in making the ready-mixed mortar that is used upon your building, and it's also a good thing to know that better lime than that made by the Knickerbocker Lime Company cannot be made by any one.

A Trolley Line to Atlantic City.

Surveys have been quietly made by a Philadelphia syndicate, said to be very strong both in influence and capital, for a new trolley line from Camden to Atlantic City.

Right of way has been very generally secured, as well as very valuable options on land for depots and terminals in Atlantic City and Camden.

The new road will be constructed for high speed; in fact, a rate of speed is proposed that will at least approximate the best efforts of the steam railroads. This will be accomplished through the avoidance of grade crossings, as the elevated system will be utilized as much as possible. The road will be elevated across both the meadows and thoroughfares at Atlantic City.

It will have four tracks and starting from Atlantic City the route will take in Absecon and minor towns, thence to Port Republic, from which point it will be as straight as the bird flies, crossing Kaighn and Haddon avenues to Arch street, Camden, to its terminal at the foot of Arch street, for which a site, 1500 feet long with a 25' feet river front, including riparian rights, has been secured.

It is stated that the sentiment along the entire route of the proposed road is unanimous in its favor, and that the land owners and others have been exceedingly liberal in their treatment of the syndicate's representatives, and that the road will be constructed, no matter how great the opposition or its source.

Assessed Value of City Real Estate.

According to the statement sent by the Board of Revision of Taxes to the Controller, the assessed value of city real estate for 1898 is as follows: City, $773,642,505, while the total, including suburban and farm properties, amounts to $840,406,650, by wards as follows:

Wards.	City rate.	Total Real estate Taxable.

THERE should be no hesitation on the part of Councils, in passing the resolution which is to be introduced at the request of the Park Commissioners, recommending an appropriation of $5000, to be used for the erection of suitable storm shelters in Fairmount Park. The experience of many, during the storm on July 4th, is sufficient evidence of the need of some kind of protection for the many thousands who spend their holidays in the Park.

PROFESSORS ADAMS AND NICHOLS, of McGill University, Montreal, report some remarkable experiments which show that under certain conditions a stone as hard and brittle as marble may be moulded like clay. They placed a miniature column of pure Carrara marble in a sheath of iron and submitted it to graduated but long-continued pressure, with the result that the marble shortened and thickened, bulging so as to swell the iron sheath. The iron then being cut away, the marble, no longer cylindrical, but greatly altered in shape, remained stiff, solid and brittle as before. No increase of temperature or other agency than the pressure was applied in producing this result. The results obtained are certainly surprising, and would seem to indicate that there is room for investigation as to the character of stone in this hitherto unthought-of direction, where used in our great modern structures. The possibility of change of form under great and continued pressure is worth investigation, and it will be of interest to know what further experiments may develop.—Exchange.

Miscellaneous.

At Chicopee, Mass., a brick school house will be erected the present season. The cost will be about $10,000.

At Danbury, Mass., Warren R. Briggs, of Bridgeport, has been selected to prepare plans for a new court house, to be erected by the county commissioners. It will be 70 feet x 70 feet, of buff brick and stone and all modern conveniences.

At Northfield, Mass., the trustees of Northfield Seminary have decided to erect a steam laundry, and a committee has been appointed to secure plans for a music hall building. H. M. Moore, 240 Devonshire street, is president of the trustees, and A. P. Pitt, of Northfield, is the secretary.

At New York City, it is said that the plans of J. B. Snook & Sons, 281 Broadway, have been filed for the erection of a ten story building for Mrs. Almy D. Sallatin. The estimated cost is about $250,000.—Harry L. Moxey and William H. Berkmore will erect a building to cost about $250,000.

At Lawrence, Mass., the estimated cost of the proposed new high school building is $200,000. It will be handsomely finished and provided with all modern conveniences and improvements.—Plans have been prepared by W. P. Ryan for a hospital building. It will be of brick and stone, all modern facilities, and will cost about $18,000.

At Chicago, Ill., Wm. A. Otis, 175 Dearborn street, has made plans for a school building, to be erected at Winnetka, Ill. It will be of brick and stone, slate roof, steam heat, fine interior finish, handsome furniture and all modern conveniences and improvements. J. G. Weart is chairman of the building committee and can give information.

Yarnall & Goforth, architects, 14 South Broadway street, have just completed plans for an addition to the Elwyn Training School. It will be three stories high, brick and stone, with general accommodations in interior. The structure is for the manual training of boys and consist of work-rooms, show rooms, gymnasium, etc. Estimate is now being made in offices of W. R. Dougherty, 1804 Sansom street and other contractors.

Thomas Stephen, architect, Masonic Temple, Camden, N. J., has on boards plans for a fine house at Merchantville, N. J., for Mr. Isaac Ferris, of that place. It will be of frame and stone, three stories high, and interior in hard woods, electric work, steam heat, best of plumbing, wardrobes, mantles, and every modern comfort and convenience. Other work will be noted at an early day from same architect.

Isaac Pursell, architect, 1119 South Fourth street, has completed plans for the Epiphany Chapel, to be erected on Seventeenth and Summer streets. The structure will be of stone and brick, very unique in design, handsome windows of stained and leaded, as well as plate glass, mosaic floors, tiling and cement work, chancel high y ornamental, hard woods for finish and seats, etc. Basement will be fitted with heating apparatus, kitchen, etc. The second and third floors of the parish house will contain a gymnasium and other amusement parlors; all modern conveniences are to be introduced for the general comfort of the young people. Estimates are now in order in office of John R. Wiggins, 1220 Filbert street.

Building and Real Estate Note

Joseph Bird, contractor, will make some alterations and additions to the stores of Lit Bros., at 725 727 Market street. These will consist of openings in walls and trimmings in detail.

William Edleman, contractor, will erect the M. E. Church, at Manayunk, after plans by Mantle Fielding, architect, 110 South Fourth street, and which has been fully noted in previous issue of this journal.

Florey & Bevan, owners and builders, will continue the operation on Gross street, south of Jefferson street, by erecting ten more three-story houses in that locality. All of fancy brick and stone. All modern comforts introduced.

J. E. & A. L. Pennoek, contractors, will at once begin the erection of a corrugated iron shed, 49 x 80 feet, one story, for the U. G. I. Company, at Nineteenth street and Allegheny avenue. Previously noted.

W. G. Barnes, contractor, will at once begin erecting a two-story church at Clearfield and Helen streets, for the German Evangelical congregation. Dull & Peterson, architects, made the plans. Previously noted in full.

An ordinance is about to be offered in City Councils, asking for an appropriation of $10,000, to erect shelter houses or sheds throughout Fairmount Park. Recent events have rendered these imperative for the protection of the public in case of storm.

Contractor John D. Lingle has a contract to make alterations to the Boys' Evening Home, on Albion street, between Twenty-first and Twenty-second streets. These consist of new rooms on two top floors, fire escape and other detail work.

John Stafford, builder, is still pushing his operation of fine dwellings at Thirty-second and Thirty-third and Diamond streets, all of fancy brick, stone fronts and steps, artificial pavements and all the latest and best comforts on interior. Previously noted.

Benjamin R. Supplee, builder, will make excavation at once for an operation of fifteen dwellings, 16 x 50 feet each, on east side of Fifty-third street, south of Girard avenue. Brick, stone facings and modern improvements on interior. Previously noted.

Andrew Hughes, contractor, will build six houses for Robert Stevenson, on Greenway avenue, west of Seventeenth street. All to be of fancy brick and stone fronts, interior to be fitted with all modern improvements, tile work, ranges, boilers, furnace heat, etc.

John G. Ruff, contractor and builder, will at once erect sixteen dwellings, two stories high, Pompeian brick, stone facings, at Fifty-fourth and Master streets and Peach street in the same vicinity. All the latest conveniences will be introduced on interior.

S. P. Coffin, contractor, 1819 Sansom street, will at once begin erecting a chapel for the North Baptist Church, at Twenty-third and Oxford streets. It will be 75 x 42 feet, two stories high, brick and stone walls, and interior will be furnished with general church furniture, seats, carpet, chancel work, etc. Previously noted in these columns.

Buck & Gallagher, Ninth and Wolf streets, have the contract for the stone work on the Allen apartment house building, at Atlantic City, N. J. Limestone, granite and blue-stone are being used. Also the contract for all stone work on school house, No. 17, at Wilmington, Del.

Doyle & Doak, contractors, 133 South Fifteenth street, have started work getting the hospital site, Tenth and Walnut streets, ready for the new structure to be erected for the Jefferson Hospital, and previously noted, from plans by James H. Windrim, architect, 1107 Walnut street.

We understand that the improvements to the West Jersey Railroad terminal will include, besides the new ferry houses at Market street, new train sheds, as well as new ferry houses, on the Camden side, the whole to conform to the improvements now being made at the foot of Market street.

The ordinance has been passed in Common Council appropriating $500,000 for the construction of a water reservoir and large sewers in West Philadelphia. Also $200,000 set aside for the Aramingo canal work. Also a bill in Select Council appropriating money enough to buy a lot at Thirty-first street and Lehigh avenue, for school purposes.

Among the bills passed in final session of Councils on the 11th inst., prior to adjournment for the summer months, are as follows: To purchase for fire purposes the properties at 1525 and 1530 Sansom street, and 1529 and 1531 Moravian street, at a cost of $25,500. To purchase property at Ontario and Howard streets, Thirty-third ward, for bath house purposes.

M. P. Wells & Co., contractors, Thirteenth and Walnut streets, will make the alterations and addition to the southeast corner of Eighteenth and Green streets, two houses, for George Allen, owner. As before noted, plans are by Frank Watson, architect, 1205 Chestnut street, and include four-story additions to each and other minor work. All late comforts will be introduced.

A new hospital building is assured for contagious diseases in this city, and it will be erected under the auspices of the Health Protective Association, of which Judge Ashman is president. The site for the institution is being considered by the committee in charge of purchased, but is kept a profound secret until purchase has been defined.

Chief Engineer of the Philadelphia &
 Reading R. R. has prepared extensive plans the principal materials used. Drawings in

A movement is now upon foot among the citizens of German proclivity to organize a stock company for the purpose of creating a first-class German park in the immediate vicinity of the city. At present the lack of such a place of recreation for that element of people is sadly felt. At present nothing tangible has been done, but it is understood the movement is gaining ground very fast among those directly interested. The name of the proposed grounds will be Bismarck Park.

"Beware" of two dapper dressed fellows traveling the city limits in a well groomed outfit of horse and buggy, offering to contractors, builders, material men, and all concerned in building interests, tickets purporting to be for the benefit of an outing fund for the Building Inspectors and other officials.
 We are authorized to say the above is a scoundrels should be placed behind barred doors and small windows, where they prop-

Fire entirely destroyed the large five-story factory building at American and Diamond streets, on the afternoon of the 10th inst.
 The property was owned by Thomas J. Holton and John Shoemaker, who occupied the first floor. At the present it is impossible to say when re-building will be done, at least until the insurances and other details are settled no definite action will be announced. Considerable damage was done to adjoining properties, all of which are to be repaired at once.

William F. Harrity, Esq., has just bought for a syndicate sixteen acres of ground at West Overbrook, between Lansdowne and Haverford avenues, Sixty-second and Sixtysixth streets. The purchasers intend to at once begin the improvement of the site by erecting a large number of suburban homes of handsome design, single and in pairs, with grounds attached, and all modern comforts introduced. More definite details will be given later on, when architects have been selected and contracts awarded.

It is reported that 180 acres of the Moro Phillips tract of land on the Delaware river, in Camden, N. J., above State street, has been sold to the Cramps' Ship Building Company, of this city, for ship building purposes. It is stated that the necessary buildings will be erected, and that the new yard will be utilized as an auxiliary to the company's present plant. The river at this point is suitable for ship building of the largest character, as it is not only wide enough, but the depth of water ranges from twenty to thirty-one feet. A little dredging will be necessary, but the natural advantages are many.

The Insurance Patrol of this city estimates the fire losses for the first six months of this year to be $929,672. The loss for the same months of last year was $1,140,034, a difference in favor of this year so far of $210,362. The losses by months are as follows:

Architect Notes.

R. W. Boyle, architect, 1208 Chestnut street, has made plans for a large warehouse to be erected at 913-15 south Randolph street, for D. L. Murphy. It is 38 x 30 feet, brick, stone and slow-burning construction, with elevator lift. Estimates being made on the work in office of W. R. Dougherty, 1604 Sansom street.

Schermerhorn & Reinhold, architects 430 Walnut street, have on boards plans for alterations to house, 3335 North Seventh street, for Wm. C. Gross. The specifications contemplate two new kitchens, laundry and dining-room; also new bay window, tile work, sinks, ranges, boilers, etc. No contract let.

George Plowman, architect, Betz Building, has made plans for a fine stable, to be erected at Vasey's Inn, Falls of Schuylkill; also for a new porch and sheds to the same. Mr. Plowman will, in person, supervise the work of construction. Drawings have been approved by the building inspectors, and work to proceed at once.

Bennett & Rothrock contractors, will at once begin the erection of the Allegheny Avenue Baptist Church, at Allegheny and Frankford avenues, northeast corner. Plans by Stearns and Castor, architects, who will supervise the work. As before noted, it will be of stone and brick, stained and plate glass, hard wood interior, steam heat, electric work and all modern improvements and comforts.

Baker & Dallett, architects, 1604 Chestnut street, have made plans for a house for Mr. L. C. Baker, to be erected at Bala. It will be of frame, cut stone, brick and shingle work, three stories high, interior in hard wood finish, best plumbing, furnace heat, range and boiler, kitchen and laundry fixtures, etc. Estimates being made in office of Geo. L. Sipps, 212 South Seventh street.

Stearns & Castor, architects, Girard Building, are making plans for the German Protestant Home, to be erected soon on Old Soldier road, near the Second street pike, near Lawndale. It will cost about $25,000. Same architects have in hand plans for the M. E. Church, to be erected at Lawndale. It will be ornamental in design, stone and brick, and include every improvement, comfort and convenience. Details of both later.

Plans have been completed for a four-story residence for Walter A. Bailey, to be erected at northwest corner Fifteenth and Master streets. The structure will be granite, brick and terra cotta work, highly ornamented, interior in hard woods, electric work, mosaic and tile work, plate and stained glass, ranges, boilers, laundry outfit, and every modern convenience. Estimates being made in office of W. R. Dougherty, contractor, 1604 Sansom street. Previously noted.

Addison Hutton, architect, 400 Chestnut street, has completed plans for the Ayres Memorial Laboratory, to be erected on the Pennsylvania Hospital grounds, Eighth and Spruce streets. These are quite large and will be three stories high, of brick and stone, fireproof interior, and specially arranged for the purpose. Sanitary throughout, fitted with electric work, steam heat, cement floors, plate glass, iron work and artificial paving. All modern conveniences, etc. Estimates are being made on the work.

Seeler & Roberts, architects for the Real Estate Trust Building, now being completed at Broad and Chestnut streets, have just completed the plans for the additional structure, to be erected on the east of the present one, including the owner company's building and that now occupied by Yeatts & Troth, who will vacate when lease expires. This building will be 80 x 100 feet, and a counterpart of the one at the corner of the streets named, and of the same material. The work and plans involved have been fully noted months ago in these columns.

Estimates upon the West End Trust Company's new office building are still being made and the contract, it is expected, will be made at an early day. The plans are very intricate in detail, by Furness, Evans & Co., architects, and have been here before fully described in these columns. The same architects have completed plans for a large, handsome stable, to be erected at Chesterbrook farms, near Berwyn, Pa. It will be of stone, brick and frame and replete with all the latest accommodations; cement floors, hard wood stalls, electric work, plumbing of the most approved system. Estimates are being made on the work.

A. F. & S. P. Rosenheim, architects, of St. Louis, Mo., have made plans for a structure, to be known as "The Farragut Chamber," and to be erected in Washington, D. C. It will be nine stories high, first two of cut stone, remainder of brick and terra cotta work. The interior will contain all modern conveniences, elevators for passengers and freight lift, electric work, steam power and heat, marble, tile and mosaic work, finest system of ventilation and plumbing, grill work of iron and other metals, fireproof materials throughout. Estimates are now being made in the offices of J. E. & A. L. Pennock, general contractors, 305 Walnut street, in this city. Also in same office estimates are being made on "Stafford Little Hall," to be erected at Princeton University, N. J. The plans are by Cope & Stewardson, architects, 320 Walnut street, and contemplate a structure two stories high, with handsome towers, cut stone and brick, plate glass, hard wood interior, steam heat, electric work, iron grill work, marble, mosaic, tile and slate work, cement and artificial stone work. All modern conveniences and improvements will be introduced.

All the plan for the Philadelphia Museum Building are completed in the offices of G. W. & W. D. Hewitt, architects, Bullitt Building, and will soon be placed for estimate on boards of general contractors. As we have stated previously, these structures are to be quite large, the specifications calling for a main building 208 feet square, very high, with a dome 100 feet in diameter; also wings, two in number, 90 x 384 feet, three stories high, whilst the administration building will be six stories in height, and all forming a hollow square. The interior will be of light gray brick, terra cotta and granite; roof of slate and tile work, and interior of all will be fireproof construction. A power house is to be quite a feature, fitted with engine, boilers, dynamos and heating apparatus. All windows of plate glass. Marble, tile and mosaic work, some slate and cement work introduced. Artificial paving and floors in basement and around the exterior. The electric wiring and fixtures will be elaborate and of the most approved system. Also sanitary plumbing and ventilation upon scientific principles. The time fixed for opening the great exhibition in this city is May 1899, and it is hoped to have the building in order by that time.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The mill and lumber yard of Geo. Kugler & Sons, at Laurel street and Delaware avenue, was destroyed by fire on the 12th inst. It is understood that these are to be rebuilt at once.

The new pier at Callowhill street, Delaware river, will be 693 feet long and 150 feet front, and covered the entire length with corrugated iron work, to start at once. Previously noted.

The Park Commissioners have now available $10,000 for extension of bicycle paths and walks along Belmont, Channonix and Woodside drives. It is likely that work will be at once undertaken, as the needs are imperative.

The contract to erect the Uni-Trust Company Building, at Pittsburg, Pa., has been given to Charles McCaul, contractor, of this city, at $120,000. It is to be of granite and brick, iron interior, fireproof and fitted for office purposes.

Director of Public Works Thompson will, under the operation of the $11,200,000 bill, make a strong effort to do away with all grade crossings upon the lines of steam railways, by elevation of tracks, sidewalks and bridges, in order to save the hazard of human life. The means to be adopted will not interfere with general traffic upon the highways.

JOHN F. BRISBANE, City Editor.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS of deeds before a notary require a ten cent internal revenue stamp. This is now the general practice in the transfer of property, while there are some who still hold out against such an interpretation of the law.

We are informed by a prominent gentleman of this city that several years ago he called the attention of Mr. Robt. McWade, who was at the time the city editor of the Philadelphia Ledger, to the abuses of the wharf monopoly as it then existed, stating that it was his belief that sixty per cent. of the city wharves were owned and controlled by corporations and private parties. Mr. McWade ridiculed the statement as being impossible, but subsequently investigated the matter and then stated in the columns of the Ledger that fully eighty-seven per cent. of the wharves were in the hands of corporations and private parties.

It would seem from the above statement that the evil has been allowed to increase from year to year until it has become a monstrous iniquity, as pernicious in its results as it was stupid and selfish on the part of our city fathers in perpetuating it.

What more drastic or far reaching influence could be suggested as being absolutely antagonistic to the city's prosperity than this wharf monopoly?

A loss of commercial prestige means a loss of inhabitants, followed, of course, by a decreased demand for dwellings and business places, and a great depreciation in the value of real estate, leaving out altogether the item of financial loss through commercial and mercantile deterioration.

But why was the evil permitted to grow is what every citizen would like to know.

THE Land Title and Trust Company's new office building, at Broad and Chestnut streets, through its central location, as well as its pleasant environments has been wonderfully successful in securing desirable tenants for its many business offices throughout the building.

There are a very small number unrented, notwithstanding the fact that a few months only have elapsed since the company obtained possession.

Light and air have played no inconsiderable part in securing for the Land Title Building this decided preference, for, while the interior is superbly finished and the accommodations represent the most modern as well as the most costly appliances, the charm is really in the delightful and inviting coziness which each room possesses.

These are distinctive characteristics of the Land Title as an office building, and they are certainly appreciated.

The Master Builders' Exchange.

It is stated by those who know—and there are many who ought to know all about it—that the Master Builders' Exchange, of this city, is the most complete organization of its kind in the United States, and this statement, as broad as it may seem, is really insufficient in explaining the true importance as well as the usefulness of the institution.

Whole pages might be advantageously utilized in a history of the institution and the work of its many useful branches, and even then some enthusiastic member of the fraternity of builders or material men could justly emphasize some important feature to which justice had not been done.

Organization was perfected in 1896, and in February, 1897, its incorporation was granted.

The institution at once centralized the building trades, and hundreds of the oldest and most prominent firms applied for membership and were admitted.

It was soon realized that extensive quarters would be needed, and many who felt, at the inception of the organization, that modest rooms in some central location were all that were needed, were astonished when they learned that a building, 75 x 105 feet, situated on the west side of Seventh street, between Chestnut and Market streets, was, thenceforth, to bear the name of the Master Builders' Exchange of Philadelphia.

To stand still is to retrograde, as a maxim, was worth infinitely more in practice than in theory to the restless spirits who were elected to govern the organization and whose diversified business experience was worth more to the institution than barrels of money, as the sequel proved.

A mechanical training school was started, and seven of the important building trades were included. A yearly crop of about 181 clever young fellows, all of whom are made fully capable of solving the problem of life, or at least the bread and butter end of it, is the natural result of the judgment and wisdom which have guided the affairs of the concern.

It was argued by the practical, hard-headed members of the institution that in almost all branches of trade expedients had been adopted through which the buying public was enabled to see, to handle, and to critically examine the goods it was asked to buy.

The exceptions were construction material and the various mechanical devices, good and bad, which were intended to improve conditions, decrease cost, enhance the value, as well as beautify, the buildings on which they were used, but which, like the exceptional flower, were born to bluish unseen for the want of a permanent exhibition department at some central point within easy reach of everybody.

Of course it is easy to understand how and why manufacturers and dealers in building material at once grasped the idea as soon as the permanent exhibition of the Master Builders' Exchange became an established fact, and there was little surprise expressed at the perfect flood of demands for space that followed as a natural sequence, until now there is beyond all doubt the most complete collection of building material, as well as modern appliances for building purposes, on permanent exhibition within the walls of the Philadelphia Master Builders' Exchange to be found in the world.

The officers of the organization consist of Charles H. Reeves, President; John Atkinson, Peter Gray, John S. Stevens, Vice-Presidents; Wm. Harkness, Secretary; William B. Irvine, Treasurer; the whole exhibition under the direct supervision of Mr. Wm. H. Matthews, Superintendent of Exhibition department, and the Committee on Exhibition, Charles Gillingham, John S. Stevens, A. A. Reeves, J. S. Thorn and A. J. Slack.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Alfred Gray, carpenter, 1720 Foulkrod street, Frankford, has the contract to build a fine house, previously noted in this journal, for Dr. Frank Emurey at Frankford. Plans by Frank R. Watson, architect, 1203 Chestnut street, and these include every modern comfort on interior.

It has developed that the American Bank Note Company, tenth floor of the Drexel Building, are the purchasers of the Library street property, recently sold. It includes 408 to 416, and will be improved by the company when their present lease is about to expire. No definite action as to plans or contracts has been taken.

Geo. F. Payne & Co., contractors, 401 South Juniper street, have been given the contract to erect the U. G. I. Co.'s office building, at the northeast corner of Broad and Arch streets. First two stories will be of granite, remainder of the twelve will be brick and terra cotta work, with steel construction and fireproof material on the interior. Two main entrances will be placed—one on Broad street and another on Arch street—each flanked by elevators, which are to be run by gas power. Considerable marble, tile, slate, mosaic work will be embodied in the finish of the structure; plate glass windows, steam heat, electric and gas work as well. Every modern improvement for comfort and general convenience will be introduced. Work to proceed at once. Previously noted in full in these columns. Wilson Bros., architects and engineers, made the plans, and will supervise the work of construction.

It is made in fifteen artistic colors and white. A color card and full information about MURESCO sent for the asking.

256 Water St. Brooklyn, New York.

Smith & Davis, corner Thirty-first and Berks streets, have the contract for all the cement work on 23 two-story dwellings on Old York Road and Tioga street for Mr. Campbell.

Michael Magee & Co., contractors, will at once erect an additional building at Disston's Saw Works, Tacony. It will be 51 x 180 feet, two stories high, brick and stone, and known as No. 14 building.

William L. Elkins has bought the old Jerry Webster farm, 106 acres, on the Old York road, Abington village, and will remodel many of the buildings. It is to be fitted as a first-class stock farm.

Wm. H. Margaur, builder, will at once begin an operation of 50 dwellings at Wayne and Wyoming avenues. All these to be of brick, stone trimmings and best comforts on interior, ranges, boilers, furnaces, heaters, etc.

The managers of the Hotel Pilkington, Eleventh, above Arch streets, have leased the old Central Hotel, on Market street, below Ninth street, and intend refitting it in a first-class manner, with new furniture, carpets and general comforts, at once.

It is understood permission has been given to erect the new reservoir for West Philadelphia at or near Georges Hill in the Park. $200,000 has been appropriated for this work, and $300,000 for the distributing main system, and work is to proceed at an early day. At least, as soon as bids can be asked and contracts awarded.

Contracts for completing the Central High School, this city, are said to have been awarded as follows: Robert S. Johnson, main building, $235,362; D'Olier Electric Company, tubing, wiring, etc., $9319; Walker & Kieper, mechanical and electric plant, $26,750; Vulcanite Paving Company, curbing, paving, additions, etc., around main building, $552.

Doyle & Doak, contractors, 133 South Fifteenth street, are estimating on a building for the Pennsylvania Heat, Light and Power company, on Callowhill street, west of Twenty-fifth street. Also on a new fire-house to be erected at Second and Quarry streets. Each of the above are of brick and stone, furnished on interior with the necessary appointments.

In regard to the award of contract for the new Public Library building, at Newark, N. J., our correspondent at that place informs us that the contract having been let to a party who was not the lowest bidder, an injunction has been applied for to restrain the committee from further proceeding and to stop the work until the matter can be adjudicated legally.

Macey, Henderson & Co., contractors, 125 Filbert street, are about starting the addition to the Baldwin Locomotive Works, at Fifteenth and Hamilton streets. The structure will be 27 x 100 feet, and cost $23,000. Brick, stone and iron are the chief materials to be used, whilst the interior will contain steam power and heat, with electric work and general improvements for comfort and convenience.

Delaplaine & West, architects, have awarded the contract to erect the new club house for the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity, at Thirty-fourth street and Woodland avenues. The plans were fully noted previously in this journal, by O. W. Shelly, architect, Franklin Building. The building will cost about $4000, and contain all modern improvements and general comforts. The materials to be brick, stone, iron and hard-wood interior, electric work, steam heat, etc.

Bids are being asked on city work in the office of Chief of City Property Eisenhower, Public Buildings, Broad and Market streets, as follows, until July 23d: Tearing down buildings on the site of Weeocoe Square. Tearing down buildings on the site of Disston Park. The improvement of Edwin H. Fidler Park. Erection of a fire house at Second and Race streets, Sixth Ward. Erection of a pavilion on Bridge street landing, Bridesburg. The director reserves to himself the right to reject any or all bids, as he may deem best for the interests of the city. All drawings and specifications can be seen in the above named office.

Through Pennsylvania.

When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Devon, Chester county, C. R. Drexel will erect a number of handsome dwellings.

—At Darby, Delaware Co., work has begun on the erection of ten dwellings on the Thatcher tract of ground.

—At Washington, Washington county, bonds to the amount of $60,000 have been sold for improved paving.

—At Sharon Hill, Delaware Co., C. E. Wood has been awarded the contract for the erection of the new Convent Chapel.

—At Scranton, Lackawanna county, the cost of paving Providence road and North Main avenue has been estimated at $100,000.

—At Colwyn, Delaware Co., George W. Brill, of the Brill Car Works, has bought the Barrman House on Main street, above Front street.

—At Freeland, Luzerne Co., fire destroyed property valued at $5000 a few days since. William Jenkins and Michael Zemany were the owners.

Architect Notes.

Hales & Ballinger, architects, Twelfth and Chestnut streets, have completed plans for a three-story factory and dye house for J. H. Kelm, woolen manufacturer, at Fifth street and Allegheny avenue. It will be of brick, stone and iron work, three stories high. Estimates being made in office of architects.

Wilson Bros. have made plans for erecting what will be known as Dulles Ward, at the Presbyterian Hospital in this city. The structure will be of brick and stone, steam heat, electric work and all other general conveniences. Estimates now being made in office of Stacy Reeves & Sons, 1611 Filbert street.

Addison Hutton, architect, 470 Chestnut street, has completed plans for alterations and additions to the house of Dr. Geo. Ellis, 343 South Eighteenth street. These consist of large mantle, tile work, brick and iron work, heavy pilasters and other general details. Estimates being made in office of Wm. R. Dougherty, 1604 Sansom street.

The structure for the German Protestant Home, to be erected after plans by Stearns & Castor, architects, Stephen Girard Building, noted in our last issue, will be a three-story building, 13 feet front, brick, stone and frame work; interior to contain steam heat, electric work, best plumbing, elevator lift and general improvements and comforts for such institution.

Baldwin & Pennington, 44 South street, Baltimore, Md., have completed the plans for the erection of the Bosler Memorial Library, at Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa. It will be three stories high, of Avondale marble, interior to have steam heat, best plumbing, electric work, tile and stained glass, and general embellishment. A. N. Brindle has received the general contract.

Frank Riggs, 388 South Thirteenth street, will build a hotel at Fernwood Station, F. W. & B. R. R., for E. W. Bok, of Merion Pa. It is to be of stone and brick, three stories high, and fitted throughout for hotel purposes. Previously noted. Same contractor will erect the high school at Lansdowne, Delaware county. Plans by Kennedy, Hayes & Kelsey, architects, 931 Chestnut street, and fully noted before in these columns.

Harry B. Weyner will soon start an operation of dwellings at Sixty-second street and Lancaster avenue, for which plans are now being made by Yarnall & Goforth, architects, 14 South Broad street. Twenty of these are to be stores and dwellings combined and extend the whole square from Sixty-second to Sixty-third street on the avenue above named. All of fine pressed brick, stone facings and best modern comforts. They are to be quite unique in architectural effect.

David Knickerbacker Boyd, architect, has completed all the plans for the Saturday Club's new house at Wayne, Pa., and the drawings are accepted. The structure will be three stories high, stone and frame, porticos and extensions for general open air comfort, the interior in hard woods, with every convenience and comfort for club purposes introduced. It will be erected west of the Baptist church of that place.

During the week past the plans for the Querns Bros.' factory, at Fourth and Hackley streets, have been on boards of contractors for estimate. These were, as previously noted, by J. F. Stuckert & Son, architects, 49 North Thirteenth street. The structure will be five stories high, brick, stone and iron, and furnished with steam power, heat and electric work, freight lift, etc. Drawings at office of W. R. Dougherty, 1604 Sansom street, and other contractors.

Messrs. Hazelhurst & Huckel, architects, Girard Building, Broad and Chestnut streets, have placed the plans for the house to be erected at northeast corner of Fifteenth and Master streets, for Mr. Walter A. Bailey, on boards of contractors for estimates. The structure will be three stories high, stone, brick and terra cotta work for the front, quite ornamental in design, interior in hard woods, marble, tile and other fancy stone work, iron and wrought iron work, steam heat, electric work, range and boiler in kitchen, and all modern comforts will be introduced. Previous y noted. Plans at 1604 Sansom street.

Milligan & Webber, architects, 520 Walnut street, have made plans for a new German Lutheran church, to be erected at Pennsburg, Pa. The structure will be of granite, Indiana limestone trimmings, slate roof, interior in oak, stained and plate glass windows, ornamental brass chancel rail and grille work, steam heat and electric work. It will be purely in English Gothic style of architecture and seat about 700 persons. A basement auditorium will also seat 500. The total cost of erection will be about $30,000. Estimates are now in order. Same architects have made plans for a fine pair of dwellings, to be erected in West Philadelphia, for Dr. Munyon. These are to be of brick and stone, and furnished with every comfort and convenience on interior. Other drawings by the same firm are on the boards, to be announced at an early day.

Under the direction of James Knox Taylor, supervising architect of the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., plans have been made for the handsome emigrant station to be erected at Ellis Island, New York harbor. The drawings are now in the office of Charles McCaul, No 10 North Eleventh street, in this city, for estimate. These call for a two and three-story structure of brick, stone and terra cotta work, with large iron grille doors, plate glass windows, steel skeleton work, tiles and asphalt work in roofing, asphalt floors, enamelled brick work; general fire proof material will be used throughout, and when completed will be one of the finest emigrant stations in the world. Elevators, electric work, steam heat, best system of plumbing and ventilation, offices for departments and janitors quarters, ferry slips, etc. All bids to be in by July 30th. Boring & Tilton, architects, will supervise the entire work of construction.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The Pennsylvania R. R. intends erecting a bridge over their road at the crossing of Vankirk street, in the Twenty-fifth Ward. It will be of stone and iron work entirely, and estimates are being made on plans by the company's engineers.

David M. Hess, real estate operator and agent, 205 South Sixth street, has bought of Haverford College two lots of ground at the southeast and southwest corners of Sixty-third street and Lansdowne avenue. It is held as an investment at present.

Allen B. Rorke, general contractor, has the contract to build the four-story residence for John P. Doherty, at 22 South Eighteenth street. The plans are by Cope & Stewardson, architects, 330 Walnut street, and fully noted in a previous issue of this journal.

Chief Brooks, of the Highway department will at once have Hunting Park avenue paved with vitrified brick. The amount of work to be done covers a distance of half a mile. The expense will be borne by the property owners. Where intersections occur the city is to do the work.

The contracts for the new fire station, the improvement of Fidler Park, also waccacco park, will be awarded at once, as all bids are in and scheduled for examination. Also the estimates for the pavilion for recreation, at foot of Bridge street, Bridesburg, will receive attention at the same time.

Superintendent Vodge has been directed by the Fairmount Park Commissioners to prepare plans for a Japanese Tea Garden, to be constructed on Peters Island, opposite Rockland; also a bridge extending from the shore thereto. Just when the work will be started could not be learned at this time; will be noted later.

The plans for the Mary Crozier Home for Incapables, to be erected at Upton, Delaware county, Pa., are about completed under supervision of Seymour Davis, architect, 917 Walnut street. As originally noted in these columns, it will be of stone and brick, three or four stories high, furnished with steam heat, electric work and all general improvements and comforts for hospital work and relief. Estimates to be made soon and the contract awarded.

The New Combination Range.

The use of gas, as a summer fuel, has become so general, as a result of the enterprise and liberality of the United Gas Improvement Company, who cheerfully and without charge, make suitable connections for all gas ranges, that something had to be done in the way of improving coal ranges, so as to make them as suitable for gas in summer as they were for coal in winter.

Matthew Hall, 1927 to 1931 Market street, has now on exhibition a gas and coal range combined, which seems not only to solve the problem of utilizing these two great economical forces, but which, in the case of gas, masters its great utility so completely that hot water is made as plentiful during the summer months as when coal is burnt exclusively. It has a direct influence upon the baking ovens; it has the warming closet, and, in fact, gas in this range is made to do all that coal can do, besides which the single range, combining as it does all the necessary arrangements for both fuels, removes the necessity for the ordinary gas range, thereby saving room as well as labor and care.

This range is the product of Thomas, Roberts & Stevenson, of this city. It is beautifully constructed, and is practically the Active Fortune Range, with the requisite gas attachments.

The builders, who aim to anticipate the wishes of those who are in quest of modern homes, very shrewdly adopted the combination range, for it affords room for emphasizing the statement that no dwelling can be truly modern without it, besides which the question of cost, which is always a question of great importance with the operative builder, in this instance becomes imperative, as the combination range affords a saving of 25 per cent.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Pepper & Register, contractors, of this city, have been given the contract to construct the Philadelphia, Castle Rock and West Chester Railway. The work to start at once and be completed by December next.

John P. Smith, contractor, will install a previously noted heating plant at St. Agnes Hospital, Broad and Millin streets.

John Murphy, of this city, has bought of T. M. Regar & Co., a seven-acre lot near Laureldale, Pa., and is said to contemplate erecting a new house at that location.

H. C. Dahl, contractor, will at once begin the erection of a brick wall around the site of the Old Swedes Church, Swanson, below Christian street. It will have a terra cotta coping and iron gates.

Col. Theodore E. Weidersheim, of Wayne, Pa., has purchased at St. Davids a lot of ground and intends erecting for himself a fine home. The site is near the Edgewood Lake and consists of about one acre.

A. Cowan, builder, will at once start an operation of fifteen dwellings two-story, on North side of Ogden street, between Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth streets, all of brick, marble facings, and all general comforts on interior.

Early in the season we noted the contemplated improvements to the Auditorium by William J. Gilmore, proprietor. These have been started and are entirely upon the interior. Extended balcony decorative and other minor details.

Under the re transfer of Green's Hotel, at Eighth and Chestnut streets, to Mahlon W. Newton, some alterations are to be made by the last purchaser. These are understood to include an entrance on Eighth street and other minor work.

The Christian Brothers, a religious order with headquarters in this city, has bought of John Wanamaker the large hotel at Ocean City, N. J., known as "Ocean Rest," and it is understood will make considerable improvements to the site.

Wm. Steele & Sons, contractors, 506 Walnut street, have on boards the drawings for a church at Second and Clearfield streets, by Charles Bolton, architect, Witherspoon Building. These plans have been previously fully described in the architectural column of this journal.

Drawings for a stable, to be erected at Twenty-eighth and Thompson streets for Dr. W. B. Stauffer, are now on boards for estimation in the office of John R. Wiggins, 1220 Filbert street. It will be two stories high, brick, stone trimmings. All conveniences introduced.

Pemberton & Co., operative builders, have bought a large block of ground on Fifty-eighth street, near the City and Delaware county line, from the heirs of the late Joseph Palmer, and intend to improve it soon by erecting a number of fine houses for which this firm is not.

The United Gas Improvement Company has purchased the property at the northeast corner of Broad and Tasker streets of Clifton Peale, executor of the late Hon. Geo. Handy Smith, for $13,000. It is understood this will be altered and utilized as a branch office for down-town business. No plans prepared or contract let.

John Gibson, operative builder, Witherspoon Building, intends to erect about 150 seven-roomed houses, at Allegheny and Osborne avenues, in West Philadelphia. These are for an investor whose name is withheld. Plans are on boards in Mr. Gibson's office for estimate. All to be two-story, brick, stone trimmings and best modern conveniences.

J. W. Hallowell, the fruit merchant, Broad and Chestnut sts., intends making alterations to 105-7-9 South Thirteenth street, which he purposes for business houses. The work will include new fronts and general alterations on all floors. Modern conveniences will be introduced. Work will be started about August 1st.

T. P. Stuart, contractor, 418 Castle avenue, will at once begin the erection of 36 dwellings on west side of Twentieth street, south of Wharton, and on Thirtieth street, south of same thoroughfare. All to be of fancy brick fronts, stone steps and facings, with ranges, boilers, furnace heat and best comforts on interior.

Geo. Ruhlant, contractor, 4442 North Cleveland avenue, will, early in August, start an operation of dwellings, ninety-six in number, on Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth streets, between Race and Vine streets. These are to be of brick and stone, with handsome porches in front, plate glass windows, hot air heat, tile work and all modern conveniences on interior.

Samuel B. MacDowell will rebuild upon the old lines, at once, the recently burned factory of the Potter Oil Cloth works. The first building will be 73 x 156 feet, five stories high. Plans are being made for those that are to follow as soon as the first one nears completion. All to be fitted with steam power, heat and electric work, as well as all factory appliances.

Machin & Brown, contractors, are about to make a considerable addition to the factory of Geo. Campbell & Co., at Twenty-first and Ellsworth streets. This will be 42 x 96 feet, three stories and furnished with all modern conveniences, etc. Same contractors are about to make alterations to the front of the Lyceum Theatre Vine below Eighth street. The present one will be replaced by a new glass one, very ornamental in design and other minor work is to be included.

About July 30th M. Hawley McLanahan, who conducts a real estate business under the firm name of Whiteside & McLanahan, will remove from his present office, 1436 Lombard street, to the northwest corner of Fifteenth and Pine streets. The business of this firm was established twenty-five years ago by William Whiteside, with whom Mr. McLanahan became associated in 1885, the firm name of Whiteside & McLanahan appearing in 1888. Since the death of Mr. Whiteside, in 1890, the business has been conducted by Mr. McLanahan individually and with such success as to necessitate the proposed removal to more convenient quarters.

The designs for the palaces for the exhibition of 1900 in Paris, to be erected on the Esplanade of the Invalides and the Champs de Mars, have now been settled upon. The building for the national manufactures is to be entrusted to MM. Toudoire and Pradelle. At right angles to it will be two other buildings. One will be designed by M. Esquié, the second by MM. Larche and Nachon. For a third building M. Tropey-Bailly will be architect. The three will be assigned to the examples of furniture and allied industries. The adaptation of the Machinery Hall in the Champs de Mars to receive exhibits relating to agriculture and food will be carried out by M. Raulin. The Palace of Electricity will have M. Henard for architect. M. Paulin will be the architect for the compound building devoted to chemical industries and mechanics. The Palace of Civil Engineering and Means of Transport will be designed by M. Jacques Hermant. M. Sortais is to prepare plans for the Palace of Education. Another for textiles and clothing will be the work of M. Blavette, and one for mines and metallurgy will be undertaken by M. Varcollier. There will be, according to the arrangements entered into, twenty palaces in the Exhibition of 1900, and they will occupy sites on both sides of the Seine. There may be additional buildings raised to accommodate French industries and arts. With those erected for the foreign industries the collection of buildings will present some of the characteristics of a novel town.—Exchange.

[ENTERED AT THE PHILADELPHIA POST-OFFICE AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.]

VOL. XIII.—No. 31.

PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 3, 1898.

$5.00 PER YEAR.

Architect Notes.

Edwin Gilbert, architect, 1420 Chestnut street, is revising the plans for the house of Dr. Taylor, at Overbrook, Pa. It will be stone and brick, two and a half stories high, and all modern improvements on interior.

M. I. Kast, architect, Mechanicsburg, Pa., is making plans for alterations upon the Reformed Church of that place. These consist of a new tower and roof, new entrance, new pews, windows and minor work. Mr. Kast will supervise work. Address as above.

Thomas Bennett, architect, 923 Locust street, has on boards plans for twenty-two dwellings, to be erected at Twenty-first and Spencer streets. All of fancy brick fronts, stone trimmings, porches; interior to contain the best modern improvements and comforts.

Interior alterations and decorations are to be made at the residence of L. T. Smith, 3908 Chestnut street, after drawings by James H. Windrim, architect, 1107 Walnut street. Estimates are being made at office of Doyle & Doak, 133 South Fifteenth street.

T. Frank Miller, architect, Lippincott Building, 12th and Filbert streets, has made plans for a frame chapel, to be erected at Clinton street and Fisher's lane, Germantown. Modern in detail and all conveniences, etc. Noted previously in these columns.

J. C. M. Shirk, architect, 421 Chestnut street, has made plans for a handsome new porch and iron railing to be attached to 3314-16 Race street, for Charles Sylvester, owner. Estimates are being made at the office of W. R. Dougherty, contractor, 1604 Sansom street.

H. D. Dagit, architect, 435 Chestnut street, has made plans for an alteration and addition to 2502 Dauphin street, for the owner. Contractor A. Whitehead, 219 South Sixteenth street, is figuring on the work. Exterior and interior work and all modern conveniences are included.

Schermerhorn & Reinhold, architects, have made complete plans for alterations and additions to the residence of W. C. Gross, 3335 North Seventeenth street. The work will include brick and stone work, cement work and general conveniences of modern character. Noted previously.

Wilson Brothers, architects, Drexel Building, have made plans for alterations and additions to No. 5541 Main street, Germantown, for Robert Cherry & Sons; also to the residence of Dr. George Woodward, at Wissahickon Heights. Both of these are being estimated upon by a number of general contractors.

Mantle Fielding, architect, 110 South Fourth street, has given the contract to Wm. J. Gruhler to erect the new residence of Frederick Thomas, on Walnut lane west of Germantown avenue. This building, as noted previously, is to be of local stone, 28 x 72 feet, and contain all modern conveniences, hard wood finish on interior, electric work, finest of plumbing, etc. Cost, $7000.

David Knickerbacker Boyd, architect, Harrison Building, Fifteenth and Market streets, has completed plans for a fine three-story residence for Col. Theodore Wiedersheim, to be erected upon a lot at St. David, Pa. Noted in our last issue as purchased. The structure will be stone, frame and rough cast work, interior in hard wood, electric work, steam heat and every modern comfort and convenience. Estimates are in order and being made by contractors.

Lawrence Vischer Boyd, architect, Harrison Building, 15th and Market streets, has just made complete plans for a residence for Henry F. Nell, Esq., to be erected at Highland, Chestnut Hill. The structure will be of brick, frame and rough cast work, three stories high, red shingle tile for roof, furnace heat, hard wood finish, range and boiler, best system of plumbing, and all minor comforts and conveniences. Estimates are in order at Wm. R. Dougherty's office, 1604 Sansom street, and other contractors.

Architect J. P. Brenot, Oil City, Pa., has completed plans for a two-story frame dwelling for Mr. John Burke. Building to have all modern improvements. Contract let to J. E. Wallace, Oil City, Pa. Same architect furnished plans for stable and carriage house for McCracken & Koch, South Oil City, Pa., building to be 30 feet x 48 feet, to have cement floor, and living rooms for driver on second floor; to have bath room and all modern improvements. The contract for St. Agatha's Parochial School, mentioned in these columns some time ago, has been let to Mr. Hudlemeyer, of Meadville, Pa. Plans also furnished by Mr. Brenot.

No award of contract has as yet been made for the construction of the new buildings to be erected by the P. E. Church of the Epiphany, at Seventeenth and Summer streets. As noted previously, these consist of three in number, a chapel, a Sabbath school, also a parish house, all connected by passages. These structures will be of gray granite, and interiors in hard wood finish, decorations and chancel work, upholstery and general furniture for each department. Iron work, fine glass effects, cement and artificial stone work, electric work, steam heat and every comfort and convenience will be in reduced. Isaac Pursell, architect, it will be remembered, drew the plans, and will supervise all the work of construction. When completed this will be one of the finest ecclesiastical institutions in this State.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Roydhouse, Arey & Company, Master Builders' Exchange, have received a contract to make some minor alterations and addition to 114 South Nineteenth street, and will begin work at once.

The Ice Manufacturing Company, Walnut lane, Germantown, intends to erect an addition to its plant, which will be three stories high, of brick, iron frame, and all improvements on interior.

The Phoenix Bridge Company has received the contract to build the four-span bridge over the Little Schuylkill river, at Reynolds Station, for the Reading Railway. Iron and stone are the materials.

Burd P. Evans, contractor, will at once begin the erection of the Church of the Nativity superstructure. It is to be of stone, one story and a basement, and has been fully noted previously in these columns.

John Gibson, builder, Witherspoon Building, is still taking estimates on the large operation, previously noted, at Osborne and Allegheny avenues, in the Twenty-fifth ward. There will be about 150 houses in all.

Wm. F. Hand, of Laurel Springs, N. J., has the contract to alter the stores, 105 to 109 South Thirteenth street, for the owner, Henry W. Hallowell, and which has been fully noted previously in these columns. Cost, about $5000.

Charles A. Porter, the well known contractor, is about to erect a cow barn on his place on Bristol pike. It will be of stone and brick, 36 x 80 feet, and provided with all conveniences on interior. Work for foundations has been started.

A. Raymond Raff still continues alterations and additions to the German Hospital, at Girard and Corinthian avenues, which have been noted. A new house for the dead will now be erected on the site. It will be two stories, of brown stone, and tile roof.

Charles McCaul, contractor, 10 North Eleventh street, will at once begin alterations and addition to the Pennsylvania Heat, Light and Power plant, on Callowhill street, west of Twenty-fifth. These are very extensive, and will cost $20,000. Previously noted.

John R. Wiggins, general contractor, 1220 Filbert street, will build the new residence of John Thomas, at 1709 South Broad street. The structure will cost $14,000, and include a granite front and all modern conveniences. Fully noted in previous issue of this journal.

Michael O'Rourke, 1107 Walnut street, has bought of the Commonwealth Title Insurance and Trust Company ground, 500 x 50 feet, at northwest corner of Westmoreland and G streets, for $27,500, on which, it is understood, the buyer will erect a number of fine dwellings in the near future.

JOHN F. BRISBANE, City Editor.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, AUG. 3, 1898.

The sentiment of the French nation and people towards America, since the war commenced, has been so pronounced and so thoroughly unjustifiable that the American people cannot be blamed if a system of retaliation should be inaugurated.

A few sensible rich American women, who have, heretofore, obtained their robes from Paris, practically introduced a French boycott some time ago. The example was a good one, and the loss of American trade promised to become so serious that the tone of the French press was materially changed.

This change, however, was as light and unserious as it was pronounced and unaffected at the start.

The French people are not our friends, and there is no use in mincing words in saying so.

Americans have always been Easy street to the French, and, outside of the resplendent manner in which the American tourists spend their cash, there is nothing American that commands the respect and friendship of the present generation of Frenchmen.

The Paris Exposition of 1900 should be boycotted, and American manufacturers should pass it by unnoticed.

Not a dollar should be voted by Congress for the Exposition, and the office of Commissioner General, to which a Mr. Peck has been appointed, to succeed the late Major Handy, should be dispensed with.

The French, as well as the rest of the world, should be made to know what American earnestness really means, for, while we are a good-natured people, not at all inclined to trouble, we are well able to take care of ourselves under all conditions. We are also able to distinguish between friends and foes, and in the present instance the French cannot properly be regarded as among the former.

"WHEN it was announced that Brookline, that beautiful suburb of Boston, had established an art commission, before whom in future the designs of its public buildings must be submitted for approval, we felt that a step had been taken not only for the improvement of its own architecture but one that would influence suburban architecture elsewhere. We regret to learn, however, that at this early day the commission has had a setback and the law creating it has been repealed. The difficulty arose over a school house whose plans were not approved by the Art Commission. The school committee caused it to be understood that unless its plans were accepted no building would be put up. They made so good a bluff that citizens who knew a school to be needed got together and voted to repeal the law. It is quite a question whether the citizens would not have done themselves and the community better service by directing their efforts against the school board. The same amount of energy would probably have compelled their resignation and secured to the town men who could appreciate architectural values in their school buildings."

No one can read the foregoing article from an exchange without being convinced that "art is long" and the task of elevating the standard of beauty a difficult one.

The deadly, commonplace appearance of many of our city suburbs is evidence that art commissions, if ever established, have met the fate of that of Brookline.

Not far from Philadelphia, within easy reach by trolley, there is now under construction a building operation, consisting of a number of stone dwellings in the style known as "twins," on lots not more than twenty feet in width. There is little or no individuality in these dwellings, less privacy and outside of the wide street and the unoccupied land—which will probably be built up in like manner in a short time—there are practically few advantages over the ordinary city home, which is necessarily limited in attractiveness and size of lot by the value of land.

It is a pleasure to note that there are exceptions to the case cited, some of our suburbs being laid out artistically and with a liberality beyond reproach.

Red Cross Society Needs Help.

For practical, common sense methods in contributing to the welfare of our soldiers now at the front, the Society, the Red Cross merits the highest commendation.

Its work and usefulness seem unlimited, for its freedom from red tape restrictions enables it to direct its labors so as to meet every emergency, whether it be on the battlefield the hospital, or the lonely cot of some Cuban reconcentrado, where the wan faces of women and children appeal far more eloquently than words can be made to express in any language.

The associate society of the Red Cross of Philadelphia now asks for help. Its means are nearly exhausted. Its work, if incidentally recounted, would make volumes of wholesome reading, for its broad gauge humanitarianism is fraught with thousands of examples which will go on record as object lessons in man's new religion.

Six new ambulances are to be put in the field. A vessel is to be chartered to carry stores and medicines. These are intended to leave Philadelphia on August 15th next. Much help will be needed, and we are requested to make this appeal to the building and real estate interests of this city and State.

Contributions in money should be sent to William Hill, Treasurer, 305 Walnut street; stores to the office of the Red Cross Society, 1501 Chestnut street.

The following is a list of articles most needed:

Large and small contributions of money.
Salt pork; corned beef in barrel; codfish, hard cured; mackerel in kits; smoked beef and hams; bacon; canned salmon; smoked sausage; Indian or corn meal; flour; oatmeal; cracked oats; wheat in any form; barley.

Canned fruits of all kinds.

Dried fruits, such as apples, prunes, apricots, etc., and dried corn.

Barrels of onions, potatoes, beans, rice, salt and ship biscuit.

Beef extracts; bovine, etc.; soups.

Malted milk; condensed milk (Eagle brand, or other high grade); evaporated cream.

Wines; grape juice; lime juice; clam bouillon; raspberry vinegar; coffee, tea, cocoa and general groceries; jellies, preserves and jams.

Disinfectants of every description; quinine pills and general drugs; ointments, salves; phenol sodique; gauze of all kinds; absorbent cotton; surgical antiseptics; general hospital stores; soaps.

Bed clothing for hospitals; pajamas for soldiers; canvas and carpet slippers for use in hospital; mosquito netting; palm leaf fans; towels, absorbent and Turkish; soft handkerchiefs, bandana very desirable.

Clothing, new, suitable for summer wear, made as plainly as possible, for children of 5 years and upwards, and women and men.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Alexander Cowan, builder, Twelfth and Daly streets, will start at once to erect twenty-five dwellings at Fifty-third and Parrish streets; also at Ogden and Fifty-third streets. All to be of fancy brick fronts, stone trimmings and best comforts on interior.

Burd P. Evans, contractor, Germantown, will at once erect a one-story chapel for the Schwenkfelder congregation, at northwest corner of Thirtieth and Cumberland streets. It will be of granite, and cost about $5000, seating about four hundred persons. All modern church comforts and conveniences will be introduced.

Chas. McCaul, contractor, is taking revised estimates on the previously noted stable at Sixth and Willow streets, for Finley Acker. It is to be of terra cotta work and brick, 57 feet x 105 feet, three stories high, cement work, improved stalls and all late improvements will be introduced. Plans by John D. Allen, architect, 1017 Chestnut street.

Wants.

The Greensburg, Jeanette & Pittsburgh Electric Railway Company will, it is claimed, extend its line forty one miles, from Mt. Pleasant to Pittsburgh.

At Bethlehem, Pa., it is stated that Groman Brothers, of that place, have the contract to erect the new power house at Easton, Pa., for the Easton and Bethlehem trolley road.

J. D. Mitchell, chairman commission of water works, Bristol, Washington county, Va., wants estimates for furnishing pump, stand-pipe, tank, or reservoir and necessary machinery for water works, artesian well, 1250 feet deep, just completed.

At Rockville, Md., county commissioners of Montgomery county, Md., will receive proposals for grading, regulating and macadamizing about nine miles of road from Rockville, Md., to the line of the District of Columbia, until noon, August 10, 1886. Plans, profile and specifications can be seen at this office. Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check for $200. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. W. W. Welsh, clerk.

At Laurel, Md., sealed proposals will be received by the building committee of the High School until Wednesday, August 10th, 1886, at 8 o'clock P. M., and will be opened immediately thereafter, for the erection of a High School building. Amended plans and specifications can be consulted at the office of Mr. Thomas D. Bond, 612 F street, N. W., Washington, or at the Citizens' National Bank, Laurel. Committee reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or parts of bids. Bid should be addressed to the building committee, care Thomas S. Stone, school examiner, Laurel, Md., and indorsed "proposals for erection of High Sch. ol." By order of the building committee. R. W. Kerr, secretary.

Messrs. Lukens & Coburn are estimating on a Methodist church, to be erected at Heights town, N. J., from plans by Architect J. Carter Newsom, 1001 Chestnut street. It will be built of Holmesburg granite, hard wood finish, stained art and plate glass; will have ventilators, etc. Heating reserved by architect.

Macey, Henderson & Company, Heed Building, are taking estimates on alterations to the factory of the J. W. Paxon Company, at 1056 to 1078 Beach street. The work includes new floors, roof, and sheds in rear; also new stable and alteration to the engine house, etc.

The Third National Bank, at Broad and Market streets, has no idea of building at the present time; so says Gen. Louis Wagner, president. Some years ago it intended doing so, as noted at that time in this journal, but the matter was dropped for reasons considered sufficient, and which still hold good.

Wm. R. Dougherty, 1604 Sansom street, is the lucky contractor to build the Nurses' Home at the University of Pennsylvania, Thirty-fourth and Spruce streets. It will be two stories high, with a mansard roof of slate, the walls of brick, stone trimmings, steam indirect heat, electric work and modern conveniences, etc.

C. B. Prettyman, builder, Betz Building, has bought ground bounded by Jackson, Wolf, Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets, and intends improving the site by the erection of a number of fine dwellings in the near future. This will be one of the largest operations in this section of the city, and include, when finished, about 300 houses.

Director Thompson has awarded contract for the boilers for the Belmont station to Robert Wetherill & Company, of Chester, Pa., for $25,200. Macey, Henderson & Company got the contract for the annex at $4398. Reading Foundry Company will supply the new mains, 48 inch, for the Queen Lane reservoir. All noted previously.

About two years ago an appropriation of $7000 was made for a public bath house, to be erected in West Philadelphia, but it has not been expended, and the residents of the Twenty-fourth and Fortieth wards are asking why the matter remains in abeyance. It is needed in that locality, and the people have concluded to push it to the front at once.

The trustees of the Girard Estate have determined to construct and locate a public park upon the old Girard homestead, bounded by Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Porter and Shunk streets. The trustees will bear all the expense and dedicate the park to the uses of the city. It is understood orders are to be at once given for preparation of plans for the work as noted.

John R. Wiggins, contractor, 1220 Filbert street, intends starting this week the erection of Dr. Judson Daland's residence, 817 South Eighteenth street, for which he received a contract some weeks ago, and which we fully noted at the time. The structure will combine home comforts, as well as professional arrangements, and all modern conveniences are to be introduced.

Daniel Roberts Harper, who resides at Wyoming avenue and Clinton streets, will soon erect three unique structures at that locality, being a residence, a stable and bicycle house, all designed by himself, upon the French style of architecture. The house will be of brick and frame, brick laid in Flemish bond. Steam heat and modern conveniences introduced on the interior. Mr. Harper intends to build at the above location at once.

Frank Maguire, builder and real estate operator, at Wayne, Delaware county, Pa., has started excavations for a series of fine dwellings on Lancaster pike, at the above named place. These are to be of stone, brick and frame material, all three stories high, unique in design and fitted with steam heat, electric work, hard wood finish, best of sanitary plumbing, etc. This will be one of the largest and best operations in that locality for a number of years.

Through Pennsylvania.

☞ When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Carlisle, Cumberland county, it is stated that work will begin shortly on the erection of a new school building, to cost about $25,000.

—At Braddock, Allegheny county, the School Board has under consideration the erection of a new school building in the second ward, to cost about $40,000.

—At Harrisburg, it is stated that the plans of Architect Weaver, of Harrisburg, have been accepted for a building for the Board of Trade. The estimated cost is $30,000.

—At Wawaset, Chester county, the fence factory and warehouse of I. Pusey Wilkinson, which was destroyed by fire not long since, will be rebuilt on a much larger scale.

—At Carnegie, Allegheny county, it is said that the contract for the new high school building has been awarded to Charles Rife & Brothers, of Allegheny, Pa., for $30,000.

—At Duquesne, Allegheny county, it is said that the congregation of the Church of the Holy Name has under consideration the erection of a new church edifice, to cost about $50,000.

—At Shenandoah, Schuylkill county, it is said that the water committee has under consideration the construction of a storage reservoir to hold 30,000,000 gallons of water, and to cost about $16,000.

—At Meadville, Crawford county, it is said that the city will purchase the property and franchise of the Meadville Water Company. The price has been fixed at $185,000. W. A. Downe, city engineer, can give information.

—At Malvern, Chester county, work is progressing on the handsome dwelling for Hon. William Evans, of Willistown, Pa. The lot is 100 feet front. The dwelling will be of light brick, and when finished will be one of the most attractive homes in the neighborhood.

—At West Chester, Chester county, the contract for the erection of the Home for Nurses at the Chester County Hospital has been awarded to William H. Burns for $8737. Work will begin at once. The committee in charge consists of I. Preston Thomas, Dr. Thomas E. Parke, Dr. Joseph T. Rothrock, William Scattergood and Mrs. Richard Dar-

At Columbus, Ohio, the Ohio Institution for the Education of the Deaf and Dumb will erect a new school building. J. W. Jones, secretary of the board of trustees, will receive bids for the same until August 23d.

At Charleston, Ill., a new court house will be erected. The county commissioners will receive proposals for its construction until August 23d. C. W. Rapp, 13 Washington street, Chicago, Ill., has prepared the plans.

At Watertown, Mass., an eight room brick school building will be erected, and bids will be received for its construction until August 6th. Edward F. Porter is chairman of the building committee and can give information.

At Watertown, Mass., plans for a new administration building at the arsenal have been approved, and work will begin at once. It will be two stories high, hard wood finish, open fireplaces. Other buildings will probably be erected. Major J. W. Reilly, commandant at arsenal.

At New Haven, Conn., Prof. E. H. Sneath will erect a handsome dwelling, from plans prepared by Carrere & Hastings, of New York City. It will be finely finished throughout, provided with all modern conveniences, and will cost about $40,000. Alterations will be made to the Public Library, from plans prepared by L. W. Robinson. L. Hayne has drawn plans for the Hale Mission building.

At Hartford, Conn., the congregation of the First Universalist Society has not as yet decided on plans for the proposed new church building, to be erected at a cost of about $70,000. C. N. Fowler and R. W. Farmer are the committee. J. L. Chesbro has prepared plans for a dwelling for Edgar C. Fowler. It will contain eleven rooms and will be well finished throughout. C. W. Burpee will erect a dwelling. The contract has been awarded to Robert Partens.

At Springfield, Mass., Clough & Reid, of Holyoke, are preparing plans for a brick apartment house to be erected on Worcester street. The trimmings will be of brown stone, hard wood interior finish, considerable tile work, sanitary plumbing, modern improvements. Work is progressing on the St. Joseph Novitiate building, in the rear of St. Joseph's Cathedral, State street, for which the general contract has been awarded to Toomey & Shen, of Holyoke. The cost will be about $80,000. The structure will be four stories high and will contain kitchens, cold storage rooms, gymnasium, study, music rooms, reception rooms, refectory, library, etc. The second floor will contain twenty-eight isolating and convalescing rooms, nineteen cells and three bath rooms. The third floor will have a large dormitory, toilet rooms, etc. Right Rev. Thomas D. Beaven, of Springfield, can give information. Lewis F. Carr, president of the J. S. Carr Company, cracker bakers, 79 Market street, wants estimates on steam heating, marble work, electric lighting, plumbing, etc., for a $50,000 office building now in course of erection.

At Worcester, Mass., N. F. Tucker, 308 Pleasant street, has begun work on two dwellings, one to cost $4500 and the other $6000. Mr. Tucker is the owner of one of the dwellings and Mr. Loring Powers of the other. Both will be well finished and provided with all modern conveniences. Edwin T. Chopin has prepared plans for a handsome dwelling to be erected for Irving E. Comins, the roofer manufacturer, of 63 Wellington street. It will be located at Woodland and Hawthorne streets, will contain twelve rooms and will be three stories high, of frame, finely finished throughout and provided with all modern conveniences, sanitary plumbing, tile work, plate and art glass, elevator, billiard room, gas and electric work, fresco work, etc. The estimated cost is $11,000. The general contract has been awarded to M. H. J. D. Andrews, 23 Downing street. Charles H. Lincoln, 6 Park avenue, has made plans for an attractive colonial dwelling to be erected for Arthur H. Ballard, to cost $5000. Barker & Nourse are preparing plans for a six-room addition to the Gage street school house. It will be three stories high, of brick, well finished and provided with all modern improvements. The estimated cost is about $8,000, including the furnishings. The same architects have made plans for a dwelling to be erected on Salisbury street and Whitman road for Robert W. Clifford, of Clifford & Johnson, 206 Main street. The structure will be handsomely finished throughout and will cost about $9000. Fuller, Delans & Frost are preparing plans for extensive alterations to the residence of the late Edward P. Thayer, of Keene, N. H., to fit it up for a public library in accordance with the wishes of Mr. Thayer. Rev. J. E. Tuttle, the pastor of Union Congregational Church, has bought ground at Singletary Lake, Sutton, and will erect a handsome summer cottage.

At New York, the city has appropriated $2,500 of the $125,000 which has been promised the Zoological Garden in Bronx Park. To this the Zoological Society will add $25,000, beside $105,000 donated by private individuals. One of the buildings will be started at once, and will cost $63,000. The garden comprises 261 acres in Bronx Park, and many improvements will be made. Plans have been prepared by John De Hart, 1637 Fox street, for four apartment houses to be erected for Joseph D. Jennings, 2080 Fulton avenue. They will have fronts of buff brick and brown stone, iron beams, skylights, tiling, electric work, boilers, plate glass and all modern conveniences. The cost will be about $60,000. Francis L. Ellingwood, 150 Broadway, has prepared plans for a club house, boat house, stable, servants' quarters, farm house and six cottages, to be erected at Pompton, New Jersey, for the Aareek Country Club, of which Mr. Ellingwood is president; Richard Lamb, No. 1 Broadway, secretary, and J. L. Osborne, Seventy-ninth and Amsterdam avenue, treasurer. The club house will be a two story structure, with roof garden and two pavilions on each side, steam heat, electric lights, fine interior finish, sanitary plumbing and all modern conveniences. The boat house will be one and a half stories high, and will have a capacity of sixteen boats. The cottages will be two and a half stories high, will contain eight and ten rooms each, and will cost from $3000 to $10,000 each. Six of these structures will be started at once, to be followed later by a number of others.—Edward L. Ang 108 Fulton street, has made plans for a large apartment house to be erected in West 109th street. It will be handsomely finished, and will cost about $200,000. The same architect has made plans for three stores and flats, to be erected at the southwest corner of Amsterdam avenue and 147th street.—Thomas Graham, 1238 Madison avenue, has made plans for five five-story light brick and limestone front structures which will be fitted up for apartment houses. They will be handsomely finished, ornamental iron work, mosaic tiling, wood mantels, fine bath room fixtures, steam heat and all modern conveniences. The estimated cost is $120,000.

—Harry T. Howell, 748 East 138th street, has made plans for four five-story flats, to be erected on 142d street by Charles Lane, builder, of 243 East Thirty eighth street. They will be well finished, tile work, electric work, sanitary plumbing and all modern conveniences.—Francis J. Schnugg has begun work on six three-story brick dwellings, to be erected at One Hundred and Fifty-eighth street and Lafayette boulevard. They will be handsomely finished, plate and ornamental glass, tiling, sanitary plumbing and all modern conveniences. The estimated cost is about $90,000.—Work has begun on the eight-story brick apartment house on Eighteenth street and West End avenue, and which is owned by Jno. Westervelt. The estimated cost is $3 0,000. The plans have been prepared by Henry Anderson.—Work has begun on St. Jerome's Church, 230 Alexander avenue, from plans by Delbi & Howard. It will be two stories high, brick, well finished and will cost $8 000.—Patrick H. Lynch will erect six four-story brick dwellings on the north side of 141st street, at a cost of $72,000.—Buchanan & Dreier have made plans for eight five-story brick dwellings, to be erected on the north side of 74th street, at a cost of about $180,000, for Jeremiah C. Lyon, 67 East 127th street. They will be handsomely finished, hard wood, tiling, open plumbing, fine bath room fixtures and all modern conveniences.

—Work has begun on three three-story brick dwellings, to be erected for Florence Kehoe, 518 West 183d street, from plans prepared by Edward S. Kehoe. They will be well finished, provided with modern comforts and will cost $24,000.—Daniel J. Murphy, 41 Centre street, will erect eighteen three-story dwellings on 186th street, from plans prepared by himself. They will be finely finished and the estimated cost is $81,000.

Architect Notes.

Thomas Little & Son, 217 Pear street, have started work upon the Psi Upsilon Society house, near the University of Pennsylvania grounds. Hewitt Bros., architects, made the plans, and these have been fully noted before in these columns.

John F. Stuckert & Son, architects, have on boards plans for a fine large factory, five stories and a basement. Owner's name and location withheld for the present. The structure will be of brick and supplied with freight lift and all general accommodations. Estimates will be made at once.

Milligan & Webber, architects, 520 Walnut street, have made plans for a fine three-story store and dwelling, to be erected at 620 Bainbridge street, for Alphonso Cagliarso. It will be of fancy colored brick, stone trimmings and modern conveniences on interior. Estimates will be made at once and work started.

Cope & Stewardson, architects, 320 Walnut street, have made plans for an eraticous and additions to 1025 Spruce street for Theodore Voorhes, owner. These contemplate exterior and interior work, with modern comforts and conveniences. Estimates are being made in offices of W. R. Dougherty, 1604 Sansom street.

Wilson Brothers, architects and engineers, Drexel Building, have made plans for a pump and boiler house for the U. G. I. Co., to be erected at the Point Breeze gas works, and placed them for estimate on boards of general contractors. These are to be one story high, brick, iron, stone and cement work. Bids are being made at office of Doyle & Doak, contractors, 133 South Fifteenth street.

Frank R. Watson, architect, 1208 Chestnut street, has made plans for a new Sunday school building for Temple Baptist Church, Tioga and Twenty-second streets. The structure will be of brick and stone and in keeping with the main edifice, designed some years since by Mr. Watson. Size is 44 x 66 feet, two stories and basement; the latter will contain a gymnasium; the other, classrooms and school. Estimates to be invited soon.

Willis G. Hale, 1524 Chestnut street, has made plans and specifications for very extensive alterations and additions to the Rittenhouse Apartment, at Twenty-second and Chestnut streets. The work will consist of a new front of stone and fancy brick, also a complete overhauling of the interior accommodations. The new work will include carpenter work, marble and mosaic work, plumbing of the finest system, electric work and heating, etc. The owner is William Weightman, manufacturer of drugs.

Hales & Ballinger, architects and engineers, 1200 Chestnut street, have made plans for a large factory building to be erected near Second street and Allegheny avenue, in this city. Owner's name withheld. The structure will be three story and basement, with tower at one end. The work will be of brick, stone and iron. Slag and slate roofing, large stack, boiler and engine rooms, also fittings for steam power and general machinery, lifts, etc. Every modern convenience and improvement will be introduced. Estimates are now in order at the office of the architects.

A revision of the plans for the P. E. Church of the Epiphany Parish House and Sunday school building, at Seventeenth and Summer streets, is now being made by the architect, Isaac Pursell, 119 South Fourth street, and when completed will be placed at once for new estimates by the same general contractors as before. Many of the original features, much of the material and decorations, will be retained in order to leave these structures as intended to be, a leading feature in church work in this city. It is announced that the drawings will be placed during the current week for estimate.

Hazelhurst & Huckel, architects, Girard Building, Broad and Chestnut streets, have on boards plans for alterations to the Universalist Church, Broad street and Montgomery avenue. These are for interior decorations, brass and fancy work, as well as other necessary repairs, etc. Same architects have completed plans for a house to be erected at Clayton, N. J., for J. Moore. Stone and frame, slate roof, hot air heating, electric work, and all the latest improvements. Same gentlemen are busy upon other drawings for work, which will be noted at an early day in these columns.

Addison Hulton, architect, 400 Chestnut street, has made complete plans for a new laboratory building for the Woman's Medical College, on the south side of Seybert street, west of Twenty-second. The building will be 70 x 52 feet, three stories high, granite front with Indiana lime-tone trimmings and brick work. The first floor will contain offices and museum and hygiene school; second, lecture rooms, etc.; third, schools of pathology and histology. Interior will be iron work, hard wood, marble, mosaic and electric work and all general conveniences. Estimates are now being made on the work of construction.

The erection of the "Singerly Apartment" house at Broad and Jefferson streets, northwest corner, is again being considered by those interested. An additional lot has been purchased, 1510 North Broad street, which gives additional room for breathing space and makes the total area now 200 x 130 feet deep to Carlisle street in the rear. Henry E. Creiger, the architect, who previously drew all the plans in detail, and which we noted in full at the time, is in town for the purpose of consultation with the syndicate or owners and projectors. Mr. Creiger does not indicate just when the work will be started or what would be the immediate outcome of his visit, but enough developed during the last few days to warrant us in saying that a movement towards building may be looked for at an early day.

Horace Trumbauer, architect, Land Title Building, Broad and Chestnut streets, is engaged on plans for an elegant country residence for Col. William L. Elkins, which is to be erected at Ashbourne, Pa. The structure will be of Green River stone, 166 x 80 feet, two stories high, and a Spanish tile roof. A special feature will be the main entrance hallway, reaching to the upper floors, 35 x 50 feet, of Can stone and marble, with balustrade of same. Opening from the main lower hall will be a drawing room, library, dining room and a breakfast room, a billiard room and picture gallery, 35 x 60 feet, ornamented, and which will contain the entire collection of Mr. Elkins' choice paintings. The building will be absolutely fireproof and fitted with electric work, steam heat, best system of plumbing, plate and fancy glass windows and doors, cement flooring in basement, artificial drives and walks; all general comforts and conveniences will be introduced. The main entrance will be approached by a flight of stone steps and terraces, and the grounds beautifully laid out in the most artistic skill of landscape embellishment. The work of construction will no doubt be started at an early day and be under special supervision of the architect.

Stearns & Castor, architects, Stephen Girard Building, Twelfth above Chestnut street, have orders to prepare plans for a fine residence for Dr. Marshall A. Davis, at Frankford. The structure will be brick and frame, shingle roof, and interior to have best modern improvements, steam heat, electric work, etc. Also plans for a house, to be erected at Williamsport, Pa., to be brick and frame and furnished as the above noted, costing about $5000. Owner's name withheld. Also plans for a factory for Thomas Wolstenholme, to be erected on Frankford road above Allegheny avenue. It will be 40 x 240 feet, two stories, and constructed so as to increase hereafter to five stories high; brick, stone and iron construction, with all improvements on interior. Also plans for a German Protestant Home for the Aged, on Old Soldier road, near Second street pike. It will be 40 x 130 feet, three stories high, brick and stone, slate roof, steam heat, plate glass, and every modern comfort and general convenience. Also plans for a fire station and lock up at Bldgeton, N. J. This will be of moulded brick and terra cotta ornamentation, slate roof, galvanized iron cornice, interior in hard woods, iron cell fittings, cement work, and plate glass windows. A feature will be a high tower, built at one end for lookout purposes; this, also, will be of same material as the main building.

 JOHN F. BRISBANE, City Editor.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, AUG. 10, 1898.

The following opinions kindly furnished at our request by Mr. William Gorman, attorney-at-law, will, we think, conclusively settle the greatly discussed question of rent receipts.

Stamps on Rent Receipts.

THE OBLIGATION OF LANDLORD AND TENANT TO AFFIX AND PAY FOR CONSIDERED.

To the Real Estate Record:

In the interest of your numerous readers, dealing almost exclusively with real estate matters, you have asked me to give you, for their benefit, my views upon a ruling of Commissioner Scott, holding that in the absence of a signed lease that a receipt for rent must be stamped as a memorandum contract. Where the commissioner gets his authority or law for such a construction I fail to see. The only section of the law bearing upon the subject is as follows:

"A lease, agreement, memorandum or contract for the hire, use or rent of any land, tenement or portion thereof. If for a period of time not exceeding one year, twenty-five cents. If for a period of time exceeding one year and not exceeding three years, fifty cents. If for a period exceeding three years, one dollar."

If the makers of the law had intended to make receipts for rent taxable they would have said so; as they did not do so there can be no tax imposed by the commissioner.

What the law means and will be construed to mean when the proper authority passes on its construction (if ever necessary to do so) is that a lease is taxable because it is a contract of hiring between landlord and tenant, and the terms are defined by the instrument itself, whether for a year, two years or three.

A memorandum in the nature of a lease, stating terms of letting, etc., is taxable for the same reason, and any contract in the nature of a lease, stating the terms of letting etc., is taxable as a lease, and for the same reason, but a receipt is neither a lease nor memorandum of letting or a contract in the nature of a lease or letting, and is therefore not taxable.

A receipt for rent will not show for how long the house is rented, the terms of letting or anything but simply a receipt for money paid, and that such money is paid for one, two or three months' rent is of no moment. Should the receipt go on to state the terms of letting to be for a year, a month or any other conditions of a lease, then it is a lease, a memorandum or contract, and the terms being set out it would be taxable as such, a lease, a memorandum or contract of hiring.

A receipt pure and simple in any case is not demandable as a right, but is given for the accommodation of the party paying; it means simply that such an amount of money is paid, but has not the first element of a contract, lease or memorandum of letting of real estate.

Commissioner Scott's ruling is evidently based upon the assumption that a receipt is a memorandum contract, and that such contracts must be stamped, and in this way (if he has given such an opinion) he has fallen into the error complained of.

WILLIAM GORMAN,
 Stephen Girard Building, Philadelphia.

THE financial columns of the daily journals emphasize the daily volume of bond buying as enormous and as an evidence of greatly improved business conditions. Of course, in this respect, much would depend upon its inside meaning, but it is safe to conclude that conservative investors, who are controlled altogether by a sense of safety, would not seek low interest bearing railroad bonds at high prices were they not satisfied that the future business conditions of the country justified it.

A prosperous business for the steam railroads means prosperity for the whole country, and, while enormous sums are being daily placed permanently in railroad securities, the volume of uninvested capital is far beyond any similar experience the country has ever enjoyed.

As an evidence of this aggregation of capital it is stated that in New York State alone the resources of the trust companies, during the first six months of the present year, increased $43,344,608, and those of the savings banks nearly $50,000,000. This statement is said to be official and to be relied on.

Thus an accumulation of quite a hundred millions of dollars in only two branches of the financial institutions of a single State in half a year can be very justly taken as indicative of the financial condition of a large part of the country.

How much greater influence upon this accretion Europe will have, when its indebtedness to this country is paid in full, is a question of figures only.

The New York Record and Guide, while speaking upon the question of bond investments, says:

"It is, therefore, not surprising if the markets are scraped over and over again for secure and paying investments. Under no other conditions would it be possible for the new railroad four per cents., which have become such favorites with investors, to occupy the position they do. The old Atchison 4s, which were always well considered until the property lien got into the hands of bad managers, never sold higher than 89 in the best of times. The new 4s on the same property, improved somewhat, it must be admitted, in the matter of property lien, are now selling above 95, and may go to par. And so it is with others, which are steadily bought as if there was nothing else in the world to buy and with the certainty of making only moderate returns on the invested money. The scarcity of good railroad bonds is due, in a considerable degree, to the restrictions that were put upon railroad extensions for some years past. When quotations were very much lower than what they are now we pointed out this fact to our readers, over and over again, and drew attention to the excellent position this would give railroad securities whenever business became good. The business has been good for some time, and the results to securities are exactly what we predicted. Now with prices advanced so much in the well-known issues, it is hard to see how they can go much higher, and it would be better, we think, to watch for favorable developments in the less known ones and for new issues of promise, which the confidence and enterprise of the country are sure to produce from time to time, than to continually force up quotations that are already unprecedently high."

THE Exhibition Department of the Master Builders' Exchange, 24 South Seventh street, in this city, has issued a neat pamphlet explanatory of the various points of interest and exhibits presented. It is in itself a perfect compendium of information for builders, and those desiring to select material for that purpose, in the rough as well as finished. The book also presents letters of warm endorsement of the exhibit from the leading architects of the city and State, which speak for themselves. Copies can be had by simply addressing the Superintendent, William H. Matthews, as above noted.

The Ledger says:

"The Red Cross Society is our army's efficient ally in Cuba. But for it the suffering and death among the troops would be far greater than they are. The Red Cross receives no aid from the Government, and has nothing to do with politics.

Tobacco is badly needed. Contributions are now forwarded by the railroads and steamship companies at 25 per cent. discount for car load lots and 15 per cent. discount on smaller lots."

From the Medical News.

The startlingly brilliant events which have characterized the present war with Spain have provoked the comment that we, as a nation, are making history fast, and we have laid the flattering unction to our souls not only that we are making history fast, but that we are writing it in letters which are large. It must not be forgotten, however, that the facts upon which the philosophy of history depends are frequently found in the foot notes. The foot notes which ultimately determine the picture of this war are now rapidly coming in. First, the Seneca, with its mortifying tale of wretchedness and incompetency; then the Alamo, with its confirmation of all that the Seneca presaged, and finally the Onocho, which bears its testimony of reckless incompetency and seals the judgment of the nation that the glory of our arms in battle has been sullied by incompetency, due to political favoritism at the seat of government.

The sad record of the transports has called attention to the condition at the front, and we find that the story of the neglect of the sick and wounded does not begin with the log of these vessels, but, commencing with the fighting men in the trenches, who were ill supplied with even the plainest army rations, and going back to the dressing stations and the field hospitals, all the way down to the permanent hospitals on the coast, we find the dark trail of incompetency, lack of organization and absence of the commonest precautions against the casualties which attend a military invasion. In reviewing the events of this brief campaign there appears to be an utter lack of administrative ability, and the conduct of affairs, instead of being characterized by military precision and discipline, shows a degree of disorder and confusion amounting almost to chaos. The responsibility for this seems to lie wholly at the door of him who placed a sick man in command of this campaign, and supported him with quartermasters and commissary officers who were unequal to their duties. Every one, both wounded and sick, as well as observing civilians and commanding officers, testify to the indomitable devotion to duty and capacity for work shown by the army surgeons in their efforts to care for the sick and wounded.

In their emergency chests, which the army surgeons themselves had sufficient foresight to insist should go with them everywhere, stimulants, antiseptics, first aid dressings and surgical instruments were at hand to enable them to do their surgical work and meet pressing emergencies. One of Surgeon Senn testified to the fact that he personally operated in all the field hospitals and always found the essential antiseptics and dressing material required in military practice. "At no time was there lack of stimulants or anesthetics." It was after the surgeons and the dressers had done their work that the shameful neglect began. Tents and blanket supplies were inadequate. It is true that many of the wounded soldiers arrived at the field hospitals stripped of much of their clothing, which had not been replaced after passing through the hands of the field surgeons at the bandaging stations just back of the battle line, where the clothing was removed for the purpose of examining or treating wounds. The supply of extra clothing or blankets was quickly exhausted, and many of the half naked, wounded soldiers were obliged to lie all night on the wet grass and water soaked ground half naked as they were.

Architect Notes.

Sparks & Evans, contractors, 20 South Broad street, have the contract for the bridge at Van Kirk street, over the Philadelphia & Trenton Branch of the Pennsylvania R. R. Previously noted.

Hales & Ballinger, architects, 1200 Chestnut street, are making detailed plans for alterations and additions of one story to a rear building of Partridge & Richardson, Eighth above Market street.

P. P. Elkington, architect, 211 South Sixth street, has made plans for eight stores and brick buildings, to be erected at Atlantic City, N. J., for a private owner. These will be fitted with all conveniences for a seaside home.

J. F. Stuckert & Son, architects, 49 North Thirteenth street, have awarded the contract for the factory building, to be erected at Fourth and Berks streets, to J. Rush Whitesides & Sons; work to start at once. Cost, about $15,000, and has been fully noted in this journal.

Furness, Evans & Co., architects, Provident Life Building, Fourth and Chestnut streets, have awarded Jacob Myers & Sons, contractors, the building of the Axel Petre residence, on Johnson street, Germantown. It is to be of local stone, 50 x 33 feet, three stories high, and all modern comforts on interior. Noted in full in our issue of July 13th.

Contractors are now being invited to make estimates on the new Children's Homeopathic Hospital, to be erected at Franklin and Thompson streets, after plans by Keen & Mead, architects, Crozier Building, 1420 Chestnut street. It is to be 54 x 88 feet, three stories high, brick, with white marble trimmings, marble steps and columns in front, and galvanized iron balustrade, steel frame and absolutely a fireproof interior construction. The interior will be well divided into wards, private rooms and nurses' quarters, offices, lecture rooms, operative and examination rooms, etc. Previously noted in these columns.

The entire country is to be controlled by a trust in its wall paper manufacturing interest. Prices will no doubt be greatly increased.

William Christy & Son, contractors, are engaged in making alterations to the public school on Third below Pine streets. These are chiefly interior work.

Stacey Reeves & Sons, contractors, will make alterations to the Drexel Building, on the Library street front, below Fifth street. The work will be a new stone entrance and minor details.

Alexander Miller & Sons will at once start building nine two-story dwellings of brick and brown stone, on east side of F street above Potter. These are to be 15 x 44 feet, furnace heat, ranges and best conveniences, etc.

George W. Sherman, builder, will at once erect fourteen dwellings, 16 x 58 feet, 1231 to 1257 North Fifty-third street, at a total cost of $25,200. These are to be of fancy brick fronts, stone facings and interior to contain all the improvements, etc.

Harry T. Saunders, contractor and builder, 230 North Twenty-second street, has bought a large tract of land between Sixty-third and Sixty-fourth streets and Haverford avenue on the south, and intends in the near future to build quite an operation of dwellings on the site.

The supervising architect of the U. S. Treasury Department received twenty-seven bids for the construction of the new buildings on Ellis Island for an immigrant station. The bids ranged from $467,000, the lowest, to $683,000, the highest. R. H. Hood & Co. were the lowest.

Henry C. Dahl, contractor, will erect at once an addition to the U. S. Quartermasters stores, Broad street and Washington avenue. It will be four stories high, 30 x 30 feet, and of brick, iron and stone work, with all general conveniences on the interior. Joseph A. Robbins is the owner.

Charles B. Prettyman, builder, Broad and Catharine streets, will at once start building thirteen dwellings on west side of Seventeenth street below Jackson, each to be 15 x 55 feet, of brick and stone trimmings, furnace heat, electric work, best plumbing and general conveniences, etc.

William Steele & Sons, contractors, 506 Walnut street, have a contract to build an additional mill at Jasper and Somerset streets for the proprietors of the Orinoko Mills. It will be 58 x 116 feet, of brick, stone and iron construction, and fitted with all conveniences, freight lift, steam power and heat, and cost $17,000.

James Doyle, contractor, 878 North Forty-sixth street, has started to build a three-story stone extension, 25 x 68 feet, to the residence of Archbishop Ryan, 225 North Eighteenth street. Also some minor alterations will be made to the main residence. All the latest modern conveniences will be introduced throughout.

Thomas M. Seeds, Jr., has the contract to erect two handsome stone front dwellings on Pulaski avenue, southeast of Hansbury street. These will be 20 x 57 feet, three-story, and contain all the latest improvements on interior. Mr. Seeds will erect one on his own account in the same vicinity and chiefly of the same character as those noted above.

George F. Payne & Co., contractors, 401 South Juniper street, have been given a permit to begin the erection of the U. G. I. Co. office building, at the northwest corner of Broad and Arch streets. Cost, $490,000. Previously noted in full in these columns. Wilson Brothers, architects, Drexel Building, will supervise the work of construction.

John Welsh, contractor, has just started to build a new three-story hotel upon the site of the old one in Paschallville, known to have been erected in the Revolutionary days and recently owned by the Kane estate. The present owner is John Kane and heir. It is to be of stone and brick, 23 x 84 feet, and will contain all modern conveniences on interior.

Hand & Wilson, builders and owners, will at once begin an operation of fifteen houses with porch fronts, 16 x 47 feet, two stories high, on west side of Aberdeen street, north of Jefferson street. Fifteen more will soon be put up in same vicinity by same builders. All to be of fancy brick fronts, plate glass windows, all modern comforts, ranges, boilers, closets, etc.

Italian Marble Mosaic Co., 431 Spruce street, have the contracts for supplying all the marble mosaic floors for the Blind Asylum, at Overbrook, Pa.; new hotel at Fifteenth and Walnut streets; Pennock Brothers' store, 1514 Chestnut street; Hamilton & Diesinger's store, 1208 Chestnut street, and Church of the Holy Spirit, Eleventh and Snyder avenue.

L. H. Focht, contractor, of Reading, Pa., has just received the award to erect the new barn for Mr. A. J. Cassatt, at Chesterbrook Farms. The plans are by Furness Evans & Co., and call for one of the largest and best buildings of the kind in this country. It will be of stone, brick and iron and furnished with special care on interior. Cement work, hard wood stalls, sanitary plumbing, electric work, etc.

Roydhouse, Arey & Co., contractors, are still making alterations to the residence of Alexander Van Rensselaer, at Camp Hill, and will not complete the work before about October 1st. The work, as previously noted, will include two separate wings, of Chestnut Hill stone, containing a breakfast hall, ball room and dining room. All will be highly embellished, after plans and sketches by Frank Miles Day & Brother, well known architects of this city.

John R. Wiggins, general contractor, 1220 Filbert street, has been awarded the contract to build the new residence for Walter A. Bailey, at Fifteenth and Master streets, which has been fully noted previously in this journal. Plans were made by Messrs. Hazlhurst & Huckel, architects, Girard Building, Broad and Chestnut streets. It is to be 20 x 36 feet, and four stories high, of brick and terra cotta work and contain all general accommodations. Cost, $20,000.

Charles D. Morley, builder, 1420 Chestnut street, will soon begin the erection of 330

A company has been formed in Germantown to build a new trolley line, to be known as the Germantown and Fairmount Park Railroad Company, which is intended to put the metropolis of the Twenty-second ward in closer connection with the Falls of Schuylkill, Manayunk and that portion of the city west of the Wissahickon. Operated by the Union Traction Company, whose tracks on Cheltenham avenue it is proposed to use from Old York road to Pulaski avenue. The new company will build along the latter thoroughfare to Penn street, to King street, to Queen street, to Wissahickon avenue and to Ridge avenue, at the Falls of Schuylkill. The officers and directors of the new road are: President, Charles E. Morgan, Jr.; secretary and treasurer, William Selfridge; directors, William Rotch Wister, William G. Warden, Jr.; Josiah M. Bacon, Samuel T. Bodine, Joseph Bushnell, Richard Ashurst, William Wharton, Jr.

In New York Justice Russell, in the Supreme Court, has granted the application of an auctioneer for a peremptory mandamus requiring the City Clerk to issue an auctioneer's license without the payment of the $250 fee imposed by Chapter 682 of the Laws of 1897. The decision was based upon the view that the license provisions of the act named were superseded by those of Chapter 378 of the Laws of 1897, known commonly as the Charter of Greater New York. It was also the view of the Court that Section 6 of Chapter 682 of the Laws of 1897, which makes the auctioneer's bonds prior liens to all other liens or conveyances, or encumbrances upon the property of sureties, is not in force, being destroyed by the power of Chapter 378, Laws of 1897, taking effect at a subsequent date. This decision, until reversed by a higher court, gives an auctioneer a right to a license on giving a $2000 bond, and removes the cloud that may exist on a surety's realty by reason of his being on the bond.—N. Y. R. E.

Through Pennsylvania.

When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Carbondale, Lackawanna county, common council is considering the question of sewer construction.

—At Oil City, Venango county, work will begin as soon as possible on the proposed new high school building, for which plans are preparing by a number of Pittsburgh architects.

—At Pottstown, Montgomery county, the large barn of the Glasgow Iron Company was destroyed by fire last week.

—At Washington, Washington county, court house bonds for $5,000 have been sold to pay for the proposed new court house.

—At Fayette City, Fayette county, the Johnston Coal Mining Company will erect works. Address H. M. Lawrence, vice president.

—At Beaver, Beaver county, the contract for a pumping station and reservoir has been awarded to Simon Harold, of Beaver Falls, for $80,000.

—At Edison, Bucks county, the large stone barn belonging to Arthur Schuyler was destroyed by fire not long since. The estimated loss is $5,000.

—At South Bethlehem, Northampton county, the proposition to issue bonds to the amount of $100,000 for a sewage system has been defeated.

—At Pottsville, Schuylkill county, a few days since, fire destroyed the Keis r Casket and Furniture Company's plant. The loss is estimated at $25,000.

—At Haverford, Montgomery county, a few days since, fire destroyed the unoccupied dwelling owned by C. W. Farr. The estimated loss is about $500.

—At Lansdowne, Delaware county, plans have been accepted and work will soon begin on the new Roman Catholic Church to be erected at Baltimore and Gibbons avenue.

—At Reading, Berks county, John H. Kiegel will erect two brick dwellings on Front street, between Washington and Walnut streets. They will be two stories high, with mansard roofs and will be well finished throughout.

—At Millinburg, Union county, the contract for the erection of a church has been awarded to E. Miller, of Millinburg. The estimated cost is $20,000. C. L. McConnell is the pastor and can give information.

—At Collegeville, Montgomery county, George Smith has sold his hotel property near the railroad to William Stroud. The price paid was $11,600. Mr. Stroud will remove from Telford and take possession at once.

—At Lancaster, Lancaster county, the City Council will be asked to pass an ordinance providing for an appropriation of $250,000 for improvements to the water works. These will include a new pump and filter and changes to the standpipe. Mayor Shissler can give information.

—At Sewickley, Allegheny county, the Central District and Printing Telegraph Company, of Pittsburg, will erect a telephone exchange at Sewickley. It will be of brick and stone, well finished and equipped and will cost about $15,000.

—At Mosgrove, Armstrong county, the contract for the bridge to cross the Allegheny river at Mosgrove has been awarded to the Keystone Bridge Works Department of the Carnegie Steel Company. It will be 1600 feet long and will cost about $150,000.

Architect Notes.

The drawings for the residence to be erected for Colonel W. L. Elkins, at Ashbourne, Pa., by Horace Trumbauer, architect, and duly noted in a previous issue of this journal, are now on boards of contractors for estimates. The plans and specifications are quite elaborate and may be seen at No. 10 North Eleventh street, office of Charles McCaul.

William L. Price, architect, 731 Walnut street, has made plans for a new building for Young Friends' Association, to be erected at Fifteenth and Cherry streets, and placed the drawings for estimates in office of K. C. Balinger & Co., 218 North Thirteenth street. It will be four stories high, brick, stone and iron construction and fitted throughout with all conveniences. This work was noted in the issue of June 15th, current year.

Edwin F. Durang, archt, 1200 Chestnut street, will prepare all plans for the new collegiate and monastery buildings to be erected for the Augustinian Order, at Villa Nova College, Pa. It is too early to give a thorough idea of the new buildings, but they are to be in keeping with the present institution, large, and furnished in detail with all general improvements. Stone, brick and iron will be the principal materials used. Steam heat and electric appliances introduced. Fuller details as plans develop.

James H. Windrim, architect, 1107 Walnut street, has made plans for a soldiers and sailors monument, to be erected in Fairmount Park, in accordance with provisions of will of the late Richard Smith. It will be 55 feet in width and 129 feet high, of granite, and the faces on each side filled with statues and bust figures of government soldiers and sailors of the late rebellion. The whole surmounted by an equestrian figure as indicated by the testator. Work will be started as soon as contract has been awarded.

During the current week contractors have been busy upon estimates for the West End Trust Company's new building, to be erected at Broad and Penn squares, southwest corner, after plans by Furness, Evans & Co., architects, and which have been very frequently noted in these columns. Bids have previously been made, but after consideration it is likely the entire work will be awarded to one general contractor. The number of stories, material and general construction will be as previously indicated in this journal.

Edgar V. Seeler, architect, 328 Chestnut street, has made plans for a fine stable to be erected at 1331 Hamling street (formerly Ann street), this city, for Frank H. Weyth. This structure will be four stories high, brick laid in Flemish bond, granite trimmings, cut stone work, steel structural work; interior will contain a large elevator for stable purposes, concrete work and artificial floors and paving. Slag roofing, tile work, a portable furnace with heat vents and registers, water supply and drainage, etc. Estimates being made in office of Doyle & Doak, contractors, 133 South Fifteenth street.

Frank R. Watson, architect, 1208 Chestnut street, has prepared plans for remodeling and extending stores at Frankford, for Mr. Jos. L. Kinkert. Large plate glass bulks, electric work, etc., will be introduced. The upper floors will be fitted for society purposes, and floors will be made to suit tenants as desired. All modern conveniences will be placed. Steam heat may be introduced, but not contemplated at present.

H. L. Spicer, architect, 326 Fifty-sixth street, Brooklyn, N. Y., has plans ready for a glass furnace and tin stamping plant, 200 x 400 feet in dimensions, two stories high, of stone and brick construction. Mr. Spicer uses estimates at once on the following materials: 1,250,000 hard brick, 50,000 fire brick, 15,000 barrels lime, 800 barrels cement, abut 1,000,000 feet of yellow pine and spruce timber, 200,000 feet N. C. roof boards, 600 window and door frames, also sash and doors, 100,000 feet N. C. ceiling, 100,000 feet slate, 50 tons bolts, 50 tons nails. Corrected list and information at the office of the architect, 326 Fifty-sixth street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

David Knickerbacker Boyd, architect, Harrison Building, Fifteenth and Market streets, has prepared plans for extensive alterations and additions to the large livery stable at Wayne, Delaware Co., Pa. The work proposed will include a general overhauling of the present building and an extension in rear, elevators, electric lights, plumbing, flooring, stall of the most approved system, and all general conveniences. The same architect announces that Milton W. Young, of Overbrook, will be given the contract to erect the new residence of Col. Theo. Wiedersheim, at St. David's, a description of which has been given in these columns previously. Mr. Boyd has other work in progress, which we shall note at an early day.

Thomas P. Lonsdale, architect, Manhattan Life Building, Fourth and Walnut streets, has made complete plans for a new church building for Mizpah Presbyterian congregation, to be erected at Eighth and Wolf streets. The structure will be of either stone or brick; estimates to be made for both. 74 x 121 feet, slate roof, electric work, steam heat, hard wood pews and all upholstery and general furnishing of a structure for worship. Estimates are now being made in offices of general contractors. Also for the two remaining factory buildings to be erected for the Potter Oil Cloth Works, recently destroyed by fire. These are to be five stories high, of brick, stone trimmings, steam power and heat, freight lifts, electric work, sanitary plumbing, cement work; all general improvements and conveniences will be introduced. The above have been previously noted in this journal.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

John Stafford, 16 6 Susquehanna avenue, the well known builder, has bought ground at Forty-first street and Parkside avenue, 148½ x 532 feet, which he expects to improve soon by erecting houses thereon.

All plans are now ready in the Survey Bureau for the new reservoir to be erected on a site yet to be selected on or near George's Hill, Fairmount Park. The matter of selection will be taken up in session of the Special Committee in about ten days or two weeks.

Mr. John Young, a wealthy resident of Atlantic City, N. J., says he intends to make many improvements in property adjoining the boardwalk and between New York and Tennessee avenues. It is his purpose to raze all the low shanties and small cottages in that vicinity and open a new street with fine cottages and structures fireproof in character. Also he proposes to rebuild the old pier of iron and remodel the dancin' g pavilion in centre by placing a hard wood floor and other needful improvements.

Thomas M. Seeds, Jr., has started erecting the new three-story and basement fire station at Second and Quarry streets. The plans for this building were noted in full some time ago in this journal. It will be 30 x 70 feet, of brick and stone, and furnished with every late convenience for that kind of building. Same contractor and builder is about starting two pair of twin houses at Pulaski avenue and Hanbury street, which are to be of local stone, with peaked shingle roofs, plate glass windows and doors; hard wood interior finish, best plumbing and modern improvements and comforts throughout.

The Philadelphia Loan and Realty Corporation, with offices in the Land Title Building, Broad and Chestnut streets, has purchased of J. Hamp on Moore and Francis Fenimore, owners, all of the land around Edgewood Lake, at St. David's, Pa., recently owned by the Fenimores, and which has been somewhat improved by the late owners. The purchasing party are a syndicate of which the officers are capitalists, as follows: President, John J. W. Reynolds, New York; first vice president, B. E. Small, New York; second vice president, J. D. Rishell, Philadelphia, and treasurer, Charles A. Wilson, Philadelphia. The consideration approximated $150,000. This corporation intends at once erecting quite a number of fine suburban homes, embellished by handsome grounds, walks and roads graded, drainage improved, etc., for which plans are now being prepared. The large lake in the centre is to be utilized to benefit all purchasers of houses.

JOHN N. GALLAGHER, Publisher.
JOHN F. BRISBANE, City Editor.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, AUG. 17, 1898.

A former resident of Santiago gives, among his impressions of that city, the following peculiarities: "One feature of Santiago's architecture which has not been referred to, but which I hold distinctive of the city, is the absence of glass. Unlike Havana, there appears never to have been a glazier at work in Santiago, except in some of the modern stores. The shutters at the windows of the houses are of wood, with little gratings which open on hinges. This absence of glass is a detail which would be likely to catch the attention of the visitor. Life in the city is conducted on a leisurely plan. Except in the small retail shops, chiefly those where wines and tobacco are sold, there is an entire cessation of business from eleven to one o'clock. Two hours for luncheon and a siesta is the rule in all the retail and wholesale stores. Nearly every one rides horseback in getting about the town, and one of the uses of the knocker on the door is that of a hitching ring. It is a curious sight to see horses tied to the front doors of restaurants and casinos during the busy hours of the day." —Exchange.

In architecture, as in other professions, the tendency has been to divide up and specialize the different departments of both work and design. This feature has been specially fostered by the great office buildings, modern hotels and great public buildings, especially those devoted to hospitals, sanitariums, asylums, etc. In these structures the requirements for heating, ventilation, plumbing, sanitation and iron construction call for an accuracy and extent of knowledge not possessed by the ordinary practitioner, to say nothing of the impossibility of his giving his time to all the details of this character entering into the design and construction of a large modern building. To meet these demands a class of engineers have grown up who devote their time to each special branch. As for example the sanitary engineer, the heating engineer, the iron constructor, the electrical engineer, etc. In this multiplicity of specialties the architect is too often prone to feel that there is little occasion for him to give his time and attention to such details, and more unfortunate even than that, his clients (and in this, this class of specialists encourage them) are liable to feel that the architect knows little of these subjects. We say "unfortunate" with a full comprehension of its meaning, for not all structures, nor even any large proportion of them, are the mammoth buildings requiring such an array of specialists. But few architectural offices enjoy the luxury of designing million dollar buildings, but their work more generally lies in smaller structures, yet those requiring often heating plants, sanitary arrangements and electrical equipment, all of which, for the lack of unlimited funds for the employment of specialists, must come under the supervision of the architect and require of him a considerable knowledge of all these branches of industry. Where the working of a building requires a large engine plant and complication of machinery often equal to the outfit of a factory, a mechanical engineer is doubtless necessary, but it does not therefore follow that every building where elevators or other machinery may be employed is beyond the capacity of an intelligent architect, or that the plumbing is so complicated that a sanitary engineer must be called in consultation. Such impressions as to the competency of architects are wrong and disadvantageous to the profession. So far from its being true the large share of practitioners are intelligent about the equipment of ordinary buildings and capable of advising their clients as to what is best under ordinary circumstances to select for their heating plants, electrical equipment or best plumbing and sanitary arrangements, and this must manifestly continue to be the case. Specialization in building must be the exception and be confined to the exceptionally large buildings erected in our great cities, but the smaller buildings and the structures in our smaller cities must depend upon the general knowledge of the architect, and his competency will be found equal to the occasion or to recognition of the need of the specialist should conditions demand his employ. —Exchange.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

John Wanamaker will at once begin constructing a ladies waiting room facing on Market street front of the Grand Depot. It will be of hard wood, quite ornamental in design and contain all comforts.

The competitive plans for the high school to be erected in Camden, N. J., are to be received and considered August 30th, by C. Sheperd, chairman, and building committee of board of school directors. Previously noted.

Board of Directors Master Builders' Exchange held a business meeting on the 10th inst. and transacted only routine matters that needed their attention at this time. The Exchange is in a most flourishing condition and alive to the interest of the building fraternity in general.

John Harris, builder and owner, will at once start the erection of sixty two-story dwellings on the north and south sides of Greenway avenue, between Sixtieth and Sixty-first streets, which are to be Pompeian brick, porches in front, all modern conveniences on interior.

Lewis Havens, contractor, Girard Building, Broad and Chestnut streets, has the contract to rebuild the property 119 Market street, formerly occupied by the McCadden Brothers, and destroyed by fire. It will be four stories high and built of brick, stone and iron, with all conveniences. Work will start at once.

J. Fred. Deitrich, 306 Frankford avenue, is now considering the bids on the new factory building to be erected at Second street and Allegheny avenue. The drawings were made, as previously announced, by J. F. Stuckert & Son, architects, 49 North Thirteenth street. Fully described in a former issue.

Armstrong & Printzenhoff, contractors, will at once begin to erect the new wharf and shed for the Baltimore and Philadelphia Steamboat Company, No 7 South Wharves, Delaware river. The size will be 65 x 520 feet, wood frame, corrugated iron covering. An office will be fitted at one end for the company.

Stacey Reeves & Sons, general contractors, 1611 Filbert street, are taking sub-estimates on a station and freight platform to be built at Packerton, Pa., for the Lehigh Valley Railroad. It will be 72 x 302 feet, one-story and of fireproof construction. Plans made by F. C. Roberts & Co., engineers, 323 Chestnut street.

W. F. Albrecht, owner and builder, will at once start an operation of sixty eight dwellings, at Lehigh avenue and Twenty-sixth street, also on Silver and Steiner streets, east of Twenty-sixth. All the above are to be of fancy brick fronts, stone trimmings, hard woods on interior, furnace heat, ranges and boilers. The total cost of this work will be $49,700.

A. & G. Bohem, Fifteenth and Federal streets, have the contract for all the galvanized iron work on fifty-five two-story houses at Twenty-ninth and Wharton streets, for Mr. M. E. O'Brien; also the roofing, bay windows and oriels on store building at Eighteenth and South streets, for Mr. Hogan, and galvanized iron work on church at Thirtieth and Spruce streets.

The plans for the lock tenders house at Fairmount Dam are again on boards of contractors for estimates. Also the drawings, previously noted in these columns, for an addition and alteration to the Church of the Messiah, Broad and Montgomery avenue. These are by Hazelhurst & Huckel, architects, and may be seen in office of Thomas Little & Son, contractors, 217 Pear street.

Mr. F. D. Williams is placing gas ranges and gas water heaters in all the houses of his operation at Nineteenth and Venango streets. All of the makes are approved by the United Gas Improvement Company, who make the connections free of cost. Mr. W. F. Dillon, building at Forty-ninth and Baltimore avenue, also has contracted to put gas ranges of the United Gas Improvement Company's approved makes in all of his sixty-two houses.

Collections promptly attended to.
Correspondence Solicited.

Plans are now in office of Charles McCaul, No. 10 North Eleventh street, for the new pier of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad, above Callowhill street, and which will be extended to the extreme water line. The structure will be 150 x 542 feet and one-story high. The numbers is 23 and 24 North Wharves. Estimates are now in order. It will be frame and covered with galvanized corrugated iron.

Thomas P. Twibill, operative builder, Betz Building, has started an operation of fine dwellings on the site of the old Peoples Amusement Park, York and Thirty-third street and Ridge avenue. This work was fully noted some time ago in these columns. It will be of fancy brick and stone trimmings, unique designs and every modern comfort and convenience on interior, including furnace heaters, ranges, electric work, hard wood and tile work, etc.

It is understood the plans for the super structure of the U. S. Mint, at Sixteenth and Spring Garden streets will soon be placed on boards of contractors for estimate, as the foundations are about being completed under the supervision of Allen B. Rorke, the well known general contractor. The details and specifications will be very elaborate and are approaching completion under J. Knox Taylor, supervising a chief of the treasury department. Plans for eastern wing of the Real Estate Trust Company's building, now being constructed at the southeast corner of Broad and Chestnut streets, are also approaching completion and will soon be before contractors for estimate. These are by Seeler & Robers, associate architects, Brown Brothers Building, Fourth and Chestnut streets, and have been fully noted in these columns. In regard to the contemplated office structure to be erected by William Weightman, opposite the present mint site on Chestnut street, the drawings have been completed by the architects and are being considered in detail by Mr. Weightman, and work may be ordered to proceed at an early day. These three great buildings, with many others of a minor character now under way, starting or about to begin active operations, indicate a busy fall season. Among the latter may be noted the United Gas Improvement Company's office building, Broad and Arch streets; Children's Homeopathic Hospital, Thompson and Franklin streets, now being estimated on; Women's Medical College addition, also under the same process. Now that the turmoil of war has ceased there is renewed agitation of work, which had to an extent been laid over until decisive action had been concluded in our favor. This consummation has been reached and we anticipate good results in the near future.

Through Pennsylvania.

When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Steelton, Dauphin county, the subject of a sewer system is under consideration.

—At Corry, Erie county, the contract for the proposed new high school has been awarded to J. A. Nixon, of Titusville, Pa., for $21,555.

—At Easton, Northampton county, a franchise has been granted to the Easton, Palmer and Bethlehem Street Railway Company.

—At Warrington, Bucks county, the barn and various outbuildings on the farm of Henry Arnold were destroyed by fire last week. Loss, $500.

—At Stroudsburg, Monroe county, a few days since, fire destroyed the large tannery erected in 1850, and owned by Captain Bennett. The estimated loss is about $50,000, on which there was an insurance of $32,000.

—At Tonkhanock, Wyoming county, it is said that the contract for the Mehojany bridge has been let to the Oswego Bridge Company for $36,000.

—At Doylestown, Bucks county, the barn on the farm of Charles Scheetz, near Keller's Church, was destroyed by fire not long since. The estimated loss is $3,000.

—At Pottsville, Schuylkill county, the hotel of James Weber, near Jefferson, Schuylkill county, was destroyed by fire last week. The estimated loss is $2000.

—At Mauch Chunk, Carbon county, the country residence of Frederick Myers, in Penn Forrest township, was destroyed by fire, last week. The estimated loss is about $4000.

—At Wilkesbarre, Luzerne county, it is said that plans have been completed by McCormick & French for the asylum to be erected at Retreat for the insane of the Central Poor District.

—At Greensburg, Westmoreland county, it is said that the plans of Beezer Bros. of Altoona, Pa., have been accepted by the Westmoreland Hospital Association for a new building to cost $15,000.

—At Berlin, Somerset county, a company has been incorporated, to be known as the Berlin Electric Light Company. The directors are W. S. Matthews, of Berlin; H. F. Barron, of Somerset, and others.

—At Duquesne, Allegheny county, the question of the erection of an electric light plant is under consideration. An estimate of the cost has been made by S. A. Taylor, engineer, Schmidt Building, Pittsburg, Pa., and been placed at about $6500.

—At Oakmont, Allegheny county, it is stated that a special election will be held at once to vote on the question of issuing bonds to the amount of $65,000, of which $41,000 are designed for sewers, and the remainder for street improvements.

—At Boyertown, Bucks county, the Boyertown Borough Council has secured the option on the forty acre farm of Samuel Wise, which is said to contain a number of valuable springs of water. Steps will be taken to convey this water into the town as part of the water supply.

—At West Chester, Chester county, E. R. & W. H. Griffith have begun work on two attractive dwellings, to be erected at Dean and Darlington streets, for I. Maurice Wynn and E. L. McKinstry, respectively. They will be well finished and supplied with all modern conveniences and improvements, and will cost about $3000 each.

—At Hallstead, Susquehanna county, it is probable that steps will be taken to light Hallstead, Great Bend and New Milford by the Scranton Electric Light Company. The estimated cost is about $25,000. F. J. Platt, Commonwealth Building, Scranton, Pa., is the engineer in charge. B. F. Bernstein, of Hallstead, is interested in the enterprise.

—At Lancaster, Lancaster county, steps have been taken toward the organization of a company, to be called the Lancaster Steel Company. The capital is $400,000. Charles James, of Tacony, is at the head of the company. The Lancaster Board of Trade has taken the matter up and citizens have promised a tract of land for a site and bricks for the proposed buildings.

—At Lansdowne, Delaware county, an ordinance has been approved by council and burgess to borrow $15,000 for street improvements. A vote will be taken by the people in a short time in order that the work may begin as soon as possible.—Contractor Edgar T. Bishop has begun work on the erection of thirty dwellings on Kenney's Lane, Lansdowne Heights. All of these will be finely finished throughout and provided with all modern conveniences and improvements.

—At Reading, the Building Committee of the School Board, has examined plans for enlarging the Boys' High School, prepared by Smith, Mublenberg & Bro., & Head. No decision has as yet been made as to the selection of plans. Work will begin on these improvements as soon as plans have been selected.—The paving bill has been passed by both branches of city council and signed by Mayor Weidel. A meeting of the Board of Public Works was held a few days since, and it was decided to advertise for bids at once. The contract will be awarded as soon as possible, that work may begin without further delay.—Samuel Frescoln, of Philadelphia, has been awarded the contract to lay about 38,000 feet of house drain sewer pipe.

—At Pittsburg, S. F. Sullivan, care of Long & Carrell, Hamilton Building, has made plans for a buff brick church, which will be erected on Mount Washington. It will be well finished and filled with handsome church furniture, all modern conveniences, etc. The estimated cost is $10,000. Rev. W. E. Norris is the pastor in charge.

—J. N. Campbell has finished the plans for a church to be erected at Ingram, Pa., for the First Presbyterian congregation.—Ludwick D.ck, M. Clintock Building, is receiving estimates for the erection of fifty dwellings to be erected for the Knoxville Improvement Company, and which were previously reported.—Work has begun on four handsome dwellings to be erected by G. C. Myle, 307 Highland avenue, Station A. They will be attractively finished, supplied with all modern conveniences, and will cost $4000 each.—Charles W. Camp has begun work on three two-story and attic frame dwellings, to cost about $13,000. They will be well finished throughout.—Long & Carrell, Hamilton Building, have finished plans for a handsome dwelling to be erected for B. F. Reynolds. It will be of brick, well finished, tile work, plain and ornamental glass, fine plumbing and fixtures, and will cost about $8000.—J. E. Allison, Lewis Building, has revised the plans for the hotel building to be erected at Fraleyville for W. H. King, and will ask new bids for the same.

D. H. Hostetter will erect an eight story office building at Wood street and First avenue.—W. A. Lincoln, 320 Fourth avenue, has begun work on a handsome dwelling to be erected on Baum street. It will be of brick, finely finished throughout, and supplied with all modern conveniences and improvements. The estimated cost is about $5000.—Architect Bartberger has let the contract for the addition to the Masonic Hall at Greensburg, Pa., to Fair & Co., of Blairsville, Pa.—Architect Sauer, Hamilton Building, has let the contract for the Holy Name Church, at Duquesne, Pa., to Stratton & Buchholz, of McKeesport, Pa. The same architect will place plans on the boards this week for the Homestead parsonage.—S. Bossinger, 7728 Susquehanna street, has begun work on a dwelling, to cost $5000, which will be erected on Linden avenue. The owner is F. F. Bailey, Hill avenue, Wilkensburg, Pittsburg. It will be well finished throughout. A. & S. Wilson have the contract for the erection of a two-story brick stable in the rear of 45 Irwin avenue, for W. W. Willock. ## Architect Notes.

Kernedy, Hayes & Kelsey, architects, 931 Chestnut street, are engaged on plans for extensive alterations to the residence of W. N. Wilbur, at Devon, Pa. These include all the latest modern improvements for general comfort and convenience. No contracts have been let.

Bailey & Truscott, architects, 421 Chestnut street, have on boards plans for a fine stable to be erected at Jenkintown, Pa., for Mr. Cyrus H. K. Curtis. Estimates are to be invited by the architects at an early day. Other work in preparation which will be noted in future.

Bunting & Sprigley, associate architects, No. 1420 Chestnut street, have made plans for a store building for Samuel S. Pennock, to be erected at 1618 Ludlow street. The structure will be of brick and stone, three stories high, plate glass windows and all comforts on interior. Estimates being made in office of John R. Wiggins, 1220 Filbert street.

Schermerhorn & Reinhold, architects, 430 Walnut street, have made plans for a fine barn and semi-detached dwelling, to be erected at Overbrook, Pa., for Joseph B. Townsend, Jr. It will be all frame, with shingle roof, and all modern conveniences on interior. The contract for house for Mrs. C. A. Espray, at Bryn Mawr, has been given to Samuel R. Hawes, of Ardmore. It will be remembered these are extensive alterations. Previously noted.

Lemuel Altemus, contractor, of Olney, Pa., has been awarded the contract to erect the German Evangelical Lutheran Tabor Church, at Olney, Pa. It will be frame, one story high, slate roof, plate windows, furnace heat and modern comforts. This structure will be but a temporary one, as the congregation will erect a better building in the future. A parsonage will be built in the near future. All plans are by T. Frank Miller, architect, Lippincott Building. Previously noted in this journal.

W. C. Jr., & T. B. Pritchett, architects, 424 Walnut street, have placed the drawings for the new Blockley Baptist Church on boards of contractors for estimate. The specifications call for a one story open truss structure of stone, slate roof, ornamental glass windows and doors, concrete work, brick work, iron work, sheet and metal roofing tiling and marble work, furnace heat, electric combination fixtures and all general conveniences. Drawings in office of John R. Wiggins, contractor, 1220 Filbert street.

Hales & Ballinger, architects, 1200 Chestnut street, have finished plans for a factory building, 70 x 120 feet, to be four-stories high and erected by Gustave A. Bisler, at 249 to 255 North Sixth street. It will be of iron, brick and terra cotta construction, steam heating and power electric work, freight lift and all late improvements. Estimates are now in order at the architects office. Other plans are in course of preparation for work under the same architect's supervision, which will soon be noted in these columns.

C. E. Rahn, architect, 410 Walnut street, has on boards plans for a large factory, three stories high, 215 x 53 feet; three story and a wing, 68 x 40 feet; also a dye and storage house, 100 x 70 feet, and an engine and boiler room 65 x 45 feet; also a sulphur house, 12 x 42 feet. All are to be of brick, stone and iron construction. These are to be erected by the Toronto Carpet Manufacturing Company, of Toronto, Canada. The buildings will contain steam heat and power, also electric work and freight lifts, with all modern conveniences, etc.

Seymour Davis, architect, 917 Walnut street, has been selected to prepare all the plans for the High School building to be erected at Chester, Pa. The structure will be of brick, stone and iron construction, three stories high, slate roof and furnished on interior with steam heat, electric work, best system of plumbing, closets, cloak rooms, toilet rooms, considerable cement work, windows of plate glass. All general scholastic improvements will be introduced. The cost will approximate, if not exceed, $100,000. Details later.

Mr Morgan Bunting, architect, 1420 Chestnut street, is busily engaged on plans for either an office or business building to be erected in the central part of the city. Mr. Morgan, when called upon, would not indicate any particular location for the structure and was disposed to say little in regard to the matter at the present time. There is no doubt, however, as to preliminary sketches being prepared for at least a ten story structure, to be erected in the near future, and the reticence due to securing site and financial consideration may be involved, as is frequently the case.

Henry D. Dagit, architect, 435 Chestnut street, is engaged on drawings for a new school and lyceum building, to be erected by the Redemptorists Fathers, at Diamond and Mascher streets, Rev. Father Weigle, pastor, in charge. The building will contain eighteen large class rooms, teachers' rooms, reception hall, and one large society hall, a boiler and engine room and a kindergarten school. The lyceum will be attached in an "L" shaped wing and both three stories high, containing lockers, bath and pool, bowling alleys and toilet rooms. The structures will front on Mascher street, 200 x 105 feet. The roofs will be high pitch, tiled, and style of architecture English Gothic. Material used will be stone, brick and iron, fireproof on interior as well, electric work, finest of plumbing and all modern comforts, including steam heat, etc. Estimates are to be made at once and work proceed.

John D. Allen, architect, 1017 Chestnut street, has completed plans for remodeling the entire interior of the largest building of the Duquesne Garden and Amusement Company, at Pittsburgh, Pa. When originally erected, this structure was fully noted in these columns. The present plans and specifications call for excavation of interior for a skating rink and auditorium, which will hold 10,000 persons and cover a space of 24,000 square feet. Also stage and general rooms, as well as all paraphernalia for scenes, electric effects, plumbing, etc. A 200 ton refrigerating plant will be placed, concert and club rooms arranged, smoking rooms and parlors, etc. All heated by steam and lighted by electricity, with general comforts. The work will be specially supervised by Mr. Allen, the architect, and no general contract will be let. The same architect is engaged on preliminary plans and sketches for a fine large theatre, to be built by local parties in this city, costing about $150,000, further details of which will be given when ground has been secured and all arrangements made for building. Also drawings for a large twelve-story apartment house, to be constructed also in this city, location and name of owner and builder not given at this time. The cost of the latter will approximate $600,000. Both the latter will be of Pompeian brick, stone and iron, fireproof in every particular and fitted with every improvement and convenience, including electric plants, steam heat and power, marble, mosaic and slate work, ornamental in general interior and exterior decoration, plumbing and ventilation upon improved principle, fire escapes, enclosed elevators and freight lifts, etc. The apartment house will be adapted to house-keeping; contain stores, restaurants, etc.

Building Notes.

Thomas Martindale has sold to T. M. Lamb the property, 433 North Thirty-third street, for $5500. The lot size is 22 x 76 feet.

Asbestos Manufacturing Co., 426 Market street, have been awarded the contract for all the steam pipe coverings at the residence of Mr. P. A. B. Widener, at Ashbourne, Pa.

A. M. Greene, Jr., Germantown, will at once begin erecting fourteen two-story dwellings on Rittenhouse street, Germantown. All will be of brick, stone trimmings and general conveniences on interior.

George D. Liddell, contractor, 166 Franklin street Germantown, will at once begin the erection of a fine residence for Henry F. Nell at Chestnut Hill. It will be 35 x 50 feet, and of brick and stone, three stories high, slate roof and hard wood interior, with every modern comfort and conveniences. Cost $6500.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, AUG. 24, 1898.

It is very evident that there is serious trouble ahead for the magnates of the War Department, whose inefficiency is responsible for the sickness and loss of life arising from malarial and typhoid fevers among the troops.

Had yellow fever been responsible for the heavy death rate, it might have been regarded as the material outcome of the location and the Summer season, but it is now proven that the yellow fever has caused but few deaths, even in the most dangerous districts of Cuba, as most of the poor victims have suffered through the want of sanitation, pure drinking water, and a chronic state of imbecile inefficiency, which has dominated everything except the fighting from the beginning to the end. It was political favoritism that was responsible for the appointment of inexperienced civilians over the heads of trained and experienced army officers to executive positions, involving the maintenance, care and health of the troops and the drastic results, are the natural sequence of ignorance and inefficiency.

Why Chickamauga and Camp Alger should have been permitted to become pest holes is beyond the ken of anyone. They do not speak well for the medical department of the army, nor for the efficiency of the War Department along the whole of its executive line.

Strawbridge & Clothier's Contract Department.

There is a thing or two connected with the furnishing of new houses which is not generally known. One of them is the great saving of money, to be obtained through the contract department, connected with the house of Strawbridge & Clothier, of this city, and another is the great assortment of staple goods, from which selections may be made. The fact is, there is nothing from kitchen to garret, whether for hotel, State or municipal building, or private residence, which, of course embraces the full range of such buildings from mansion to cottage, that is necessary for service or decoration in the way of house furnishings, that cannot be found in great variety within the walls of this immense business concern.

Another and even stronger factor in this question is, the experience, judgment and taste of Mr. P. B. Smythe, the manager of the contract department, whose time and services are always at the disposal of the customer.

There are many instances wherein the selection of the goods has been entirely relegated to Mr. Smythe's judgment, the customer stipulating, of course, the amount to be expended, and we know of such an instance where the buyer frankly admitted to us that he could not duplicate the goods for same money elsewhere.

As importers, manufacturers and wholesale dealers, it is only reasonable to suppose that Strawbridge & Clothier, with the immense resources of their establishment, can render far better services at a minimum of expenditure in furnishing hotels, institutions, ships, etc., under contract than can be obtained by the shrewdest and closest buyers, no matter how much shopping they do, for in such instances a small per centage of profits on the whole order is considered, regardless of the profit of each article under other conditions should be made to yield.

Architects frequently enter with the owner into the question of furnishings; in such cases it would be well for them, in the interest of owners, to keep in mind Strawbridge & Clothier's Contract Department, as well as the immense resources of their wonderful establishment, with its almost endless display of Dry Goods, Linens, Carpets, Bedding, Furniture, etc.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

John Gibson, the well-known builder, has started work on sixty-five two and three story houses at Lehigh avenue and Richmond street. All are of fancy brick fronts and interiors fitted with best modern conveniences and comforts.

John Stafford, builder, will at once begin fifteen more houses on Thirty-third, between Norris and Diamond streets. All to be of fancy brick fronts, stone trimmings and fitted in keeping with those that have preceded them in the immediate vicinity and of the same operation.

As previously noted in these columns, Peters' Island, opposite Belmont, in the Schuylkill River, is soon to be converted into an amusement ground by the Commissioners of Fairmount Park. Superintendent Vodge has surveyed the site and plans are in progress for improvement.

Beverlin & Moody, builders and owners, will at once start an operation of dwellings Manheim, southeast of Wade street, Reger, northeast Greene, fifty-seven in all, in same vicinity. These are to be two and three stories, all fine brick and stone fronts and general comforts on interior.

The Atlantic Refining Company intend to augment their plant at Point Breeze by erecting two large buildings for casing and shipping of oils. These are to be 160 x 100 feet and 40 x 40 feet each, one story high, of brick, stone and iron construction. Plans, by their own architect, have been prepared.

Penrose A. McClain, as custodian of the Post Office building, in this city, will at once advertise for bids to tear down the building, 918 Market street, and prepare the site for the laying of trolley tracks and wagon road. This action will facilitate the movement of mails and add the property to the general office.

The drawings for the new reservoir at George's Hill are being pushed to completion by Chief Webster of the Bureau of Surveys. The money is now accessible, $500,000 being the amount appropriated by Councils out of the $11,200,000. Bids are to be advertised for at an early day by Director Thompson.

The Navy Department has resolved to erect three large warehouses in Brooklyn and one at League Island, Philadelphia. These are to cost $30,000, $60,000 and $75,000, and are for heavy storage of ship supplies. Plans are being made by the department and it is altogether likely bids will be advertised for at an early day.

Benjamin Supplee, builder, will at once erect nine two-story dwellings on west side of Wilton street, below Girard avenue; also three stores and dwellings on east side of Fifty-third street, below Poplar. All to be of fancy brick fronts, stone facings and steps and general conveniences on interior, furnace heat, ranges, boilers, etc.

Bischoff & Campbell, builders, 1001 Chestnut street, will erect 151 dwellings on ground, recently bought at Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, Oxford streets and Columbia avenue. All to be of fancy brick, with stone facings and steps, modern comforts and conveniences on interior, ranges, boilers, furnace heat, plate glass doors and windows, etc.

J. D. Harris, architect and contractor, 1022 Arch street, will at once begin the erection of sixty dwellings, two stories high, on the north side of Greenway avenue, between Sixteenth and Sixty-first streets. All to be of brick, galvanized iron cornices, stone trimmings and steps, furnace heat, hard wood interiors and all conveniences, etc.

G. T. Guthrie, contractor, 1219 Arch street, has been given the contract for the two houses to be erected by Dr. Munyon at Forty second and Brown streets. Plans by Milligan & Webber, architects, 520 Walnut street. As previously noted, they are to be of brick, stone trimmings, and furnished with all late conveniences on interior.

Messrs. Robert Scott & Co. have placed with the Pancoast Ventilator Co., 318 Bourse Building, an order for a 30-inch ventilator, to be used in the Horticultural Building, Fairmount Park. The Pancoast is making rapid strides to public favor and the most pronounced testimonials of its effective work have been sent to the company recently by prominent concerns whose plants were greatly impaired through imperfect ventilation.

R. C. Ballinger & Co., contractors, 218 North Thirteenth street, have the contract to erect a large stable for Haney Bros. & White, at Willow and Seventh streets, from plans by F. Miles Day & Bro., architects. The material, as previously noted, will be of brick, stone trimmings, iron work and some cement as well. The building will be fitted with all general conveniences, etc.

George Cook Meeser, builder, will begin at once the erection of thirteen three-story dwellings on South side of Columbia avenue, between Sixty-second and Sixty-third streets. Also thirteen on north side of Oxford street, between the above-named streets. All will be of Pompeian brick, stone-trimmed fronts and best conveniences for houses of that class, furnaces, ranges, boilers and best comforts and improvements.

Some weeks ago we noted the proposed alteration or rebuilding of the northeast corner of Broad and Tasker streets by the U. G. I. Co. The plans have now been completed by Wilson Bros., architects and engineers, Drexel Building, who have placed them for estimate by contractors. Considerable work will be needed, including an addition three stories high and general overhauling of the interior of the main building to adapt it to office purposes. George F. Payne & Co., 401 Juniper street, and others, are bidding.

Charles McCaul, No. 10 North Eleventh street, will build the new factory for the Potter Sons' & Co. Oil Cloth Works, at Second street and Erie avenue. There are two structures or wings, each five stories high, of brick, stone and iron, and furnished with steam heat and electric light, also freight lifts and general conveniences. Mr. McCaul has also been given the contract to erect the Kent Memorial Library at Sufield, Conn. It will be of granite and Indiana Limestone, brick and iron construction. Cost $60,000.
